

LOST WHEN THE LIFEBOATS WERE LAUNCHED

Six Americans On Board the Marina Went Down With the Ship

STATE DEPARTMENT IS INVESTIGATING AND WILL PROBABLY REPORT THAT THEY COMMITTED SUICIDE

(Associated Press)

London, Nov. 1.—Consul Frost at Queenstown telegraphed the names of five Americans lost when the Marina was sunk to the American embassy here.

INVESTIGATION WILL BE MADE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—Secretary Lansing authorized the statement today that the political campaign now in progress would not affect an investigation of recent submarine attacks and that there has been no change in the American government's policy.

It was said the American embassy at Berlin was instructed to ask for an investigation, not an explanation.

SIX AMERICANS WENT DOWN WITH THE SHIP

London, Nov. 1.—Six Americans were killed in the sinking of the British steamer Marina, according to a telegram received by American Consul Frost at Queenstown.

COULDN'T USE THE CANNON

London, Nov. 1.—Affidavits made by American survivors of the Marina said the vessel had a small gun astern, but couldn't use it as the submarine attacked without warning.

TRAGEDY AT TRENTON

Duel in the Little Alachua Town Results in One Man Dead and Another Dying

Gainesville, Nov. 1.—A special to the Sun from Trenton says:

E. C. Smart was shot and killed and J. L. McDonald is apparently in a dying condition as the result of a pistol duel which occurred on the streets of Trenton Tuesday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock.

It is alleged that McDonald's 17-year-old daughter had some disagreement with her mother Thursday of last week and went first to Newberry, and thence to Valdosta.

Smart left on Saturday and joined the young lady. Miss McDonald returned to Trenton Monday afternoon and Smart returned Tuesday afternoon.

Smart was walking up the main street of the town when McDonald approached and commenced firing, the first shot taking effect in Smart's back.

McDonald received two wounds, one in the stomach and the other between the eyes and at a late hour last night was said to be in a dying condition.

Smart was shot in the back, in the stomach, in the chest and in the head and lived only about fifteen minutes.

The tragedy is a sad one and has cast a gloom over the whole town. Mr. McDonald is a traveling man and has a wife and three daughters.

Mr. F. M. Brooks has the lumber on the ground to remodel and cover the Kunkle place, which he recently purchased and will occupy it as soon as it is habitable as his permanent home.

SWINGING ROUND THE CIRCLE

President Woodrow Wilson is Abroad on his Final Campaign Trip

(Associated Press)

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 1.—President Wilson arrived here today on his final campaign tour.

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT

Headquarters Democratic Executive Committee, Jacksonville, Fla. October 31, 1916.

Editor Star: By letter bearing date of October 25th addressed to me, by Hon. T. F. West, attorney general, he declared his support of all the democratic nominees in this election, which letter has recently been published in the newspapers of this state.

The letter of Mr. West was in reply to a letter written by the democratic campaign committee to him, specifically requesting that he declare himself with respect to Wilson, Knott and Taylor and all democratic candidates.

Subsequently, Mr. West published a telegram in the Palm Beach post, in which he complained of some statement made by Mr. B. M. Turner, and which might indicate that his letter to me above referred to was not genuine.

Today I wired Mr. West as follows: "Hon. T. F. West, Tallahassee, Fla. Statement with respect to yourself tending services to this committee and to which you object by published telegram in Palm Beach Post originally came from Tallahassee correspondent direct to Times-Union and was first information we had that you had written your letter of twenty-fifth instant to me. In fairness to this committee and to myself personally I request that you wire me that your letter to me as published in Times-Union and other papers last week is a full, true and correct copy of letter dated Oct. 25, 1916, and signed by you. Geo. P. Raney, Chairman."

In reply I received the following wire from Mr. West, to-wit: "Hon. Geo. P. Raney, Chairman, Jacksonville, Fla. Your wire, Mr. Pimbley, J. H. Lastinger, Fred A. Coles, W. W. Gordon, F. W. Cotton, Henry Daloz.

DEUTSCHLAND AT THE NEW LONDON DOCK

INTREPID GERMAN SEAMEN HAVE AGAIN CROSSED THE ATLANTIC

(Associated Press)

New London, Nov. 1.—The German merchant submarine Deutschland, arriving here this morning from Bremen, carried a cargo of 750 tons of dyestuffs, medicines and chemicals.

