

WACAHOOTA

Wacahoota, Dec. 21.—Today dawned clear and bright and everybody was delighted to see the beautiful sunshine after a steady rain of twenty-four hours.

There was no school Monday on account of the hard, cold rain.

Mr. T. P. Whitesides is building a pantry and bathroom on Mr. J. M. Smith's residence.

Miss Loleta Rawls, Roscoe Smith and Mr. Cedrick Smith were on a shopping tour to Gainesville last Friday. They were guests of Mrs. C. G. Mixon while in the city. Mrs. M. E. Beck met them there on her way home from a week's visit to Jacksonville and accompanied them home.

Mr. J. M. Smith, Mrs. V. P. Smith, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mr. B. F. Long and Mrs. Sara Shuler motored over to the University City on a shopping tour Friday morning.

Mr. Woodson Bradshaw was transacting business in the University City last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Curry and daughter Thelma and Miss Ethel Senn were on a shopping tour in Gainesville Saturday. They were the guests of Mr. W. M. Tally to dinner.

Mrs. Hanson Hogan of Central died in Micanopy Saturday night, while on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ford. She had not felt well for several days but was not considered dangerously ill until Thursday she was taken very suddenly and only lived until Saturday night. Just as the Sabbath day was coming in, her spirit took its flight to the God who gave it. While she was given every attention and the best medical skill and tender nursing, her life work was ended and she was called to her last home. She was quite an old resident of this place, being in her seventy-seventh year. Owing to her short illness some of FLORIDA WOMEN SHOULD TAKE THIS ADVICE.

Ft. Myers, Fla.—"I have in my possession an old edition of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1883, and feel that it has been of the greatest use to me in rearing my family."

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription' are friends of a number of years' standing, and have proved their value. When I was in need of medical assistance, they did me a world of good. I was very nervous all the time, had headaches over the eyes, at which times all in the house would have to keep quiet. Sleep was quite irregular from tired and excited nerves. I was so poor and thin, too, that I did not weigh a hundred pounds. I continued taking the two medicines until every feature in my case was improved to my satisfaction."

—Mrs. E. A. KING, 136 Johnson St. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics, is not a secret remedy for all its ingredients are printed on wrapper.

her children did not reach her bedside before the end came. She had been a member of the M. E. church since early womanhood. The remains were laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery by the side of her husband Sunday afternoon. Rev. Entzinger of Micanopy, officiated. Quite a large crowd of friends came with the grief-stricken children, grand-children and only sister and other relatives to pay their last respects to their deceased friend. There were quite a number of beautiful floral offerings. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing ones in their hour of grief.

Miss Thelma Curry was a week-end guest of Miss Eloise Ramsey of the University City.

Miss Theora Smith returned home Sunday from several months' stay at Sarasota, where she is a valuable member of the high school faculty of that place. Her many friends here are glad to have her with them for the holidays.

Miss Loleta Rawls returned to her home at Montbrook Sunday after a week's visit to Misses Leola and Rosalie Smith. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smith and family accompanied her home and were spend the day guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Rawls.

Quite a number of visitors are expected during the holidays. The Central school will close Thursday and an entertainment is to be given at the school house Thursday night.

Don't Get Careless. No man we've met Would like to die, Yet some forget To swat the fly.

Accommodating. "The telephone operator on this line is very accommodating, isn't she?" remarked the old fogey. "She certainly is," replied the grouch. "When she can't remember the number you ask for she always gives you something just as good."

Correct. Don't cuss your tough luck day and night. Don't feel of hope bereft; If you will only do what's right You'll find you won't be left.

Same Thing. "Are you going camping this year?" asked Smith. "No," replied Brown. "I am going to stay home for two weeks and take the screens out of the windows and take the mattress off the bed and live on canned goods."

In Europe. The battle wages day and night. The fearsome war not always holds; Once they were sparring for a fight. Now they are fighting for the spoils.

Paw Knows Everything. Willie—Paw, what is dollar diplomacy? Paw—Putting a collector off until next week, my son.

Sad. Beware the fate of Mrs. Tatt. She's crazy beyond doubt; She changed her mind so often that She wore the poor thing out.

That's Queer! A marriage license was granted at Greensburg, Tuesday, to Mr. J. Floyd Quear and Miss Geneva Quear, both of Ligonier. At this writing the nuptial knot has not been tied.—Ligonier (Pa.) American.

Fact. "Don't scribble just because you're bright." Remarked old Mr. Fort. "The letters that you do not write Will not be read in court."

Well, They're More Expensive Than Cherries. Mr. and Mrs. Duke's wedding gift to their daughter was a superb string of pearls.—New York Times.

Welcome! Here's an entry for Luke McLuke's terrific titular tournament. Church Singer is a farmer in Muskingum county, O.—Zanesville (O.) Signal.

Luke McLuke Says: You can steal money from a man and he will forget it. But if he treats you and you do not buy him a drink in return he will never forgive you.

They claim that beer is a food. But that doesn't keep some fellows from absorbing about 15 cents' worth of free lunch every time they purchase a schooner of hops.

The man who goes around bragging about his conquests over the fair sex is a harmless liar. But look out for the man who never talks about women and who never seems even to look at them.

A girl will spend four whole hours dolling herself up so she will look good to you when you see her. And then she is supposed to get mad because you rubber at her.

There isn't much hope for the man who is ashamed of the fact that he has hair on the back of his hands.

When they are first married she imagines that he wrote the Ten Commandments. But later on she wonders why what she married manages to live when poor old Ananias had to suffer.

We never attended a barber college. But from actual experience with most of the graduates the first thing you learn at a barber college is to put all of the witch hazel and bay rum into a man's eyes and ears and let his chin and upper lip run for Sweeney.

You need not be afraid of the lad who is hunting for trouble. Rap him on the nose and he won't come back at you. But look out for the man who is trying to avoid trouble and don't monkey with him.

The stork is a mean old cuss. He always brings ten children to the man who can't support one.

What has become of the old fashioned man who used to cuss when he got tangled up in his boiled shirt when he was pulling it over his head to get it on and off?

There are other mysteries. The greatest mystery of all is how an empty gun always happens to be loaded.
