PROGRAM

For Elks Street Fair Has Been Completed.

List of Exhibitors—Novel Features on the Midway.

The program for the big Elks Street Fair next week is completed. Each morning there will be a parade of the down town streets. Shortly after the opening of the grounds there will be a band concert. At ten o'clock each evening a different fireworks display will be given, of a nature that has never before been seen in Northern Ohio.

The wonderful search light will be in operation every night. The light was taken from the Colon, one of Cervera's fleet, which was destroyed by Sampson and Schley in the battle of Santiago. The power of the light is remarkable. A newspaper, under favorable conditions, can be read five miles off.

On the exhibit street the following firms will be represented: Akron Chinaaware Co., S. E. Phinney & Co., J. W. Little, Reid Bros., Frank Laubach & Clemmer Co., M. O'Neil & Co., Standard Hardware Co., Breckenridge Bros., Central Union Telephone Co., J. F. Druckenmiller, manager, Elmer Wildes, Byrider Bros., Ted Flower, mantels, G. M. Ott & Bros., Ohio Glass & Hardware Co., J. J. Wagoner, coal, Rohrbacher & Allen, Jahant Co., American Cereal Co., J. Koch & Co., H. B. Cahill, Herrick & Son, Dague Bros. & Co., Falls River & Machine Co., Prof. G. E. Rich, B. Dreher & Sons, National American Cycle Co., The Goodyear Tire Rubber Co.

On the grounds will be located the Ladies' Tea Garden, the German Village, the Venetian Gondoliers, the Streets of India, the Midway, including many innovations in that line. Japanese Theater, famous Oriental Dancing Theater, Hagenback's animal show, American theater and Mexican and Porto Rican theater.

VOLUNTARY

Appearance of Defendant In Divorce Case.

Returned Home to Her Bad News—Court News.

On June 21 an action for a divorce and alimony was filed by Rosa Ella Winger.

She charged her husband, Albert Winger, with gross neglect, drunkenness and extreme cruelty.

At that time he was in Peoria, Ill., where he had employment. A few days ago he returned to Akron and for the first time learned that his wife had filed divorce proceedings.

Friday he put in his appearance at the Court House and asked for summons in the action. This was a very rare event as generally the Sheriff has a difficult time in locating the defendants. He did not state whether he would contest the case.

Inventory.

An inventory of the partnership of Miller & Reiche has been filed in Probate court. The assets amount to $9,234.05. Liabilities $554.36.

An inventory of the estate of Geo. H. Helfer shows property valued at $5,550.15.

Tomorrow we cut the price of all brushes 25 per cent. See our ad. The Allen-Clark Drug Co.

mary system, instead of by the "gang" I could have held my own with Col. Seiber in the city and in the country he could not have secured a delegate. Under the methods which were used this year, you cannot get delegates unless you have the hefters with you in every ward and township and that takes money. There are bootlers in every precinct.

"Who brought about your defeat at Painesville?"

"The gang."

"Who were the leaders in the fight against you?"

"Ed Hershey, Judge Anderson, Aaron Wagoner and others of the same crowd."

In referring to the state convention where he was turned down by the combination of the Hanna and Cox forces, Senator Alexander said:

"George Cox did not defeat me in that convention. Without his support I could have been nominated as I had the delegates."

"What did bring your defeat about?"

"There is no mystery to that," said the Senator. "One of the factors leading to it was that the liquor interests were opposed to me. They demanded the nomination of Judge Calwell. It was necessary to recognize this factor as it cut a great figure in the convention."

Senator Alexander would not make any statement in reference to the feeling he entertained for Hanna or Dick, further than to say that he was not fighting them and that he would support the State ticket.
