WEDNESDAY TEA AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB

Last season were inaugurated the Wednesday 4 o'clock teas at the Woman's Club and they proved to be so popular that it has been decided to continue them through the present winter. The victory way committee had charge of the initial one yesterday afternoon and with a perfect day, charming hostesses, a delightful program and a happy gathering of ladies, it was indeed a success, socially and financially, for about $25 was contributed to the park and victory way fund.

Mrs. H. C. Dozier, Mrs. Walter Hood, Mrs. C. R. Tydings and Mrs. Otis Green were everywhere, extending informal greetings and seeing that nothing was lacking. Friendly chatter and admiration for the decorations appropriate for the Halloween season, black and orange streamers, cats, owls and other symbols made the time pass "on speedy wings" until the program began. This consisted of songs, old time favorites, but still dear to the hearts of us all: Suwanee River, Coming Thru the Eye, Annie Laurie, Caroline, Last Rose of Summer, etc., and Ocala's sweetest singers took part, Mrs. Hampton, Miss Musie Bullock, Mrs. Futch, with Mrs. R. S. Hall as accompanist.

At the close of the program, sandwiches with tea or coffee were served. These teas are to be given periodically throughout the winter and not only club members but all residents and visitors to our town are cordially welcome. Hospitality toward the "stranger within our gates" is an especial feature of the club work.

CARLISLE-WEST

Sunday at Arcadia, Mr. Frank Carlisle, formerly of this city and Miss Edith West of Fort Myers were quietly married. This news will be received with much interest by friends in this city of Mr. Carlisle, who was born and reared to manhood here. Mr. Carlisle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carlisle of Ocala and during the war he entered the service, joining Company A. For the past year he has been making his home at Fort Myers, having a position with one of the large hardware stores of that city.

Mrs. Carlisle is an exceedingly pretty and accomplished young woman, and the relatives and friends of these young people are awaiting a visit from them. The Star joins with the friends of Mr. Carlisle in wishing him and his bride a happy and prosperous married life.

A GOOD MEETING HELD AT ANTHONY

Brethren of the various churches named below, in the Marion Baptist Association, met with the Anthony Baptist church in a fifth Sunday meeting, and endeavored to revive the interest in the old union meetings as we had in the days of long ago, and there was good interest manifested, and every one benefited. The following churches were represented:

Olivet, Oak-Griner Farm, Ocala, Oklawaha Bridge, Fort McCoy, Fellowship, Anthony, Lake Weir, Harroony and Sparr. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. R. F. Rogers. The meeting was called to order at 2 p. m. by the moderator of the association, and a discussion by Rev. Gus Fadgett on "What Do Baptists Believe," which was very instructive and helpful to all, both Baptists and others, for it other people who believe different from the Baptists would spend more time seeking the truth, and be less willin g to accept some criticism, I believe all would be benefited more. The meeting adjourned at 4 o'clock. Preaching Saturday night by Rev. J. F. Russell.

Sunday morning the meeting was called to order by the moderator and a discussion of the need of an associational missionary, led by J. C. Boatwright and Rev. J. F. Russell. Rev. Russell is a missionary of some years experience, and gave us some good advice which was greatly appreciated and needed inasmuch as we are just entering the field as a missionary for this association.

Preaching 11:30 a. m. by Rev. Gus Fadgett, on evangelism and needless to say his sermon was enjoyed for all who know Rev. Fadgett know him to be a good preacher.

The meeting adjourned at 12:30 for dinner, and reassembled at 2:30 p. m., when Rev. R. F. Rogers made an earnest appeal to the brethren to revive the spirit and interest in the union meetings, which was very fitting and enjoyed by all.

An appeal for the Baptist Witness, our denominational paper, was made, and it was seen that our people as a whole are not taping the Witness as much as they should.

The meeting was dismissed to meet with the Olivet church Saturday before the fifth Sunday in January, 1921, at ten o'clock.

Let everybody come with well filled baskets and enjoy the day with the people of Olivet.

