

Look Here, Journal Readers!

We are making the worst cut and slash in prices on Boots, Shoes and Slippers ever attempted in Salina. We have our reasons for doing this. All you have to do is to bring in your

CASH

And we will sell you above goods at prices that that cannot be duplicated by any competitor. We down every one of them.

THE FRED G. HAAS SHOE PARLOR.
116 South Santa Fe Avenue.

ALL OUR SUMMER GOODS

MUST BE

SACRIFICED.

We must convert these goods into money. If you have money we can make it interesting for you. Come and see us.

FAMOUS - CLOTHING - HOUSE,
Sam Harris.

ARCH FRONT, 116 NORTH SANTA FE AVE.

Salina, - - Kansas.

The Journal.

THURSDAY, August 13, 1901.

CITY AND COUNTY.

A city exchange wants to tax cats. Otis Forsee has been appointed postmaster at Falun.

Swedish Forefathers Day will be celebrated in Salina.

The August number of the Kansas Churchman is out.

Ex-Policeman Purcell is working for the Waterworks Co.

Mrs. Gen. Beaufield is entertaining friends from Pueblo, Col.

Dr. Winterbottom and C. L. Baum have returned from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovitt returned from Concordia last Monday evening.

The police raided a place on Iron avenue Saturday, but found nothing.

A delegation of Salina Odd Fellows visited Gypsum city on Friday evening.

Charley Henne, now of Salt Lake City, was in the city the fore part of the week.

Mr. Barney commenced making his own brick yesterday for the paper mill buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hensiek have gone to housekeeping at 507 South Ninth street.

Several cases of minor importance occupied the attention of the police court this week.

The American National Bank building presents a decidedly improved appearance.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Maggart returned from their annual vacation trip Friday evening.

The hot dry weather was made especially for the women folks who want to dry sweet corn.

This is the last month of the summer vacation, and the small boy mourneth accordingly.

Circuses are giving Central Kansas a good show this year. The circus is a wicked thing, any way.

Capt. W. W. Bartlett has returned from Excelsior Springs, Mo., much improved in health and spirits.

A large number of people are sick. Some lay it to the weather, while others to something they have eaten.

What a pity for our enterprising dailies, that the weekly papers of this city are not issued every day.

Col. Padgett got off a pun in his paper last Friday. We thought better of the gallant and handsome Colonel.

Under Sheriff, Joe Phillips has moved from North Eighth street to the corner of Eighth and South streets.

Editor M. S. Amos, of the Brookville Earth, was in town yesterday and made the JOURNAL a very pleasant call.

Rev. Stephenson, of Wyandotte, filled the pulpit of the First Baptist church, both morning and evening last Sunday.

Ben Litovich has caught the spirit of the times and is having his residence property on South Eleventh "fixed up."

At the late state meeting of the Order of Select Friends City Engineer Weaver was elected to an important office.

Judge Fatties granted his written permission this week to several persons who wish to see whether marriage is a failure or not.

Several night blooming cereus plants bloomed the latter part of last week. They drew the usual crowd of interested sight-seers.

The secret orders which have occupied the Red Men's Building have moved to the new hall over the American National Bank.

Sam Rothschild is on his way home, having left Southampton, Eng., last Saturday. He will reach home in about a fortnight.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Breese, died Thursday night, and was buried on Friday from the family residence, on South Tenth st.

A Salina editor gives a glowing account of how he assisted in the opening up of a new bank institution. It was only a sand bank though.

This year's fair will be the greatest one ever held in the history of the society. This is official. Paste this in your hat, and do something for it.

The Minneapolis base ball club and those who accompanied them were good people to meet, and Salina enjoyed their visit very much. Come again.

Judge Thompson was in the city a day or two ago the first of the week. It is presumed that Judge is the Minneapolis base ball club's mascot.

A society of "Temple Builders" has been organized in the Presbyterian Sunday School. Its object is to help in the work of building the new church.

Better look at the change in the Santa Fe time card, else you may get left if you want to travel over that line, and go to the depot at the old time.

The plasterers are at work in the opera house. The place is so far along now that an adequate idea of how it will look when finished may be formed.

Prof. Thoroman is in Nebraska, busily engaged in advertising the Normal. The prospects are good for a big attendance at this popular institution next term.

