

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1870.

Tru bridge across the Big Stranger, on the Oklahoma river, is now in good repair.

The number of registered voters in St. Joseph is 2,644. How does it happen that the "great cities" are all behind Leavenworth in the number of registered voters?

The Chicago Post in referring to the breaking up of the fight between Allen and Gallagher, wherein one was arrested and the other ran away, says: "Two men were grinding at a mill. One was taken and the other left."

The gonality of the climate of Kansas may be inferred from the fact, that we have on our table a bunch of strawberries in full bloom, gathered from within the city limits. A bed of Wilson's seedling strawberries in the garden of one of our citizens, is white with bloom.

Mr. C. REASONER was in the city yesterday. He has chosen a location for himself and friends on the South Fork of the Solomon River, in Osborne County, and is here making arrangements to go there. The Solomon is an fine valley exists, and it is worth their success in its settlement.

The following is a description of the murderer who killed Deputy U. S. Marshal Smith, at Abilene, on Wednesday, an account of which appeared in our columns: Andrew McConnell, a Scotchman, about five feet eight inches in height, spare built, light gray eyes, sandy hair, inclined to curl, speaks with a strong Scotch accent and usually wears gray pants, with a buttoned coat and slouch hat.

California Quail. Mr. E. L. Bird brought with him from the Pacific coast, a cage of California quail—a "half dozen pairs of what is known as the "Valley" variety, and one pair of the "Mountain" quail. The former are about the size of the ordinary bird, but the others are a trifle larger, and all bear a resemblance, though the colors on the new-comers are more clearly defined and vivid. The Valley bird has a slender black plume standing nearly upright on top of the head, while the Mountain bird has a similar plume which lays back on the neck. They are as handsome a bird as we have ever seen. Mr. Bird caught them in what is known as an ordinary "figure 4" trap. He proposes to let them out in the spring, hoping they may multiply and part of the territory. The Legislature should pass a special law to protect these birds.

State Sunday School Convention. The Kansas State Sunday School Convention will meet at Ottawa on Tuesday, Nov. 23d, at 3 p. m., and continue in session three days. In order to organize the work throughout the State, the following are about to be represented. Will not the Sunday School men in each county see to this?

Let us have a full representation of the Sunday School men of the State both lay and clerical. Entertainment will be provided for all delegates.

Those who propose to attend, are requested to notify Charles Topping, Ottawa, Kansas. Arrangements will be made for hall facilities on all the railroads, as far as possible. State papers please copy.

Chairman, State S. S. Ex. Com. Republican County Central Committee

At Harrison's School House on the 7th of November. Speakers, R. L. Baldrige and Gen. Larimer.

At Leavenworth on the 7th of November, at 7 o'clock p. m. Speakers, M. J. Barrett, J. C. Embury, Hiram Griswold, Byron Sherry, W. D. Matthews, J. F. Legate, Judge Brewer, Col. Houston, Col. J. M. Alexander, Col. W. S. Jenkins, Col. Geo. T. Anthony and Alexander Caldwell, Esq.

WHAT DEPARTERS FROM PARIS SAY. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A special dispatch from Versailles, says: Two deserters from Paris say the Provisional Government will refuse to hold elections for fear of losing power. Instead of allowing candidates to run for office they desire to submit to the people a vote as to whether they will support the Government of the National Defense. An affirmative vote, which they are certain to secure, will be interpreted as equivalent to a vote election. A feeling is growing that Favre and his friends have resolved to sacrifice the country rather than lose their power.

CRIME. A Central Pacific Railroad Train of Passengers and Express Car Stopped at Reno, Nov. 5.—The great express train of the Central Pacific Railroad was stopped last night, and the express car robbed, between Verdi and Reno, by a band of highwaymen, who boarded the train at Verdi, and held it up for some time. The conductor and brakeman while the express car was detached and robbed of about $30,000 in coin, which the robbers carried to the mountains with. Pursuit is now organized.

FURTHER PARTICULARS. RENO, Nov. 5.—The Central Pacific passenger train bound eastward, due here at 11 a. m., arrived at Verdi, eleven miles west of Reno, on time. Just as the train was starting from the station three masked men boarded the express car and five more immediately came to their aid from the rear cars. These five evidently came from the west on the train. Six stepped on the express car, which they detached, cutting the signal ropes. Two jumped on the engine, and placing pistols to the engineer's head demanded him to move on, which he did. Two brakemen endeavored to keep the masked men off the express car, but pistols placed at their heads compelled them to retreat. The conductor rushed forward but was stopped by them. Finding a hatchet, he came forward again, in time to see the engine and express car separated from the train. Flying down the track, the robbers then placed the fire in the main room and locked them up. When within six miles of this they stopped the train, broke open the express boxes, and robbed them of $31,000 in gold coin. Later investigation shows that they put the coin in old boot tops, and escaped the train. A double-barreled shot-gun and pick were left by the robbers at the quarry where they opened the boxes. All the telegraph wires were cut west of Reno. Two of the Western Union wires, however, were repaired by daylight. Parties are searching the mountains, and will probably be able to throw more light on the bold robbery during the day.

COMPLETE TRANQUILITY RESTORED IN PARIS. PARIS, Nov. 5.—A special dispatch from Paris to the 2d inst., says: Complete tranquility prevailed. Garnier, Pages, Pelland, and Gen. Faminio were ill in consequence of the violence to which they were subjected at the Hotel de Ville. The former are about the size of the ordinary bird, but the others are a trifle larger, and all bear a resemblance, though the colors on the new-comers are more clearly defined and vivid. The Valley bird has a slender black plume standing nearly upright on top of the head, while the Mountain bird has a similar plume which lays back on the neck. THE VEGETATIVE POWERS OF LIFE ARE STRONG, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It does not increase in the obscure that some depression is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary directions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give rest to the healthy and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

Removed from ordinary directions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give rest to the healthy and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

THE VEGETATIVE POWERS OF LIFE ARE STRONG, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It does not increase in the obscure that some depression is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements.
