

CHRISTMAS SERVICE OF THE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

Many White Gifts for the King's Birthday

The birthday season of the Savior was beautifully celebrated at the Baptist church Sunday night by the members of the church and Sunday school. From 6 to 6:30 the Sunday school orchestra led by Dr. McClane, played as the congregation was assembling. At 6:30, the hour appointed for the services, the house was filled overflowing by an attentive and appropriate audience.

The church was beautiful in its decorations of white and green. Garlands of southern smilax gracefully outlined the moulding, doorways and the alcove forming a pretty setting for the platform which was completely covered with white. Large white letters extended across the rear of the church and formed the words, "White Gifts for the King." A rope of electric lights, covered to represent white bells, were suspended from the center ceiling and caught to the sides of the building, forming a canopy for the white stage.

In the center of the platform was placed a large cross draped in white, emblematic of the service for which Christ came to earth, to give his life for others.

Prof. Cassels told the Christmas story of the King's birthday and why we celebrate it. The children of the primary department sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Away in a Manger" and "Why do Bells for Christmas Ring." Little Misses Fanita Cobb, Mary Christine Cassels and Louise Adams, dainty in their dresses of white, recited a story of Christmas. At the close of this the children with their pennies in little white bags marched to the altar and laid their gifts at the foot of the cross.

The class taught by Mrs. Christian came next with its gift, which is to be used for local charity, the boys speaking their parts splendidly.

The little girls, under the leadership of their teacher, Mrs. Cassels, in bringing their gift for the orphanage sang sweetly, "Merry, Merry Christmas."

The beautiful words of John 3:16, were recited by the young girls who are taught by Mrs. J. H. Livingston Sr. Their gift is to be used in local charity. The junior boys, taught by Mr. Akin, brought their gift of money which will be used in the same way.

No part of the evening's program was more effective than the service, Gifts for the King, which was given by girls from the girls' auxiliary and the junior Philathea classes. The gifts for the King brought by these were service, self and substance. Each girl was dressed in white and carried a large white star bearing the name of her gift. Miss Gladys Osborn represented service and beautifully spoke her lines as she presented the gifts of self and substance. The gifts of self were represented by the following: Sight, Irene Carn; hearing, Edith Edwards; speech, Myrtle Hall; actions, Lonnie Pinder; steps, Mabel Robinson; thoughts, Mattie Lou Brown. The gifts of substance were represented by Nettie Camp, giving time; Agnes Burford, talents; Edith Howard, intelligence; Sadie Dinkins, obedience; Edith Lindley, prayer; Gertie Brigrance, faith; Dovie Gates, love.

Miss Ava Lee Edwards closed the service with an appeal to give your all to the Master.

The Children's Home Society and the far away mission fields will be brightened by the material gifts of these two classes.

The junior Baracas sent their gift for use in local charity, while the Baraca class will make happy the hearts of the children in the orphanage with a large turkey for their Christmas dinner. They will also give Christmas cheer to prisoners in the jail and homes of the city that are in need.

As the gifts were being presented Mr. Frank Gates sang in his always pleasing style "The Star of the East."

The Bereans made a gift of $18 to be devoted to the use of aged ministers.

The teachers and officers of the Sunday school presented to their faithful superintendent, Mr. W. T. Gayr, a Christmas letter assuring him of their deep appreciation of his loyal interest, their continual help and as a tangible evidence of their appreciation they gave him with best wishes of the season an oxidized silver desk set.

The tableau, The Statue of Love, was a fitting scene for the close of the evening's service. The Statue of Love, represented by Miss Rebecca Counts, president of the Philathea class, was perfect in every detail. Every light in the house was darkened and in the alcove just back of the pulpit the statue was portrayed, holding high in her right hand the word, "Love." The letters were made of tiny electric bulbs, and sent forth a light that was intended to represent the Light of Love. The members of the Philathea class, all in white, stood in a wedge-shaped line, the statue forming the center, and sung softly and sweetly, "A Little Bit of Love." Miss Alice Bullock representing the Jubilate class and Miss Johnson the Fidelis, came and stood on either side of the cross and told the story of what their classes were doing, supporting a Bible woman in far away Japan and China.

Marching slowly and stately came the other members of the two classes, singing, "I Love to Tell the Story of Jesus and His Love," and kneeling around the altar formed one of the most impressive and sweetly sacred pictures that the mind could imagine. One could see in fancy the night on the plains of Bethlehem when the angels appeared to the sleeping shepherds and told them to awake for "Christ the Lord was born."

This tableau closed the evening's entertainment, which was one of the most beautiful and impressive that has been given in the city.

A committee composed of Mr. Bunyan Stephens, Dr. Van Hood and Mr. W. T. Gary took charge of the gifts and will see that they are delivered to the places for which they were intended by Christmas eve.

The Sanitary Removable Front Roll Door Hoosier

Like most wonderful inventions, this new Kitchen Cabinet is so simple that you will wonder why no one discovered it before.

Yet, makers have experimented for ten years to produce it. Hoosier triumphs again with the only kitchen cabinet that has roll doors which are sanitary and removable.

No Partitions

Note the entire absence of cubby holes or dirt breeding pockets. As on all Hoosier Cabinets the space of the cupboard is free of partitions. The doors slide in an ingeniously contrived channel which is open and easy to clean. A simple motion removes the doors and a whisk broom or cloth dusts out the channel completely. You will recognize all the other features that make the Hoosier Cabinet famous.

This Week for $1 Cash

Women If you are tired out at night; if your back aches; if you never get through; if you want system in your kitchen, get a Hoosier on trial tomorrow and see the difference. The Hoosier will amaze you with its saving of time, labor and steps in a single day!

Men If your wife is not strong, ask your doctor what standing all day in the kitchen means. If you like good meals on time; if you'd rather have your wife with her family in the evening instead of devoting the whole evening to clearing up the supper dishes—buy her a Hoosier—and do it NOW.
