MOGADORE.

Thursday night about 12 o'clock, Emma Thurston was aroused by a strange noise, which she supposed was caused by burglars. On looking out into the moonlight, she saw a horse and buggy circling around the house. The driver being absent, the horse was taken care of. Next morning it proved to belong to Mr. Alexander of Akron, who was in town calling on a friend and remained a trifle too late.

We have been improving our town by placing a porch in front of Eagle block.

Saloma Mishler has purchased a bicycle for her daughter from Mr. Robenstine, the second hand agent.

The chess quartet which attended the dance at Sutherland last Friday night came very near cleaning out the town before they returned home.

HE STILL LIVES.

A Case Where Medical Science Made a Little Miscalculation.

"Medical science occasionally makes a grand miscalculation," said an old citizen. "I never pass a certain house on Lower Prospect street without remembering that 28 years ago a certain noted doctor of this town—he died recently—condemned me to death. 'You have but a week to live,' he said.

"This was information of somewhat serious import to me, although, at that time, I didn't much care whether it was a week or a month. But I went to another doctor. 'Are you really frightened?' he asked. 'No,' I said. 'I've got beyond that.' Then he remarked, 'You can't last a month.' Somehow this corroborative testimony didn't satisfy me. Before I got through my search for information I consulted eight doctors. And, by the way, I was hunting through the second week before I made the rounds. Of course they all agreed pretty well. The most liberal man of the lot said I might pull through for a year, but he gravely doubted it. The other medical gave me from a week to three months.

"Well, sir, I've attended the funerals of five of those doctors, and, please God, I'll see the other three under the soil before I quit.

"Understand me—I was a pretty tough object at that time. A bronchial trouble had worn me to skin and bone. I walked with a crutch and a cane. I could scarcely talk. All the doctors agreed that my lungs were past mending. Five of them said I had but one lung left, and that, they claimed, was on its last legs.

"Well, when I went to the ninth doctor, I was mad clear through. I knew he didn't have a blessed idea concerning my case. But he tried hard to look knowing and went back to his little drug tank and presently returned with a neat package wrapped in white paper. I handed him the $2 he demanded and walked away. 'Here,' he said, 'you've forgotten your medicine.' I turned back. 'No, I haven't,' I said. 'I left it there purposely. Give it to the next credulous fool whose case you don't understand.' Say, it did me good to get mad. I went home, chucked every drug into the ash barrel, stood out in the open air all I could, wasn't the least bit careful about myself, worked about the house every day until exhausted and began to get better. By George! Inside of a year I was in tiptop condition! Look at me now! Sound as a dollar! Yes, sir, science does occasionally slip up with considerable unanimity."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SUFFIELD.

Mrs. Good of Akron, is spending a week in the village with her friend, Miss Grobe.

ORGANIZATION

Of the Street Railway Company Friday.

Making Preparations For the Consolidation—The Officers.

The organization of the Akron Traction & Electric company will be perfected at a meeting in Cleveland Friday.

The officers of the new corporation will be H. A. Everett, president; Will Christie, vice president; Charles F. Moore, secretary; J. R. Nutt, treasurer and L. S. Beilstein, superintendent. The directors are H. A. Everett, E. W. Moore and C. W. Wasson, Cleveland, and Will Christie and J. R. Nutt, Akron. C. F. Mogre is in Cleveland today on business connected with the road.

As soon as the Everett people secure control of a few outstanding shares of the stock of the Akron Traction & Electric Co. another reorganization will take place, and the Akron line and the Akron, Bedford & Cleveland road will be consolidated under one management.

Funds on the underwriting are now being paid to the trustees, and the consolidation will be effected as soon as the necessary legal requirements are carried out.

LOST HIS ARM.

Cereal Company Employee's Unfortunate Accident—Amputation.

Frank McKee, 309 West Thornton st., aged about 21 years, met with an accident in the shell department of the Cereal mills Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, that cost him his left arm. His arm caught in a buzz saw and the muscles below the shoulder to three inches below the elbow, the cut extending about eight inches in length.

He fainted and was carried into Dr. J. V. Cleaver's office. Parks' ambulance removed him to the hospital, where Doctors J. V. Cleaver and James W. Rabe amputated his arm between the shoulder and elbow. He is resting easily.

Underwood-Kile.

Dr. E. S. Underwood and Miss Sarah Kile were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 115 Balch st., in the presence of 75 guests. Many relatives and friends from out of town were present. They will reside at 130 South Maple st. Their new home was decorated by friends Friday in a most unique style.

THE MUSES.

Of old the muses sat on high And heard and judged the songs of men. One they hailed who loathed prize, Of toiling they slighted them.

"They lightly serve who serve us best, Nor know they how the task was done. We muses love a soul at rest. But violence and toil we shun."

If men say true, the muses now Have changed their ancient halitudo And would be served with limited bread And stress and toil each day renewed.

So each one with the other vies Of those who weave romance or song. "On us, O mases, bestow thy prize, For we have striven well and long!"

