FINE BALL AT MANILA.

Commission Gave One to Foster Friendship.

HANDSOME NATIVE LADIES THERE

Display of Gorgeous Toilets and Many Jewels Worn—Beveridge Returned From a Tour of Southern Islands—Punishment of Tilly's Murderers.

MANILA, June 3.—The United States Philippines commission gave one of the most brilliant balls Manila had ever seen. It was one of a series of entertainments intended to foster friendship between the Americans and the natives. The commission has one of the handsomest residences in Manila, overlooking the harbor. The grounds surrounding it were illuminated, while the house itself was decorated with the American colors.

This newly appointed judge, General Otis, a number of other American officers and many wealthy natives were present. There was a display of gorgeous native toilets and many jewels were worn, and the array of handsome women surprised the Americans. There was a long program of American and Filipino dances, followed by the rendering of several instrumental selections, closing with "The Star Spangled Banner."

United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, who came to the Philippines some time ago, has made a fortnight's trip in the southern islands, visiting Iloilo, Negros and Cebu. During his tour he talked with the chief of Jolo, who has 2,000 fighting men under his command and who professes friendship for America, which friendship he hinted might be strengthened by the continuing of the American subsidy of $12,000 formerly paid by the Spaniards. Senator Beveridge will leave here on Saturday. He intends to travel to China.

General Smith punished the insurgents at Escalante, island of Negros, for the murder of Captain Tilly of the signal corps, who was fired upon by natives under a flag of truce and cut off from his base. The insurgents were captured and a number of members of bands of insurgents whom he found in the neighborhood.

Three members of the South Dakota regiment were wounded at San Fernando in the encounter between insurgents and the American outposts.

The Man From a Prominent Arkansas Family—Nyack Authorities Held Both the Prisoners.

NEW YORK, June 3.—County Judge Wheeler assigned Hon. A. S. Tompkins, member of congress of this district, to assist District Attorney Wye in the trial of the Wilsons, charged with kidnaping Marion Clark. The district attorney and Lawyer Tompkins gave as their reason for opposing the transfer of the place of trial from Rockland county to New York that they knew the woman had the kidnapped baby with her when arrested in this county. They say that they have no proof that the prisoners arrested were the guilty ones in New York city. Hence they will not allow the prisoners to be taken out of this county.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Captain McClusky said that he would not say word about what he considered the motive for the abduction of the child. Captain McClusky said that the work of the police was only beginning. They hope to run down the nurse and anybody else connected with the abduction.

ARTHUR W. CLARK, the father of Marion Clark, in Yorkville police court, secured a warrant for the arrest of James and Jennie Wilson and Carrie Jones.

A crowd gathered around the house where the Clarks live again. Finally Mrs. Clark went to a window, raised one of the windows and held Marion up. The man known as Wilson is said to be George Beauregard Barrow, a newspaper reporter. He is also said to be a son of Judge John C. Barrow of Little Rock.

REMOVABLE PATENT GALVANIZED ICE COMPARTMENT

By use of Removable Galvanized Ice compartment we are able to challenge comparison as to cleanliness with ANY REFRIGERATOR made.

By its use we overcome the necessity of permitting any of the vapors arising from the provision chamber to enter the inner walls or pass through the end flues, depositing unwholesome gases and food particles in inaccessible places, that cannot be got at and cleaned, as is the case with the old style refrigerators.

In the NATIONAL REFRIGERATOR the ice compartment can be lifted out when necessary and it and refrigerator made as sweet and clean as a milk pan.

By use of REMOVABLE ICE COMPARTMENT we get the most perfect interior construction. All wood being zinc lined with no exposed wood to become sour and unwholesome.

ROBBERS BLEW UP THE CAR.

Exciting Train Robbery in Wyoming. Bridge Also Damaged—Engineer Hurt—Small Sum Secured.

OMAHA, June 3.—Union Pacific officials stated that robbers, boarded west-bound train No. 1 at Wilcox, Wyo.

As the train reached a bridge beyond one of the robbers scrambled into the cab and at the point of a gun ordered Engineer Jones to pull across the bridge and stop. Meanwhile the others of the gang were at work in the express car. As the engine pulled off the bridge there was a tremendous explosion that scattered pieces of the express car about. The engineer was wounded by the explosion. The end of the mail car was stove in and several stringers knocked out of the bridge.

It only required a few minutes for the robbers to rattle the safe, which was blown open by the explosion of dynamite. They took its contents, signalled their confederate on the engine and, before the passengers and train crew were aware of what had happened, were off for the mountains.