Col. Bush proposes to put Co. B through a course of sprouts, and make them the best company, both in appearance and drill at the coming encampment.

A friend of the JOURNAL and an old newspaper man writes: "I like the JOURNAL very much—in fact it is an ideal weekly newspaper for a place like Salina."

Fred Heron has decided to move to Montana where he expects to engage in business. We did not learn what city in the mountain state he expects to locate in.

Charley Low has a whole family of "possums in his menagerie on the east side. It is said that they are covered very much by the people who reside in Yorktown.

Now that a week has passed since the government building site has been bought and paid for it cannot be more than 53 days before the Metropolitan Hotel is removed.

During the month of August no Sunday school services will be held in the Episcopal church, owing to the absence of the Rector, who is taking his annual vacation.

Geo. Burroughs and G. B. Barrett, of Hope, were in the city Tuesday in the interests of the Soldiers and Sailors reunion which will be held at Hope, September 3rd and 4th.

Henry Putnam, Dr. Phillips, T. D. Fitzpatrick and J. W. Geling, were enjoying a genuine bass fishing trip this week down on the Cottonwood river. Splendid success is reported.

With Secretary Mohler in the east and Chancellor Snow complaining that no chinch bugs enjoying good health can be found, the crops of Kansas are just now enjoying a rest.

Every dog found running at large without a muzzle and tax tag on should be summarily disposed of. Even supposed harmless dogs often inflict dangerous injuries upon people.

Why is it the hottest days are always Sundays? Last year, July 29 (Sunday) was the hottest day of the year, and this year last Sunday was the hottest day, up to date, in the season.

Judge August Bond, one of the few all wool and yard wide Democrats left in this neck of the political vine yard, is an old school teacher. He has a teacher's certificate issued to him in 1851.

A colored boy was up before the police court on Monday on the charge of stealing oil from the Consolidated Tank Line Co. As no one appeared to prosecute him the boy was discharged.

The Kansas City Star says a humiliated Salina has discovered health which prey upon chiggers, and in the same issue makes a little concealed attempt to poke fun at our new sanitarium.

Last week was the only one this summer that was not a snap for the street sprinkling business and even then the sprinkler acted as though it didn't know it, for it kept in hiding most of the time.

W. H. Bishop will wear the honors connected with the office of Secretary of the Congressional Committee with more grace hereafter. Boy's hard to tell which is the prouder, its father or its grandfather.

The gathering at Okdale park this week is destined to prove that a Chautauque could be held here every year with profit to those scoffers and unbelievers who think such things are of no benefit to any body.

The Pythian Sisterhood proposed to be organized in Salina is coming along first rate, and will soon be in full working order. They expect to hold their initial meeting on Tuesday evening, August 13th.

The Republican local man tells his readers of some instances of spontaneous combustion, the result of the excessive heat of Saturday. What a fortunate thing for that young man that green things went burn.

A small runaway afforded a little excitement on Monday morning in front of the JOURNAL office. It was a single horse, and he evidently wanted some shoes, as he ran into a blacksmith shop across the way.

The Little town of Niles, Ottawa county, has a ball nine with sand enough to challenge Sam Harris' Famous club. You can't always tell what a base ball club can do, when you judge by the size of the town it hails from.

The Russian grip has started out on another tour of the world from Moscow. All our citizens who have escaped the scourge heretofore will have a chance to enjoy it next winter, as it will reach here about the usual time.

According to a local paper 11,000 pounds of beer was unloaded in Salina the other evening for local consumption. The state Democratic editors have probably arranged for a secret meeting here before long if that is the case.

O. P. Laird has decided to change his place of residence, and he will remove to Leavenworth of Topeka in order to nearer his trade.

Laird and his family have made many friends during their residence in Salina who will regret their departure.

Talk about having the good of an enterprise at heart, here is a sample for you. Two weeks ago Sunday evening, when the rain spoiled the Y. M. C. A. mass meeting, Elder J. H. Lockwood drove 35 miles in order to be at the meeting, to do his share toward making it a success.

We acknowledge the receipt of a ticket to the Central Kansas Fair which is to be held at Hope, Sept. 15-18. Over $1,500 are offered in premiums, and $600 in the speed ring, and above all, Geo. Burroughs is secretary of the association, which alone gives it the tone of success.