Captain Koenig, commander of the Deutschland, and Captain Hirsch of the Eastern Forwarding company, were uncommunicative about the trip.

VESSEL CLOSELY GUARDED

New London, Nov. 1.—The German merchant submarine Deutschland, which arrived here this morning, is being elaborately guarded. Guards from the German steamer Willehad and detectives kept visitors away from the vessel's vicinity.

STAYED MOSTLY ON THE SURFACE

The Captain of the Deutschland addressed a letter to the German ambassador, Count Von Bernstorff. The Deutschland was submerged for only 120 miles near the British coast, making the rest of the passage on the surface.

MAY CARRY MAILS

Washington, Nov. 1.—The postoffice department announced it was prepared to accept the proposal of the German ambassador that merchant submarines transport mails between the United States and Germany.

BATTLES TODAY ARE BALANCED

Both Sides Successful on Transylvanian Border

(Associated Press)

FRENCH AND BRITISH MADE SLIGHT ADVANCES AND TEUTONS WON ON EASTERN FRONT

Important successes for the Teutonic and Rumanian armies on the Rumanian-Transylvanian border are claimed in today's dispatches. Berlin announced the capture of Rumanian positions west of the Fredal road, together with progress for the Teutons southeast of Rothenburg pass.

The French reported an advance near Lesboeufs, on the Somme front, last night and the repulse of German attacks at Sully-Saillisel.

Berlin recorded the failure of British attacks between Lesboeufs and Gueydecourt and at Courcellette.

The British have captured Bakakli-Azuma, on the Struma front in Macedonia, Paris announced.

AMERICANS KILLED

Paris, Nov. 1.—Two American aviators were killed near Nancy, according to a dispatch from that city. No details were given. The Math said their machine capsized during a flight.

A RUMANIAN VICTORY

London, Nov. 1.—The Rumanians have driven the Austro-Germans across the frontier from the vicinity of Campulung, Northern Rumania, according to a Bucharest dispatch, said a wireless from Rome. Four Teutonic battalions were annihilated, said the report.

SPARR MILLING & GINNING COMPANY

Another Excellent Home Enterprise Started in a Marion County Town

The bumper corn crop of the past few years in Marion county has put business people to thinking of the vast possibilities and also the probabilities in the grinding of corn for the market.

The latest concern to enter actively in the milling business is a new company just formed at Sparr under the above name, and Mr. F. L. Grantham, one of the members of the firm is in the city today to close a deal for a 15-horsepower oil engine and grist mill, which they will erect at once.

The Sparr Milling and Ginning company is composed of Messrs. F. L. Grantham, A. J. Stevens and D. O. Riker.

The company expects by next fall to have in operation several gins at its Sparr plant. Whether they will be for long or short staple cotton depends upon which one the farmers throughout the county devote their attention to.

The gentlemen composing the company are all business men of known ability and the fact that they have branched forth in this line further demonstrates that they mean to keep right up with the procession as Marion county farming advances each season. Present prospects are that the corn crop this year has been a large one, next year's crop will be far in excess of it. The same also applies to the cotton acreage in every section of the county.

TEUTONS ADVANCED

Petrograd, Nov. 1.—The Teutons have occupied the villages of Raovitz and Titchti, south of Rothenburg pass, said the war office.

TICK TICKS

The cattle tick lives on the outside, but gets its living from the inside.

If the cattle ticks blew as hard as they suck, tick infested cattle would look like balloons.

A tick-infested steer weighing 730 pounds was freed from cattle ticks by dipping. In two months, with the same kind of feed, it gained 285 pounds. The owner was then feeding the steer instead of the ticks.

Ticks reduce the value of hides. Hides that have been punctured by ticks are usually graded at No. 4 quality, while the same hides if free from ticks would grade as No. 2. This depreciation averages about $1.25 a hide.

A dairyman in a heavily infested territory dipped his herd of 42 cattle. One week after dipping the cows gave 10 gallons of milk a day more than before. The milk sold for 35 cents a gallon, $3.50 more per day from his herd. He had begun to feed the cows instead of the ticks.

Nine hundred and thirty-three counties were under quarantine on July 1, 1906, because of the cattle tick. By Sept. 1, 1916, the use of arsenical dipping vats had cleaned the tick from 396 counties and 31 parts of counties.

The first federal appropriation for the eradication of tick fever was $82,500 made available July 1, 1906. This appropriation has been increased from time to time, until $632,400 of federal funds is made available for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917.
