Thought for the Day

The man or woman without a purpose is never happy, matters not as to health or wealth. Some of the most wonderful inventions have been wrought by invalids; some of the most beautiful thoughts have blossomed into deeds that sprung from the hearts of those who were suffering physical pain. Do not allow yourself to live without a purpose. Learn your capabilities and make use of them.—John G. Whittier.

The eight o'clock dancing club gave the opening dance of the season last evening at the Woman's Club rooms. The affair was very enjoyable to all the members and their guests, many of whom were dancing while others enjoyed looking on. Mr. R. L. Anderson Jr. with his sister, Mrs. R. C. Camp, led, executing several unique steps unfamiliar to many of the dancing set. To the strains of Needham's orchestra the light fantasies were tripped until near the midnight hour. Those present, participating in this delightful diversion, were Misses Mary Burford, Martha Kate Rentz, Marion Long, Dorothy Schreiber, Blair Woodrow, Mildred Groman, Hope Robinson, Caroline Harriss, Ruby Gissendaner and Ethel Haycraft; Messrs. Phil Robinson, Clarence Meffert, Carlisle Izlar, Whitfield Palmer, Albert Harriss, Robert Anderson, Leslie Anderson, John Chazal, Sam Mathews, Robert Clarkson, Duncan McDonald and Holmes Walters. The married couples dancing were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lloyd, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Dozier, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Hilands, Mrs. R. C. Camp and Mrs. Robert Allen Burford. Looking on for all or a portion of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Chazal, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Wartmann, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crook, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hamrick, Mrs. G. K. Robinson, Mrs. Mills-Price, Miss Eugenia Fuller, Miss Annie Atkinson and Miss Bettie McIver. During intermission chicken sandwiches and hot coffee were the refreshments passed informally from the kitchen. The gowns worn upon this occasion were very beautiful and elicited much deserved admiration. Following the lovely affair of last evening will be the Thanksgiving dance which will be held on the evening of the 26th.

Miss Annie Atkinson left this morning for a week-end visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dale and family in Gainesville. Miss Atkinson will join the Gainesville representatives on Tuesday for DeLand, where she will spend all of next week attending the state federation meeting.

Quite a number of young ladies met yesterday afternoon at the high school and organized a literary club, the meetings to be held each first and third Thursday in each month. Miss Adele Bittinger was unanimously elected president and Miss Hope Robinson, secretary and treasurer. The full number of members will be decided upon at the next meeting which will be held at some one of the members' homes and the full routine of winter work mapped out. Admitted for membership at yesterday's meeting, besides the officers mentioned, were Misses Hester Dewey, Ellen Clarkson, Mary and Anna McDowell, Nellie Gottlieb, Helen Brown, Kathleen Jackson, Annie Atkinson, Alice Bullock, Mary Burford, Bettie Melver, Edith Williams, Rosebud Robinson and Tommie Abernathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay of Jacksonville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McIver today, coming down from Gainesville this morning in their car, where they have been enjoying the Alachua fair for several days.

Dickson chapter, U. D. C. held a meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. L. Carney, instead of yesterday as had been announced, it being the time for the annual election of officers. A full report will be given in Monday's paper, as the hour of the meeting was too late for today's publication.

Mrs. Campbell and daughter, Miss Irene Campbell of DeLand, are guests for the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stripling on Fort King avenue. Before returning to her home, Miss Campbell will pay a short visit to Mrs. James Taylor.

Little Miss Elizabeth Dickson, the wee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Dickson, entertained about twenty of her friends yesterday afternoon at a very beautiful party at the home of her parents on Oklawaha avenue in celebration of her fifth birthday. The guests arrived near three o'clock and were given a merry greeting by Miss Dickson, assisted by her mother and Mrs. C. R. Kreger, who saw that nothing was left undone for the pleasure of the little ones. The dining room was arranged in Christmas decorations with a huge white cake and red and white candles, lighted. Ice cream and individual cakes were served and pretty boxes with Santa Claus heads filled with fruits were given as souvenirs. Many beautiful birthday remembrances were received by the winsome hostess, her guests being Misses Virginia Peek, Martha and Mary Roess, Dorothy Frank, Lucile Horne, Marguerite Sexton, Mary Carn, Tina Chazal, Dorothy Adams, Cora Killebrew, Frances McIver, Margaret Gerig, Mary Troxler, McClure Stephens, Paul Theus, Fred Bialock and Harry Clarkson.