The Anthony church was greatly benefited by the meeting and it is hoped that we will be able to revive the interest to wher we can have the old union meetings, with the religious enthusiasm like there was in the days gone by. J. C. Boatwright.

Just arrived York Imperial, Stayman and old time Winesap, Jonathan, Winter Bananas and Delicious apples, Emperor grapes, Flemish beauty and Avocado pears, oranges, pecans, Brazil nuts, cucumbers, squash and other things. W. A. Stroud's. Phone 218. 2c

The price of admission is $1 for gentlemen and 50 cents for the ladies and in view of the very low price for admission, every one who can should attend the occasion, for besides having a wonderful time you will be helping the legion post, as the proceeds are for the benefit of the Marion county post.

SHADY

Shady, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Sherman Holland and daughter, Miss Naomi, spent Saturday and Sunday at Lowell visiting Mr. and Mrs. Yealey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Buhl and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Redding attended the fifth Sunday meeting at Anthony last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Goin, Miss Stroble and Mr. L. L. Horne, who went Sunday, made a good representation from Olivet Baptist church both days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Smith went to Brooksville Friday, to visit with relatives until Sunday.

Mrs. B. J. Woods, on going into her yard Tuesday for a pail of water was amazed to see a large rattlesnake coiled near the water barrel. Mrs. Woods went back into the house, got her gun and dispatched his snakeship. A good many snakes have been killed around here lately.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jones, Mr. J. W. Jones and Mr. Van Liddon are at Lake Weir working in various ways in the orange industry there. Mr. F. C. Barnes, who has been at the lake the past few days, came home Tuesday to cast his vote.

Speaking of voting, lots of us out here found it say "X-No" Tuesday. The election passed off quietly, not one bit of disorder or confusion. We regretted that some of our people were not here and a few were prevented from voting that were here.

Miss Katherine Pyles has just had a large dairy barn commenced. We understand there will be fifty stalls in this barn and that Miss Pyles will run a dairy second to none in this county.

Mr. J. W. Davis made an urgent appeal Monday morning at the school house here in behalf of the fair. Mr. Davis knowing the ability of this community to put up one of the best exhibits that can be carried to the fair, urged everybody here to do their best.

There will be a meeting of patrons and friends at the school house Thursday at 11 o'clock, at which time different speakers will address the people on fair affairs and we hope the house will be crowded with people and enthusiasm.

Rev. C. W. White, who was detained by pastoral duties in Ocala on the last fourth Sunday afternoon and who did not fill his appointment here, will preach here the first Sunday at 9:30 o'clock. Sunday school immediately after preaching service.

Mr. Raymond Redding is at Weirsdale hauling oranges with his truck.

Mr. Zeb Freeman, who sold his car a few days ago, has purchased Doris Douglas and is practicing for the races. Mr. Freeman was successful in the races last year with a pony not so good as this and we predict success for him again this year.

FORT KING

Fort King, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Bobbie Simmons spent last week with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Simmons of Ocala.

Mrs. C. L. Young and little daughter, Doris returned home Sunday after spending the past week with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brabham of Orange Lake.

The Fort King Sunday school is progressing nicely. Sunday school at 3 o'clock every Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Stephens of Jacksonville, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stephens last week.

Mrs. John Long of Gainesville spent a few days last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Young.

Mr. Willis Stephens is spending a few days here with relatives here.

The advertisements are more than type and talk

The reason that the world is so much more comfortable and convenient a place nowadays, is because advertising has made it possible for merchants and manufacturers to tell you what they have to offer, without waiting for the news to spread by word of mouth.

The advertiser has been able to tell many people at once about his goods. In this way he can sell a great many more articles in a given time and therefore more cheaply. Because of advertising it has been possible to invent, develop and market commodities of comfort that you now think of as necessities, which some years ago even the wealthy could not have bought. It would not have paid to make a few to order.

The advertisements are something more than type and talk. They are a daily service your paper furnishes you in addition to the other important news of the world.