Hal Thompson has gone on the road in the interests of the Leavenworth Times. Hal is too much of a dude to make a success at drumming up business for an Alliance organ. However as the Times has lost cast as a reform paper, we hope and expect to hear of his doing quite well.

We wish to call the attention of our younger readers to the article headed, "Thoroman," by Noble L. Freitas, on our first page. It was written especially for you to read. And by the way we hope you have read all of them. If you have not you can get back humbers by calling at the office.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ebling have the sympathy of friends in the loss of their son William, who died yesterday morning in Reading, Pa. He was 22 years of age, and will be buried in Reading, the old home of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Ebling left for Reading on the midnight train last night.

Our dear brother Johnson says we have disputed his word, a thing we most emphatically deny. We only gave the story of the joke, who is a public official. We don't care a straw whether it is true or not. If true it was a mighty good joke, if not it don't make any difference to the "pert scribbler."

The Agricultural editor of the JOURNAL has a young pullet, which, disregarding all rules of feminine propriety, mounts the fence and crows as vociferously as her brothers. A saucy little individual of the opposite sex, with white legs, which resemble unsocked feet and ankles, is named Jerry Simpson.

The Reflector company of Abilene have just issued the premium list for the Dickinson county fair, which is to be held September 21-23. Very near $5,000 are offered in their speed ring, and everything seems to point to a successful fair. Topographically, the list is a fine specimen of printing, and a good "ad" for the Reflector.

On Thursday the 27th inst., the Swedes of Salina county will celebrate the 35th anniversary of the landing of the Swedish forefathers in Delaware. Two years ago the Swedes had a large demonstration and a good time and expect to have another good time this year. Governor Humphrey, Rev. C. A. Swanson and others have been invited to make addresses.

The Union Pacific Railway Company have taken off Colonel Sleepers from their through trains. As there is no necessity for them as far as Kansas is concerned, Salina county is reached by a short day's ride from the eastern terminus of the line, and there is no need of sleeping cars of any kind for those who are looking for the best place in the world in which to locate.

On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

M. S. Price will sell 10 head of horses, mitch cows and farm implements, etc., on the 15th of August for C. B. Cummings, at the banks for 2 1/2 miles north west of Salina, and on the 18th of August he will sell for Mrs. Sarah Kelley, 2 1/2 miles west of Salina, 10 head of horses, some cattle, a lot of farming implements and 30 acres of growing corn. Both of these are good sales, and should be well attended.

The sanitary officers and street commissioners are very solicitous about people keeping the weeds and tall grass out on the premises, but somehow or other the grass and weeds may grow up to great height in the middle of streets or all over unused streets, and it don't worry them at all. Take for instance north Eighth street. There is a streak six feet wide for several blocks that grows as if it had a perfect right to it.

Howard Raab is spending a few days with his family, and he is the same energetic, keen-sighted business man, who has done so much in the past for Salina. He is now manager of the Standard Publishing Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and as such is working hard to master the business. He says he feels more at home in our office, with the cylinder presses running at full speed, than anywhere else. All will be glad to know that he is doing well.

E. E. Swanson will sell the stock and farming implements of August Keil, at his farm 5 miles East of Bridgeport, on Tuesday Aug. 18, 1891. By the way Mr. Swanson has lately returned from the northwest, where he was looking for a location, but if you talk with him now, you will find that he is more in love with the Kansas than ever, and has come back to stay. Thus does our State again redeem herself by comparison with other locations.

The Salina Electric Railway Co. have prepared and we have just printed for them 10,000 copies of a folder, of eight pages, containing a summary of information concerning Salina. Under the heads of "Educational Advantages," "Churches," "Railroad Facilities," "Public Buildings," "Manufacturing Interests," "Banks," "Hotels," "Parks," "Public Improvement," etc., the exceptional advantages we hold out for persons seeking homes are amply and ably set forth.

Miss Sue Powers of Ellsworth, was instantly killed near Leavenworth on Friday evening. She was visiting relatives at Leavenworth and a party of them were out driving when they were run into by a Santa Fe train. Deceased was known to the Salina, and was a sister of D. B. Powers formerly of this city, but now of Ft. Worth, Texas. She was also a sister of the late Joseph Powers of Ellsworth. Her many friends here were shocked to hear of her sudden and terrible death.