And yet methinks I hear the best Come murmuring down from Helicon, "They lightly serve who serve us best, Nor know they how the task was done!"

—Edith M. Thomas in Dial.

"Did she make you feel at home?"

"No, but she made me wish I was."

A Dilemma.

Hungry Higgins—Here is an ad in the paper that says "save your old rag."

Wary Watkins—That sounds all right, but I bet the fellow that give that advice had no barb wire fence in front of him and a big dog behind him.—Indianapolis Journal.

Self Knowledge.

It is difficult for a man to know himself. If he thinks he's not a fool, he's certainly mistaken, and if he thinks he's a fool, he's no fool.—Detroit Journal.

Saved by "April Fool."

April fooling is a very noted practice in France, and we get traces of its prevalence here at an earlier period than is the case in England. For instance, it is related that Francis, Duke of Lorraine, and his wife, being in captivity at Nantes, effected their escape in consequence of the attempt being made on the 1st of April.

"Disguised as peasants, the one bearing a hod on his shoulder, the other carrying a basket of rubbish at her back, they both, at an early hour of the day, passed through the gates of the city. A woman having a knowledge of their persons, ran to the guard to give notice to the sentry. 'April fool!' cried the soldier, and all the guard, to a man, shouted out 'April fool!' beginning with the sergeant in charge of the post.

"The governor, to whom the story was told as a jest, conceived some suspicion and ordered the fact to be proved, but it was too late, for in the meantime the duke and his wife were well on their way. The 1st of April saved them."

Waiting For Papa to Decide.

Miriam—Where do you expect to go this summer—to the mountains or the seashore?

Frank—We haven't decided yet. It will depend on which papa selects. I do hope he will say the seashore. That will make mamma take to the mountains, and I like them so much better.—Chicago News.

Wash Dress Fabrics

Are in full bloom on our counters and every day sees new beauties there. Daintier fabrics than these Dimities, Organdies, Muslins and Lawns, are not made by man. The great trade we have had on White and colored Piques is a test of their popularity. You will do well to consult our Wash Dress Goods Department.

The Wool Dress Goods Section

Is still rushed as much as at any time this season. The splendid qualities we are selling at 30c, 50c, 75c and $1 are causing our patrons to purchase freely from this department. Superiority lies in three factors: THE SELECTION, THE PRICE AND THE VARIETY, and the greatest of these is the VARIETY.

Silk Fabrics

Whether Plain Black Gros-Grain, Duchesse, Peau-de-Sole or Tulle; we have in large variety that we can guarantee nothing superior in any market in Northern Ohio at the prices we are selling them for.

Fancy Silks

In all grades and colors at 50c, 50c, 60c, 75c, 80c, 90c and up.

Wash Silks

In large variety at 25c, 30c, 50c per yard.

Ready to Wear Waists

The assortment of this stock has been badly broken for a few days, but that is all past and gone now. A shipment of the most tasteful effects produced this season, are just in and on sale. The reasonable prices have much to do with the rapidity with which we sell these goods. Nice Satin Waists, tucked and corded are selling at $2.98 and a magnificent line of Tulle and Fancy Silk and Plain Satin Duchesse Waists, in all colors, and blacks are selling at $5 each.

We Have Made Wonderful Strides

In our Tailor-Made Suit and Jacket Department. There are new things still being added nearly every day. Perfect Fitting Suits in nice materials are offered at $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12.50, $15 and up.

LAKE.

During a thunder storm last week lightning struck the residence of John Young near the Elderkin mill and did considerable damage. It seems that the building was struck twice and at the same moment. No person was physically injured.

Several of the new and old neighbors visited Samuel Hoover and family in their new home last Sunday evening and quite an enjoyable time was experienced by all.

The cheese factory, under the new management, but personally supervised by Christ Seiber, has again commenced the manufacture of Swissers.

An Akron paper stated not long since that N. H. Barber was ill with typhoid fever at St. Vincent's hospital, Cleveland. It certainly is not N. H. Barber of Lake for he is here and furthermore is well and has been.

A farmer of Sutherland met with an accident lately near Hartville. He had loaded a potato planter upon a wagon without a box and had placed it in such a position that it slid forward on going down hill. The first thing the farmer knew, the machine was trying to plant potatoes on the horses' backs, to which they objected and succeeded in unloading the planter and the teamster, and also freeing themselves from the wagon. No one was seriously hurt and very little injury done to anything. Mr. Beisler says his horses came up just 15 minutes earlier than the "early rose." A bag of that stripe was on the wagon with the planter.

Potatoes are being shipped by the car lots from Hartville. They are paying 50c per bushel of 60 pounds and in some cases of extras a cent per pound is being paid.

There was a time when the most nauseous medicines were regarded as the best. Hot drugs were perhaps the most disagreeable of the old time remedies. Their place has been taken by one of the most pleasant medicines in use, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is not only much more agreeable to take but more reliable. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by all druggists.
