TEXAS RUST PROOF SEED OATS —AT THE— TEAPOT GROCERY

DEALING OUT JUSTICE

In Dr. Crawford's court Tuesday the negro, Robinson, was fined $10 and cost for beating his wife, the fine being a light one as the woman struck him first.

Hollingshead, the negro who shot another negro through the arm, was placed under a $100 bond for appearance at the spring term of Judge Hocker's court, and in default of which he was sent to jail.

Yesterday Tom Bailey was fined pretty heavily for carrying a revolver concealed. This man was talking in a bragging way to another negro on the street and said something about what he would do to the other fellow with his gun, at the same time making a motion as if to draw. Mr. Lucius, deputy sheriff, was passing at the time and heard the remark and saw the motion made by the negro and promptly arrested and searched him and found a very fine, long barreled S. & W. revolver, which is now the property of the county.

WILL SERVE OYSTERS

Mrs. J. E. Barganier, at the Club House, will serve oysters in all styles at night from 7 to 11 and solicits the patronage of her friends and the public.

Many people worry because they believe they have heart disease. The chances are that their hearts are all right, but their stomachs are unable to digest food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and prevents the formation of gas, which makes the stomach press against the heart. It will cure every form of indigestion. Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

The Anti-Monopoly Drugstore is offering the Oxford Bible with Teacher's Helps at 90 cents while the supply lasts; also Oxford Testaments Illustrated. The Mite Bible is on exhibition, the smallest Bible ever issued from its press. Prices are lower than all competition. Motto: "Quick sales, small profits."

REV. COLLINS DEAD

Rev. W. C. Collins, member of the Florida Methodist Conference, died suddenly Sunday at Salem, Fla. He came from Texas twenty-five years ago and has lived in this state ever since.

Ten years ago he was a resident of Ocala and had a fine orange grove on Orange avenue adjoining the property occupied now by Uncle Joe and Henry Reynolds. Mr. Collins was the first preacher the editor heard preach in Florida, which was nearly sixteen years ago, at Summerfield, which was then one of Mr. Collins' stations. He leaves a widow and four children, all grown. One of his sons is a merchant in Tallahassee and one is located at Webster.

Mr. Collins had many friends in this city and Marion county who will hear of his death with regret. He was a good man and loved by all who knew him.

A CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express through the columns of the Star our sincere thanks for kindness shown by our friends in Anthony and for their assistance in laying away our little one. Also for the beautiful floral tributes presented upon that occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith. Anthony, Fla.

A COZY OYSTER ROOM

C. H. Dame has fitted up a very cozy oyster room in the rear of his candy and fruit store, and is serving the public, both ladies and gentlemen, with those delicious Cedar Key oysters in any style desired. He has an oyster cook of local renown, famed in neatness and skill. Mr. Dame's tables and their appointments are very pretty and a model of neatness and cleanliness. In addition to serving oysters Mr. Dame will serve coffee and light lunches. He will be glad to serve the people and the ladies and children are especially desired to patronize his lunch and oyster room.

Allen Rogers, with part of his gang of hands, was engaged today in laying a new sidewalk of a substantial nature along the Fort King side of the county's property, which extends from the armory to the Witness building.

A. G. Coombs, rector of St. James parish, was robbed last night of $7 in money and his pants and drawers. The thief climbed the balcony and entered the second story, where he despoiled the man of God of his worldly possessions.