Mrs. Port Leavengood, Mrs. Loderick M. Jones, Mrs. Etta Hood Robinson and Mr. Bruce Meffert returned last evening from Gainesville, where they had been attending the big Alachua County Fair. Hansel Leavengood and Roscoe Meffert will return tonight, having stayed over to see the Ocala "Wild Cats" trim the Gainesville basket ball team this forenoon.

Mrs. Herbert L. Anderson of Jacksonville, formerly of this city, will be the hostess of a very large charity card party on next Wednesday afternoon at her home on Monroe and Market streets, the proceeds to go to Daniel Memorial Orphanage and Home for the Friendless. She will be assisted by Mrs. George Powell, Mrs. S. B. Hubbard and Mrs. Edward L'Engle.

Miss Collie Clark entertained the junior members of the Methodist sewing circle at her home this afternoon. The young people assembled about 3 o'clock. The entire afternoon was devoted to needlecraft after which Miss Clark assisted by her mother served fruit punch and cake.

Mr. L. R. Trammell of Lakeland, a brother of the governor, arrived in our city yesterday and is stopping at the Davis House on Oklawaha avenue. Mr. Trammell will be joined on Monday by Mrs. Trammell. He will hold a position with the Marion Sub-Exchange and may make his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clyatt and sister, Miss Ernestine Brooks, have returned from a delightful automobile trip through South Florida. Mrs. Knight, who accompanied them, stopped off in Lakeland for a few days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ritchie and family.

Miss Eugenia Fuller was the hostess of the young ladies' auction club this afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. William Martin on West Broadway. Three tables were placed for the players in the attractive sitting room and the ever fascinating game of auction enjoyed for several hours. At the conclusion of the afternoon Miss Fuller served delicious fruit salad, wafers, nut bread, pickles and tea to her guests. Besides the members playing were Miss Irene Campbell of DeLand, Mrs. Mills-Price, Miss Mary McDowell and Miss Dorothy Lancaster. The guest prize was an exquisitely embroidered collar, the handiwork of the clever hostess, and to the club member holding the highest score was given a pair of embroidery scissors. The afternoon as Miss Fuller's guests was one of much pleasure and thoroughly enjoyable.

The Philathea class of the Baptist church, chaperoned by Rev. and Mrs. Bunyan Stephens, Dr. and Mrs. E. Van Hood and Mrs. Will Goins, enjoyed a very lovely picnic and camp fire supper last night near the lime pit on the Silver Springs road. The crowd consisting of about forty, went out in automobiles about 7 o'clock. Great camp fires had been lighted and through the moss covered trees and low growing shrubbery the reflection was cheery and brilliant. When all had assembled the bounteously prepared supper was served from snowy linen spread upon the ground under the trees, and such a spread as it was—with all the delicacies and substantial known to local delicatessen art; it was indeed a feast of good things and done full justice to by a merry, jolly party. After supper a short business session followed, the meeting being a most satisfactory one. The evening was a perfect one for such an entertainment, being clear and warm with a new southern moon which shed its softest beams to make more perfect the pleasure of all present.

KENDRICK W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the Kendrick W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 9th, at the church. In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. W. B. Livingston, opened the meeting by reading the 6th chapter of Matthew.

Song, "Scatter Sunshine." Prayer by Mr. O. G. Olin. The W. C. T. U. and the Missionary Society having united in holding a week of prayer, services are being held at the church each afternoon this week, and hence the business meeting was made very brief.

Mrs. George Chappell, evangelistic superintendent, had charge of the remainder of the services. As a scriptural lesson she read the 15th chapter of John, the parable of the vineyard, followed by an excellent talk on the work of her department.

Three excellent papers were then read and commented upon as follows:

1. Caring for the Vineyard, by Mrs. W. B. Livingston.
2. How Christ Organized for Personal Work, by Mrs. Clark.
3. Eternal Issues, by Miss Julia Webb.

The meeting was closed with a special prayer and altar service. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 23rd, at the home of Mrs. W. B. Livingston. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present. Julia H. Webb, Press Superintendent.