It required about two hours to clear away the wreckage so the train could proceed. Medicine Bow, the next station, which the report was sent. The bridge was notified, and with a posse started in pursuit of the robbers.

NASH WAS NAMED

Hanna and Cox Combined.

Named For Governor on Second Ballot at Columbus.

They Also Secured Nomination of Caldwell for Lieutenant Governor.

COX SWITCHED FROM HULL.

Swing His Delegation to Support For Attorney General When Delegates Failed to Elect—Hull's Name Placed on Ballot for Supreme Judge, Davis Being the Nominee—The Feature of the Convention Was the Universal Endorsement of President McKinley. The Plank Commending His Recent Order Modifying the Civil Service Received an Enthusiastic Demonstration. The Platform.

COLUMBUS, June 3.—The Republican state convention nominated Judge Geo. K. Nash, the favorite of Senator Hanna, for governor and ex-Congressman John A. Caldwell, the favorite of George E. Cox, for lieutenant governor, with the other five nominations distributed among those of less distinct party affiliations.

What was generally called the Hanna-Cox combination controlled a large majority of the 813 delegates, but it did not exercise its power beyond the nominations of Nash and Caldwell. The conference, at which Senator Hanna, Mr. Cox and others reached a mutually satisfactory understanding, did not conclude until about an hour before the convention assembled. It was all over then with Mr. Daugherty and other candidates.

Gilbert and Huffman were nominated for second terms without opposition. When some of the delegates raised the cry of "state," Governor McKinley was the first to break the state by changing the 86 votes of Hamilton county, which he had cast on the first and second ballots for Judge Hull for attorney general, to James M. Shreve. Judge Hull had been generally considered a sure winner, as he had been slated. In this case the anti-trust was as well as the anti-state element cut quite a figure. Judge Hull had been a candidate for governor, and when he withdrew after the first ballot it was generally known among the delegates what his withdrawal meant, and especially when his support went to Shreve, the second ballot. In addition to the attempt then of the field to combine against "the state," there was opposition to the plan of anyone being a candidate for places on the ticket, and Judge Hull was again defeated after a very hard fight, which occupied more time than any other business in the convention.

The delegates who are looking for a slate was broken was in the nomination for supreme judge. The incumbent, Judge Bradway, was a candidate for a third term, and he was opposed on that ground as well as on the cry of "state." Judge Bradway, State Treasurer Campbell and Attorney General Monnett were all candidates for the nomination for third terms and all were defeated, but Judge Bradway was the only one of this trio of "third-termers" who was on "the slate."

Isaac B. Cameron, the successful contractor for the nomination of the state of the convention on its universal endorsement of President McKinley. When the plank in the platform "commending the president for the judicious modifications of the civil service rules," recently promulgated, was read there was a very enthusiastic demonstration.

In presenting the name of Mr. Daugherty, Mr. Holcomb of Cleveland said he hoped the convention would tolerate no private citizen in the Republican ranks. Outside of these utterances there were none of the slugs that are common at such occasions that were frequently heard on previous days this week in both public and private utterances of leaders.

It was announced that there will be a Nash pollification here next Monday night and that the state committee will meet here on June 17, to organize for the campaign.

Coming to the conferences of leaders during the night and again in the morning it was late before the Republican state convention resumed work. The Auditorium was unable to hold all having tickets, although the seating capacity of the Auditorium is 6,000. There were few demonstrations as the leaders came into the hall, and especially among some of the winners of contested seats to their places. Finally Chairman Keck rapped for order to the convention. The reports of the committees on rules and order of business and on permanent organization were adopted. Chairman Kerr called for the report on resolutions that were frequently heard.

The report of this committee, stating the Cox delegates from Hamilton county, the Holcomb delegates from Cuyahoga, the Nash delegates from Franklin and others, as previously reported, was adopted without opposition.

The counties were then called for the presentation of names for the nomination for governor, and it required a long time for these speeches.

The name of Hon. H. M. Daugherty was presented by James W. Holcomb, chairman of the Cuyahoga delegation that had been secured by him.

The name of Judge George K. Nash was presented by Henry C. Taylor of the Franklin county delegation.

The name of Judge L. W. Hall was presented by Judge E. W. King of Sandusky.

Other names presented as candidates for governor were: Lieutenant Governor A. W. Jones, C. W. Bosley of Dayton, Frank A. Durban and Albert Douglas.

The first ballot for governor resulted: Daugherty, 211; Nash, 253; Jones, 76; Nevins, 22; Hall, 39; Durban, 46; Douglas, 69; Tr. 17.

Necessary to a choice, 401.

