Our Evening Thought

Do not be suspicious or too sensitive. People often suffer through imaginary causes. Allow no little shadow to cloud your day. Bear sweetly any seeming unkindness, and do not magnify them into something great. Often a little misunderstanding at morning is like the mists, it melts away at noonday and leaves the sky of your heart clear and bright. Build a little fence of trust about your heart today. Fill the space with loving work and therein stay. Look not through the sheltering bars upon tomorrow. God will help you hear what comes of joy or sorrow.—Holyoke Howard.

Mrs. B. M. Roberts, the efficient matron of the Ocala high school dormitory, is receiving a great number of applicants for the coming school season, and several students have already arrived. Misses May, Alma and Elma Sykes of Leroy, will spend the winter in attendance at the high school and be under the chaperonage of Mrs. Roberts. The dormitory is beautifully situated in a big oak grove with spacious grounds and the building which is large and commodious in every respect, is in readiness for a busy season.

Mrs. Vernie Roberts, who has for several seasons conducted a study class for Ocala school pupils desiring special help, will tender her summer class, which closed this afternoon for the present season, a pretty little party at 7:30 o'clock at her home in the third ward. She will be assisted by Misses Maude McIntosh, Marie Burnett and her daughter, Miss Cevie Roberts. Miss Cevie Roberts will render a musical program, Miss Louise Roberts will give a reading to musical accompaniment and Miss Dixonia Roberts, who is a clever little actress, will render a character sketch in costume. This little affair will include only the near neighbors of the hostess. Ice cream and cake will be served at the conclusion of the evening's pleasures. Mrs. Roberts is meeting with much success and encouragement in her efforts to maintain these afternoon study classes and we are pleased to note that they will be resumed on the 27th for the winter term.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield of St. Petersburg will arrive in our city about October 1st to make their home. Mr. Mansfield is a postoffice inspector and his charming wife will be quite an acquisition to our social life this winter. They will make their home for the present with Mrs. B. T. Perdue on Fort King avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Groves have purchased a building lot on Long Island, 35 minutes by auto from Broadway. They expect to build at once, and will have their home completed by early spring. Mrs. Groves will spend this winter at home, arriving about the first of January, which news will be of pleasant interest to her many friends.

Mrs. Edward Holder is enjoying a delightful stay in Cincinnati. She writes of the pleasant autumn days and the beautiful informal entertainments of the season and long automobile trips as the guest of friends. Mrs. Holder will leave in a few days for French Lick Springs, where she will spend the balance of her outing.

Miss Rena Smith, after a pleasant summer vacation at Memphis, Tenn., is now in Orangeburg, S. C., filling a position with a large millinery firm in that city. On her way to Orangeburg she stopped a couple of weeks to visit friends in Atlanta. Miss Smith's Ocala friends will be glad to learn that she intends to return to Ocala for the Christmas holidays.

CHICKEN PILLEAU

The following invitations were issued this week:

Mary Ela Bray at home Thursday, September 16, Chicken Pilleau Mrs. G. D. Washburn.

These invitations were sent to several of the young people who have been taking part in the gold and silver medal contests for the last few months. The night was perfect for such an affair and a most enjoyable time was spent by the thirty or thirty-five guests, all of whom, with a few exceptions, have been in the contest work. We do not remember all of the names but among them were: Mrs. G. D. Washburn, Misses Lotie, Clara and R. E. Curry, Eunice, Lois and Mary Ela Bray, Estelle Wilkes, Ethel Hightower and Jewel Carroll; Messrs. Linder McConn, Roscoe Rahme, Ireland Jones, Marvin Frazier, Rozar Bray and Sam Smith, of Ocala, and Messrs. Odus and George Radford, Alfred and Vernie Abshire, Lester and Jasper Wilson, Lee McCormick, Harry Scarborough, Robert Suggs, Fred Crews and Earl Luffman, of Oak.

WILLISTON AND OAK VALE

Williston, Sept. 13.—In spite of the hard times Williston continues to improve. Mr. J. H. Lepicken, the proprietor of three stores, two of which built of brick were built by himself, is having erected a commodious dwelling house.

Miss Theora Smith of Wacahoota, one of our most promising young teachers, is filling a temporary vacancy in the public school. She will soon leave for Bronson, where she will teach this year.

pastor of the Methodist church at Williston.

The revival meeting at the Methodist church, beginning Aug. 23, was one of the most remarkable in the history of Williston, many being turned away at different times for want of room.

Miss Eddie Reddick, a former teacher of the Ebenezer school, was the guest of the family of Mr. W. H. Anderson last week. Miss Reddick has for several years been employed by a business firm in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Mims Mattair have recently taken a new boarder in the person of the proverbial bouncing baby boy.

The patrons of the Ebenezer school are unusually well pleased this year with their teacher, Miss Hattie Akin of St. Catharine, Sumter county. Like her predecessor, Prof. Thorn, as of last year, Miss Akin is not only an earnest, competent teacher, but also a valuable addition to the social and religious life of the community.

Mrs. S. Reddick is with us again, having returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Robinson of Starke.

Our genial mail carrier, Mr. Michael Clancy, is on the route again after a vacation of two weeks spent with his parents at Oak Vale.

Those cakes made at Carter's Bakery under the name "DELICIOUS" are everything that the name indicates. Six flavors made fresh every day and put up in 10c packages. Accept no other.
