A CHANGE OF HEART

Alfred Abrams Sees New Light—Encouraging News from Lake County

Judge W. S. Bullock and F. E. Harris returned home Sunday morning from their capitol removal meetings at Tavares and Leesburg. They were more than pleased with the receptions given them and the expressions of approval on the arguments used and of support for Ocala.

At Tavares fully seventy-five voters met in the court house Friday night to listen to Ocala's orators and Ocala and her friends congratulate themselves that Alfred Abrams, editor, lawyer and political philosopher, kindly and generously acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers, in which remarks the substance was when the question of capitol removal was first sprung on the people he thought Jacksonville was the place for the state's seat of government, but later deliberation compelled him to turn the back of his hand on Jacksonville, and to admit he had made a mistake and was now heartily in favor of Ocala because of her central position and accessibility and the most convenient location for all the people of the state.

Mr. Abrams has a large following in Lake county and as he thinks and talks his friends invariably follow his advice. The fact that Mr. Abrams has publicly declared for Ocala makes Lake county solid for the Brick City and is the most encouraging capitol removal news that has reached us since the campaign began.

The Ocala speakers approached several well known and prominent Leesburgers who were attending court at Tavares and said: "We don't expect much of an audience in Leesburg, as we understand you are all committed to Jacksonville." To which they replied, "Not as bad as that. Dr. Butler, Editor Joe Pratt, Mr. Dozier and a few others are doing a great deal of talking, but you'll find on election day that what they said was all sound and we quiet fellows will do the thundering by voting for Ocala."

The speaking at Leesburg was done on the corner of the street from a dry goods box and in this way at least fifty persons were attracted to the speakers and gave them an attentive hearing and when through received numerous assurances of support for Ocala.

Judge Bullock's argument was of such a cogent and unanswerable kind that Dr. Butler, Leesburg's most enthusiastic Jacksonville supporter, congratulated the Judge and admitted he put up a strong plea for Ocala.

Judge Bullock will leave tomorrow for High Springs, Fort White and Lake City to do further missionary work for Ocala.

MR. MORTON IN NEW YORK

Has Undergone An Operation and is On the Road to Recovery

W. D. Morton has been successfully operated on in the Postgraduate Hospital in New York City for appendicitis. The firm of Morton Brothers had business to transact in Boston. Mr. Joe could not go and W. D. volunteered, as he thought the trip would do him good. Just before taking the steamer at Charleston he had congestive chill and another on the boat before reaching New York. Fortunately there was a trained nurse on the steamer, who took charge of him, and advised him to stop in New York and go to the Postgraduate Hospital and be operated on for appendicitis. He did so, and the nurse's diagnosis proved to be correct. He is doing nicely and will go on to Boston in a few days.

SAM JACOBS ON TRIAL

The famous Sam Jacobs murder trial is on today, in Judge Hocker's court. Jacobs is supposed to have killed another negro, Charley McCracklin, at Shady Grove, last July a year ago. At the last term of the court he was tried and the jury made a mistrial. He was remanded to jail and together with seven other prisoners broke jail and escaped, and despite the reward of $200 offered by Sheriff Nugent and the strenuous efforts made to capture him, remained at large until after court convened this time, when he came in and voluntarily gave himself up to Mr. Nugent.

The trial will likely consume two days. R. B. Bullock is defending the man. There is a long list of witnesses for both sides.
