Local and Special Notices.

Butter is scarce at 25 cts. per pound.

Notices General Order, No. 1, in another column.

A great deal of Corn and Bacon are being sent up the road from this place.

Corn is going up in price. Our merchants are asking 65 @ 70 cts per bushel.

A brick-maker, a harness-maker, a barber, and a preacher, wanted in Marysville.

Spring is at last here. Grass is getting quite good; trees blooming, birds singing, and nature smiling.

Lieut. Col. Hollenburg is appointed Commissary, with the rank of Captain, on the staff of General Sherry.

Our lively road supervisor, Tom Smith, is repairing the road from here to Guitard's. Wouldn't it be a good idea to cover or fill the well in the middle of the street near the pole?

The recent cold, backward weather has caused much ill health among our citizens. There has been several deaths in this section recently, and a number of cases of pneumonia and diphtheria.

MOWERS AND REAPERS.—Daniels, Millington & Co., advertise Mowing and Reaping Machines in our paper this week. They are clever gentlemen to deal with and extensive dealers. See their advertisement.

Good Thing.—We notice that the Court House is repaired, windows and doors in, and blinds fastened. If the county officers don't take better care of the building than heretofore they will get the B. B. UNION after them.

Fish!—yes any amount of them. Why even the women go down to the river and dip them out by the hundred in a dip net. First rate fish, too. Cat, Salmon, Pike, Shad, Buffalo, Redhorse and Suckers. Who would not live on the Big Blue.

Mr. Hutchison's saw mill is running, and doing good work. This is the very best institution in the country. Mr. Hutchison intends putting up a flouring mill this summer, then we are all right. The Big Blue is at last damned into usefulness.

STAFF OFFICER.—Jacob Weisbach is appointed Quartermaster, with the rank of Captain on the staff of Brigadier General Sherry. Capt. Weisbach ought to make a good Quartermaster as he has been in the grocery and provision business for several years.

A citizen of Centralia, Nemaha county, came to Marysville this week with a load of produce, for which he received a better price than he could have got at the Missouri river—his load amounting to eighty-five dollars—Cash! He then spent sixty-five dollars of his money for family groceries, &c., to as good advantage as he could have laid it out at the river. This he admitted himself.

JUGGED.—A stranger threw himself outside of too much whiskey last Wednesday night, and abused one of our citizens, struck him, and wanted to fight the whole world or 'any other man', drew his revolver, flourished it, and raised 'old nick' generally, until constable Heasley took him to the lock-up for safe keeping. The next morning the prisoner was brought before Justice Manning, tried by jury, fined five dollars and costs Rowdies, N. B.

RESIGNED.—Lieutenant Colonel Halpine has tendered his resignation to the War Department in consequence of ill health. He is the famous "Miles O'Reilly" of the 47th New York Foot. He has suffered a long time from an ocular affection, and is now almost blind.

Wm. B. Stone, who escaped several years ago from Rutland county jail, in Vermont, went South, and when the war broke out joined a Louisiana rebel regiment, recently returned to Vermont, and has been captured and returned to his old quarters.

Eighteen of the copperheads engaged in the massacre at Charleston, Ill., have been arrested and held for trial. Among them, the papers say, is one Hanks, a cousin of President Lincoln.

The Confederate conscription has been suspended in the 1st Congressional District of North Carolina, and an amnesty offered to all North Carolinians who are or have been in the Federal service.