The Republic tells a story of a crowd of Salina Odd Fellows who landed in the hilarious sport of robbing a peach orchard on the way home from Gypsum City, the other night. One of the boys it is said, played a dirty, Irish trick on the balance of the party, by making them think they were pursued by a billious and irritable bull dog. We know nothing of the affair, and propose not to commit ourselves until the editor of the Sun who is authority on jokes of this kind, gives his side.

Some Kansas Fruit.
Mr. A. W. Jones of the Fairview Fruit Farm, which adjoins the city on the south, brought in some apples the other day which take the palm, premium, cake, bakery, and every thing else. The largest apple so far this season from this farm measures 1 1/2 inches in circumference, and is of the Alexander variety. The largest one at the New Orleans exposition was 1 1/2 inches around, balance in favor of the Salina county product 1 1/2 inches. Fairview farm will this year produce 7000 bushels of apples, and an endless quantity of pears, peaches, etc.

There is money in the fruit business right here in Salina county. Favorable years will produce enormous quantities of them, and as for a market, there is no better market west of the Missouri river than Salina, and only a very few as good. Look at the business the wholesale fruit men have been doing ever since the season set in, and you cannot help seeing it. The farmers of Salina county have a duty to perform both for their own benefit, and that of the country in which they live and we hope to see more of them going into the fruit business. Our county horticultural society is an institution which is doing a grand work toward promoting this industry. The next meeting will be held on the last Saturday of this month.

Tuesday morning, just at break of day, six sturdy sons of Salina, the queen of the Smoky valley, could have been seen by the early riser, wending their way quietly southward, thence westward. They were all dressed in a uniform of blue, except one, a prominent one, who was robed as a hunter, and brought up the rear in a cart, probably taking this position to better guard the provender that is supposed to have been buried somewhere in the recesses of the wagon bed. They were making for Jim Dick's farm, in Ellisworth county, where they will rest a day or two, and sing for fish in the famous Dick pond. They will also be on the look out for bear or other small game, as their advice is to keep out of sight as the procession passes by. They will be gone about one week, and will sleep in tents and other wise imitate the necessities of our forefathers. A. A. Wise, Oscar Seitz, R. Gradwohl, R. Diehl, Ed Lotz and Will Allen composed the party, and thrilling tales of their experience may be expected on their return, all of which will be awaited with interest.

Twenty-two young men, and twenty-one young women, were on the look out for bear or other small game, as their advice is to keep out of sight as the procession passes by. They will be gone about one week, and will sleep in tents and other wise imitate the necessities of our forefathers. A. A. Wise, Oscar Seitz, R. Gradwohl, R. Diehl, Ed Lotz and Will Allen composed the party, and thrilling tales of their experience may be expected on their return, all of which will be awaited with interest.

On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

TENTH ANNUAL FAIR.
The Premium List and the Advertising Matter All Issued.
The large posters, small bills, and speed ring programs for the fair were delivered by this house to the fair people yesterday last week, and the management have now got the large bills all up and the small bills and speed ring programs in circulation, so that the fair is being advertised well a good month before it occurs. The premium list gotten up in attractive style was also delivered by the printer last week, and copies may be obtained of H. B. Wallace, Secretary, at the Land office.

Liberal premiums are offered in all departments and a large display is expected, a large number of farmers having already signified their intentions of competing for prizes.

It is impossible to give a full list of premiums offered, and the rules and regulations governing exhibits, but all those wishing to obtain a copy can get it for the asking. All departments of the fair are represented and the household as well. Natural history is given a place, and the fine arts are not forgotten. A large number of Salina merchants offer special premiums which are valuable, and it will be well worth while to compete for them.

The speed ring program has been prepared with a special view to bringing out a splendid exhibition of the speed of man's best friend—the horse. The governing rules will be those of the American Turf Association and all who wish to take part in the speed department will be assured of fair play, and impartial treatment for all, which is so necessary to make a horse race a success. There will be races each day, and the band will play Annie Rooney and other favorite agricultural fair tunes.

