Epworth League Social

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Phillips the Senior Epworth League held its monthly social. There were such entertainments as were befitting to the occasion. Song, music and laughter reigned supreme throughout the evening.

Mr. Dexter Phillips, the host, held a humorous business meeting, which consisted in the election of officers. To those who are not acquainted with Tom we introduce him as the draftsman at the Ocala Iron Works. He having had considerable experience in this capacity, was elected draftsman. His duties are the opening and closing of windows. Next in order was the appointment of next one to tend the furnace and a coal-man was needed, so Mr. Floyd Coleman received the appointment. And so on, each and every one was appointed to his or her immediate office.

Piano selections were given by Miss Marguerite Little and Mr. Floyd Coleman and were enjoyed and encored by every one. Refreshments were served and enjoyed, after which the guests bid their host and hostess good-night.

Senior Methodist Sewing Circle

The Senior Methodist sewing circle will meet at the residence of Mrs. R. L. Bridges Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

A number of Ocala young folks (and one old one) went to Belleview last night to attend the ball given in honor of Miss Minnie Tremere, who will leave for Southern College Tuesday. Belleview's pretty club house is a fine place to dance in, and was well utilized from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. Many of Belleview's people are yet in the north, but a good-sized contingent was out, including Miss Tremere, her sister, Miss Eleanor, and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith and several others. From Ocala went Misses Claudia O'Neal, Ruth Hardee, Mildred Warner, Louise Biting and Ruby Knight, Lieut. Stone, Corporal Blacklock, the Star representative, Messrs. Van Boney, John Negdham, W. F. and John Adams, Roy James, Frank Churchill and a bunch of the other boys who stepped around so lively the Star reporter couldn't count them. Messrs. Wiley Burford, M. C. Izlar and James Rentz, out autoing, stopped in to look on for awhile, and late in the evening, Linn Sanders, Sibbald Wilson and Carlton Irvine, on their way home from the lake, halted to have a hand, or rather a foot, in the fun. Carlton proved a welcome reinforcement to the piano-pounding contingent, and Candidate Frank Adams played the fiddle, a la Bob Taylor. The Shady Grove contingent was present in force, including Mr. Adams, who is unexcelled at leading the square dances. The next ball is announced for Friday evening, Oct. 6, and the Ocala contingent is already planning to attend.

Everybody is glad to have Mr. and Mrs. William Hocker and children home again. They arrived from Denver yesterday. They have been out west the latter part of the summer and greatly enjoyed their trip. Mr. Hocker says business is good in the west. Speaking of the prices of land, however, he says that what we call a landshark down here would be a very moderate and reasonable real estate agent out there. Regarding politics, he makes no predictions, but he says undoubtedly there is a considerable split among the republicans.

Mrs. H. S. Chambers and her bright little boy Robert and her mother, Mrs. Blocher, are home from the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Galloway have returned from their country home at Moss Bluff.

Mrs. L. E. Edmondson and daughter, Leah, arrived yesterday, to visit Mrs. Edmondson's daughter, Mrs. Chas. E. Harris.

Mrs. D. E. McIver and Misses Bettie and Francis McIver have returned home from their summer cottage by Lake Weir.

The eighth birthday of that pretty young lady, Miss Babette Peyser, was celebrated yesterday afternoon by a party given by her mother and grandmother to a number of her friends.

State Senator Igou of Lake county and daughter, Miss Willie, passed thru Ocala today. Miss Willie was on her way to Tallahassee, to enter the Florida Woman's College, and her father accompanies her as far as the metropolis.
