

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT

Edw. S. Hartner Fred W. Gayer Editors and Managers.

No. 11, De La Cour, Mgr. Advertising Dept.

THE AKRON DEMOCRAT COMPANY

Democrat Block, Nos. 125 and 127 Main st. LONG DISTANCE PHONE 100.

OFFICE: Democrat Block, Nos. 125 and 127 Main st. LONG DISTANCE PHONE 100.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS: President, JAMES V. WELSH; Vice-President, FRED W. GAYER; Secretary, WILLIAM T. SAWYER; Treasurer, EDW. S. HARTNER; Editor, DE LA COUR.

Entered at the Postoffice at Akron, Ohio, as Second-Class Mail Matter.

Delivered Every Evening by Carrier Boy 5 CENTS A WEEK.

By Mail $2.00 - $1.35 for Six Months.

Official Paper of the City of Akron.

TO TELEPHONE THE DEMOCRAT CALL NO. 180.

SATURDAY, JULY 22

TRADE MARK COUNCIL AKRON, OHIO

NORTON CENTER.

Albert Miller is at home again, having been in Peoria, Ill., for the past year.

Mrs. Isiah Lower and little daughter visited friends in Acme Friday.

Joseph Muntch spent Sunday with R. Mohlers of Sherman.

Rev. Engers, wife and children took tea with W. Lahr's Friday evening.

H. O. Helz, who has been attending college in Ada, passed through the center on his wheel Sunday morning.

Married, July 16, at the home of the bride's parents, Ed and M. Lahr of this place and Alta Ehrlich, Rev. Ible officiated.

Last Sunday evening while Levi Wagner had his best friend out for a pleasure ride they met with an accident. His buggy was badly shattered and horse slightly hurt.

Fels-Naptha soap is more than soap, and does more, but costs no more; 5c. Your money back if you want it.

Fels & Co., makers, Philadelphia.

LOYAL OAK. The recent rains were quite welcome.

The threshing machines have already started on their rounds.

There will be a fair crop of oats in this section.

C. H. Bauer is slowly convalescing after two weeks' illness.

Rhoady and Ira Bell, of Springfield, O., spent the last days of last week with John Betz.

C. M. Lehr and wife of Forest, O., were in town Wednesday.

G. W. Betz of Spencer, O., in company with her daughter, Mrs. Freeman of Montrose, are visiting Summit county friends.

Phil Weaver is again seen on the streets, after several days' absence due to a horse kick just below the heart.

H. C. Knecht's horse ran away for him in Akron Friday doing some damage to horse, harness and buggy. The driver escaped unhurt.

LEINAD. Hunt the world over and you can not find a better remedy for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

In fact people from all over the world send to America for this medicine. For sale by all druggists.

BRITAIN. Members of the Spiller family have returned to their respective homes after a week's outing at Springfield lake.

Wm. Johnson, who has been in Illinois seeking employment for the past few weeks, has returned to his family.

That contented and refreshed countenance of John Hardy at all office men of the Cereal mills of East Akron, is due to their having taken a week's outing at Springfield lake, and not to a rise in the price of flour or a drop in the price of wheat.

H. D. VanCampen, the practical deep-well driller, et al., will soon perforate the earth's crust at Barber-ton, O., to a depth of half a mile or more in search of oil, gas and salt. May success crown their efforts.

Prof. J. B. Switzer and Wilson Putt are conducting a summer school of music at Uniontown, O.

An ice cream and light refreshment social will be given by the L. A. S. of North Springfield, at the residence of O. J. Swinehart, on Thursday, July 27th, from 5 to 10 o'clock p.m., proceeds to be applied to church work. Everybody cordially invited.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure, sent for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists.

HALL'S FAMILY PILLS are the best.

MOGADORE. The unexpected death of William Warner was a shock to his many friends and neighbors.

The funeral was held Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Quite a number of our young men are endeavoring to organize a new lodge known as the Modern Woodmen of America.

It is hoped they will meet with great success.

George Hope has received work at Lorain.

Prof. Ernest Hale will take charge of the high school during the ensuing year.

CLINTON NEWS.

Several Accidents at the Quarry—School Picnic Held.

John Whistler and family visited in town last week.

E. R. Held and wife of Canal Fulton, were in town on business last week.

Mr. Mills and wife of Akron called in town last week.

Dan Wehr was injured at the Warwick stone quarry last Tuesday afternoon.

While lifting a large stone the hooks slipped, breaking a piece of stone off, which struck Mr. W., who was standing about 20 feet away, on the hip, splintering the bone.

Mr. Wehr is improving slowly. This is the second accident to Mr. W. Several weeks ago a stone rolled on his foot, fracturing the bone.

Miss Penchy sprained his ankle at the quarry last week.

Will Donnewith and family of Akron, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Hinman of Akron, was the guest of Miss Cora E. Grove last week.

Mrs. Ellis Veach and daughter, Miss Alice of Mt. Vernon, visited with Ed. Ahern's, Sunday.

