DESPERATE BATTLE ON THE DIAMOND

THIRTEENTH INNING

Brooklyn: Mowry hit to third, Gardner threw wild and Mowry was safe at first on the error. Olson out, sacrifice pitcher to first, Mowry taking second. Miller was out on a pop fly to catcher in front of the plate, and Smith was out on a fly to left, Lewis, for Boston, making a great catch. No runs, no hits, one error.

Boston: Hooper was out, pitcher to first on the first pitcher ball. Janvrin popped out to third. Walsh out pop fly to third. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTEENTH INNING

Brooklyn: Johnston was out, short to first. Daubert was out on a fly to center. Myers was out, short to first. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Boston: Hohlitzel got his fourth pass of the game. Smith is evidently afraid of him. Lewis sacrificed on a bunt to pitcher to first, Hohlitzel taking second. McNally is now running for Hohlitzel. Gaynor batting for Gardner singled to left, McNally scoring the winning run. One run, one hit, no errors.

Final score:
Boston 2
Brooklyn 1

NEWS FROM COMPANY A

Mrs. Fannie Anthony received two messages today from her son Ned, with Company A of the Second regiment. The first was mailed in Louisiana, and said the company was having a fine trip; everything was pleasant and the boys felt well repaid for their hard work. The second was a brief message, written on an army biscuit, just as the train was entering San Antonio, and said everybody was well. Mrs. Anthony also had a letter from her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Webb, at Houston, who met the trains conveying the soldiers in that city, and had quite a little visit with her brother and friends in Company A. Mrs. Webb wrote that she and Mr. Webb intended to go to Laredo soon and visit the regiment.

RHODES-LANG

The Times-Union of Sunday contains an account of a pretty home wedding at Waverly, Ga., in which Miss Bessie Louise Lang of Waverly was married to Mr. Egbert Hugh Rhodes. Mr. Rhodes is a young business man of Jacksonville, and his bride is a cousin of Mr. Louis Lang of this city.

Democratic Right to Be Proud.

Much has been said of the federal reserve system as a constructive act of legislation. But all that has been said of it in this character as a fact for peace is outdone in what is now said of it as a fact for war by impartial observers at a distance and speaking in the light of the greatest cataclysm ever known to the world.

There has been no political maxim in this country more arrogantly exploited by its formulators than that the Republican is the party of construction and the Democratic party of destruction. But the fact remains that this greatest act of legislative construction in over fifty years is the work of the so-called party of destruction—a work achieved in the nick of time against the insistent neglect of the so-called party of construction.

Surely a Call for Wilson.

It is no time to put a demagogue in the presidential office. It is no time to put a logomachist there. The hour is a rude hour. The circumstances of the situation are realities that will crush all that is artificial. We want no artificiality, no humbug. The need is for naked strength. American manhood stripped of all shams, the habit of thought that is sure and silent, as all strong things are.—Providence Tribune.

Republicans Have No Issue.

The Democrats are enacting a great constructive program, and dealing with great problems cautiously and with good results as a rule. The people are realizing that in a critical time like this it would be hazardous to trust the Republican party, and there is not one pledge that they can make in sincerity that the people would be justified in considering seriously.

The Republican party has no issue.

The Only Righteous Man.

We suppose Colonel Roosevelt loves this country as much as could be expected, considering the number of lars, scoundrels and all-round malefactors he regards it to contain.—Houston Post.

Easy to See Colonel's Aims.

The colonel declares that the protective tariff must not be the Republican issue. The reason is plain. On that issue some other man might be nominated. But of heroism and the nation's soul the colonel has a snug little monopoly.

Country is Not Complaining.

Of course nothing is ever done right under a Democratic president, and yet the country gets along extraordinarily well. It is better off than any other country in the world.

Advertise in the Star.

"You haven't got anything on my husband," said the woman in the drug store. "Oh, yes, I have," replied the druggist: "he's wearing a porous plaster he hasn't paid me for yet."

WHEN YOU TAKE COLD

With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the most dangerous diseases start with a common cold. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy, as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Obtainable everywhere.

For Public Safety.

The mayor of the city and his cabinet were solemnly considering the problem of safety in the streets. The police commissioner had stated his views and others proposed various legislative measures to control vehicle drivers and pedestrians. Finally it was the turn of the corporation counsel to speak. "I think," he said with judicial calm, "that what we need is an ordinance to make the girls wear longer skirts. Then fewer men would get run over in the streets."

DESPONDENCY

When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel right within a day or two. Despondency is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.

WOMEN OF FLORIDA.

Women Everywhere Endorse this "Favorite".

Bell, Fla.—"I am the mother of five children. With my first four I had so much trouble with morning sickness, etc., that I dreaded the ordeal again until one of my friends advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which acted so well with me that all my fear passed away. The Favorite Prescription did me so much good that all my discomfort subsided. My doctor was much surprised as I was sick but one hour."—Mrs. W. C. Townsend, R. F. D. 1, Arcadia, Fla.—"I consider your Favorite Prescription without a superior for a woman whose ailments are peculiar to her sex. No matter what her ill health is due to it can be benefited by this medicine—that is, such as come from female troubles. In my case I had terrible bearing-down pains with dull pains in my back to such an extent that I could not stand up long enough to wash dishes. I was tired and weak all the time and had to lie down the greater part of the time. My stomach was in such a bad state that I could not retain anything I took into it, not even water. The Favorite Prescription not only brought relief from these symptoms but I believe it made childbirth easier."—Mrs. T. D. Dawdy. Young mothers who preserve the charms of face and figure in spite of an increasing family and the care of growing children are always to be envied. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives the strength and health upon which happy motherhood depends. It practically does away with the pains of maternity. It enables the mother to nourish the infant in the best manner.