Not the least interesting feature of the fair will be the encampment of the Fourth Regiment, K. N. G., which will be encamped on the ground, and will go through the usual routine of soldier camp life.

Rev. W. B. Muecklow Surprised.
On Monday evening about a hundred partakers of the Plymouth church met at the residence of Louis Desery, North Tenth street. Their object was to take the passage by storm and the pastor by surprise. They did both very satisfactorily, the passage capitulating without a struggle, and Mr. Muecklow when he saw the crowd, resembled a Republican after the returns were all in last fall.

Saturday last Mr. Muecklow was 39 years old, and the surprise was an impromptu affair which was gotten up to commemorate the event. Monday evening after tea Jud Stevens invited him over to have a game of chess, of which he is very fond. While buried in the game, he was suddenly called home, but lingered so long that the party began to suspect the elder was "onto" the game, and was having a little fun at their expense. When he did come, however, he was very much surprised—and pleased. We all are and preach-words are not very different from other folks. An hour was spent in social enjoyment, when the host again became a victim to the machinations of his folk.

A party of men folks held him captive out in the hall while a very mysterious article was placed upon a table and hidden from the view. After being called in, the venerable Trustee George Colby introduced Deacon McVeigh to the pastor, and remarked that the deacon had a few words to say to him. In a few words Mr. Colby made his presentation speech and finally uncovered a beautiful and costly silver water service. For a man who is not easily taken unawares Mr. Muecklow acted badly, he blushed, but contrived to reply in good style, and in a very felicitous manner. A quotation of scripture, John VII:37: "Jesus stood and cried saying: 'If any man thirst let him come unto me and drink'" was engraved on the pitcher, and on the base the words, "Presented to Rev. W. B. Muecklow by the members and adherents of Plymouth Congregational church, of Salina, Kan., as a small token of their high esteem for his labor of love, and in commemoration of his 39th birthday, Aug. 8th 1891." After refreshments were served the party dispersed, wishing their beloved pastor many happy returns of his birthday anniversary.

Salina Sanitarium.
It will be opened October 1st, on North Eighth street, in the commodious quarters now building. It will occupy three buildings, one for ladies one for gentlemen, and one devoted to Superintendent's office, dining and reception rooms, etc. The location is convenient, elevated and dry, and as Salina is 1200 feet above the sea level, and about midway between sea level and Colorado, it is well adapted for those who cannot live in either the lower or higher altitudes. The medical and surgical staff is composed of physicians of recognized ability, and is made up as follows: W. H. Winterbottom M. D., Surgery; M. J. Brown M. D., Eye, Ear and Respiratory Organs; Wm. B. DeWees M. D., Diseases of Women and Official Surgery; E. R. Tuttle M. D., Gynecology and Nervous Diseases; Dr. C. L. Masterson, Massage and Electric Therapist; A. M. Stewart, Superintendent.

See Ball.
Salina met the plumed Dutch at the park Monday afternoon in a game with Minneapolis. The boys played well but the boys from Ottawa county laid them out just as easy as if it was only a matter of leading an old blind horse to water. This is not saying that Salina did well, or all she could, but bad playing in several instances lost the game to the visitors. Minneapolis made four errors and Salina only three, thus making the largest score in both runs and errors. The Minneapolis aggregation came down for two games and the second was played Tuesday afternoon. It was different in many respects to the first game; for instance Sam Harris' nine won the game. The home club opened the ball with five runs and a goose egg for the visitors, which practically decided the game. Both games were well played and closely contested. The next game will be played at Minneapolis.

See Ball.
Twenty-two young men, and twenty-one young women, were on the look out for bear or other small game, as their advice is to keep out of sight as the procession passes by. They will be gone about one week, and will sleep in tents and other wise imitate the necessities of our forefathers. A. A. Wise, Oscar Seitz, R. Gradwohl, R. Diehl, Ed Lotz and Will Allen composed the party, and thrilling tales of their experience may be expected on their return, all of which will be awaited with interest.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.

See Ball.
On Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Maurer officiating, Nicholas Koll and Miss Louisa Moran were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a large number of friends. The contracting parties are well known in Salina, and hosts of friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life. They took the wedding trip on the U. P. for a wedding tour.