On the second ballot the changes were so much in favor of Nash as to indicate his nomination. Nash gained only one vote in Cuyahoga county, but when Cox cast the 86 votes of Hamilton county for Nash there was a tremendous demonstration.

Nash was nominated on the second ballot. Chairman Holcomb of Cleveland attempted to move to suspend the rules and make it unanimous before the ballot was completed, but the ballot proceeded.

The second ballot for governor was as follows: Nash, 446; Daugherty, 210; Jones, 27;

JUDGE GEORGE K. NASH.

could not earn money with which to buy, and every branch of trade felt the blighting influence of the Democratic party reform. Hard times and the treasury of the United States was depleted and the gold reserve disappeared. The government borrowed money to pay current expenses, increasing the public debt in times of peace by hundreds of millions of dollars.

The Democratic party proposed to the people as a remedy for all these Democratic ills a platform which advocated a return to the principles of the Democratic party reform. The conditions existing today require the substitution of the same principles. After the campaign has been settled down.

The Republican party did not declare the existing gold standard policy, but declared it should be continued until foreign nations would join in international bimetallicism. HE WAS GIVEN A GREAT WELCOME.

Received at the Union Station by a Tremendous Crowd and a Reception Followed—Spoke to Immense Audiences and Was Guest at a Banquet.

LOUISVILLE, June 3.—William Jennings Bryan again visited Louisville under the auspices of the Ohio Valley Bimetallic League, though he was present here Wednesday at the banquet to Judge Tatro given by the Young Men's Association club.

Mr. Bryan left Mammoth cave and was met at Glasgow by a local reception committee.

They were received at Union station by an escort under charge of Chief Marshal John L. Dunlap and a tremendous crowd. Mr. Bryan had a reception for about half an hour in the parlors of the hotel, where he shook hands with hundreds of citizens. After a luncheon was driven to the Auditorium, where he spoke to an immense audience. He said in part:

"The Democratic party adopted at Chicago a platform which saved Democratic principles to the conditions then existing. The conditions existing today require the substitution of the same principles. After the campaign has been settled down.

Reference to the Gold Democrats.

Mr. Bryan said:

I want to talk to those who are espousing that half-way course, the Gold Democrats. I wish to say that the men who withdrew from the party in 1896 are mistaken. In a large measure, and if I can help them to see the light and stand by me, I will do so. I feel that the time will come when they will thank me for it.

The committee of Mr. Bryan's remarks were confined to a condemnation of trusts, the gold standard and the so-called imperialistic policy of the Republican administration, along the same lines followed by him in previous speeches.

Proceeding the address of Mr. Bryan Hon. Matt O'Doherty of Kentucky addressed the convention and directed its efforts chiefly to the financial question.

Mr. O'Doherty was followed by Hon. John J. Lentz of Ohio, who confined his remarks to the financial issue and to McKinley's position upon that question prior to his election to the presidency. He contended that all of the president's utterances had been in favor of bimetallicism and in opposition to a "single gold standard."

Before the adjournment the convention unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"We do hereby denounce the imperialistic policy of the national administration toward the Philippines as repugnant to the bill of rights, the contrary to the constitution and the spirit of our democratic principles."

Hon. W. J. Bryan was tendered a reception at the Louisville hotel last night, from 8 to 9 o'clock, by the ladies of the local entertainment committee. That the Bimetallic league convention, L. A. Russell of Cleveland made a speech at Phoenix Hill park.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan later was introduced to the crowd and received tremendous applause. After his speech, the meeting adjourned to attend the banquet tendered Mr. Bryan at Fountain Ferry park, about five miles away.

At the table with Mr. Bryan sat ex-Governor Campbell of Ohio, Oliver H. P. Belmont of New York, ex-Senator Blackburn of Kentucky, the treasurer, Judge J. Darvin, ex-Congressman Drinkwater of Massachusetts, Congressman Manly of Ohio and Congressman Shea of Kentucky. Bryan spoke on "The Second Battle."

AN ATTORNEY EJECTED.

Exciting Scenes Before the Mallet Court—Judge Agnew of Drawing a Knife During the R. W.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Colonel Henderson, lawyer for Captain Price, was ejected from the Mallet committee investigating room because he insisted upon his right to advise the captain, who was upon the witness stand, in regard to his replies to questions asked by Counsel Moss.

Colonel Henderson refused to answer questions regarding a charge of perjury that he had made against Mr. Moss. The captain also refused, upon the advice of Colonel Henderson, to give evidence in the case.

Colonel Henderson was charged with perjury. He was trapped into saying it was Dr. Parkhurst, although he said the minister did not do so intentionally. Henderson was charged with the expansion of Colonel Henderson, the latter was accused of drawing a knife.