Her daughter, Flossie, returned home with the party.

Miss Maude Dewalt of Canal Fulton, visited her sister, Mrs. Charles Shank.

Miss Lily Boden of Barberton, spent Sunday at Will Spidel's.

David Keller and wife of Manchester, visited with Mrs. D. W. Mentzer, Sunday.

Ernest Shriver and Miss Miller of Akron, spent Sunday with Miss Frances Housman.

The Misses Jennie and Bessie Sister of Buffalo, N. Y., visited their parents, Ed and M. Lahr, Sunday.

Henry Overmiers and family of Mansburg spent Sunday with relatives about town.

The school picnic last Saturday was not as successful as it might have been.

In spite of a quite large number of pupils and well-filled tables and helped make that part of the program a success.

After dinner the meeting was called to order and the choir rendered a selection, followed by a recitation by Miss Minnie Lacy.

Prof. Heminger introduced Prof. Olin, of Buchtel college, who gave an able address, but was obliged to cut it short to make the train.

The Clinton school picnic was a success for the occasion.

In the potato race Clarence Smith was first, Eldon Weil second, and Wm. Lewis third.

Ed Whitehead (Clinton) was second, and Wm. Critch, third.

Misses Mary V. Putman, Pearl Putman, Edna Critch, Phoebe Goudy, Arlo Muskoff, Vesta Muskoff, Jessie Buxer, Joy Ross, Myrtle Peairs and Edna Peairs, were in town.

Worthy E. Putman and Clarence Slichter, all former pupils of Prof. Heminger, of Beach City, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Critch, of same place, attended the school picnic.

Wm. Critch, wife and daughter will remain with Prof. Heminger for a few days.

During the months of July, August and September bowel complaints are usually most prevalent and at this season every one should be provided with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy, which never fails to cure, For sale by all druggists.

METZ. Arrive Hustice of Western Star is the guest of Wm. Calkin.

Mrs. Grace Richie is spending the week at the home of George Richie, of Akron last Wednesday and Thursday.

The June meeting of the Ladies' Cemetery association was held at the pleasant home of Mrs. Maria Flanagan.

It was the largest meeting that has been held. Fifty guests were present from Cleveland, Cuyahoga Falls, Bedford and Northfield. Ice cream was served.

Mrs. Stella Douglas and daughter Ethel, of Salem, are spending a part of the summer at her father's, Geo. Holcomb.

Born—To Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Miller, of Chetopa, Kansas, June 18, a son, Wm. Clapper.

A. W. Clapper and wife of Zauesville were guests of Mrs. Darrow last week.

Mrs. George Adams and Mrs. Mary Powell of Cleveland spent Sunday with Mrs. Sarah Heblend.

Miss Margaret Sadler, a visiting friend of Mrs. Adams, is at the home of Wm. Calkin.

Died—At Los Angeles, Cal., on April 22, Donat Galoway, aged 80 years. He was once a resident of this place and had many friends and relatives here.

Try Allen's Foot-Ease. A powder to be shaken into the shoes. It cures itching, swollen, nervous and aching feet.

It cures corns, blisters, bunions, ingrowing nails, itching, sweating feet, improving circulation, and makes walking easy.

Allen's Foot-Ease is sold by all druggists and shoe stores. Trial package FREE. Address: Allen S. Gimstead, Le Roy, N. Y.

An Awkward Mistake. "Briggs is dreadfully nearsighted.

You know that hat his wife wears with all those black plumes in it?"

"Yes, I've seen it."

"Well, Briggs thought it was the head of a feather duster, and he tied it to his cane and brushed a lot of spider webs from the porch ceiling before his wife caught him at it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Diplomacy. "There will have to be a change at my house," he said with determination. "I've been altogether too easy going with my wife, and it's got to stop. She will have to learn who is head of the house, and I am going to tell her, and then I'll take what and who's who and generally lay down the law to her."

From Mrs. Sunter to Mrs. Pinkham.

LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 75,243

"One year ago last June three doctors gave me up to die, and as I had at different times used your Vegetable Compound with good results, I had too much faith in it to until I had tried it again.

I was apparently an invalid, was confined to my bed for ten weeks. (I believe my trouble was ulceration of womb).

"After taking four bottles of the Compound and using some of the Liver Pills and Santalol Wash, at the end of two months I had greatly improved and weighed 155 pounds, when I never before weighed over 135. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I ever used, and I recommend it to all my friends."—Mrs. ANNA EVA GARTH, HIGGINSVILLE, MO.

Mrs. Barnhart Enjoys Life Once More.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhoea, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach.

Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine had worked wonders for me."—Mrs. S. BAINHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

THAT FIRST SIN.

Figures to Show That Adam and Eve Ate Eight Million Apples.

Probably our great ancestor, Adam, little thought of the trouble he would cause posterity by eating an apple.

But now the question as to how many apples he really did eat is a new difficulty.

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat? Was it one or was it millions? When the subject was first mooted the editor very naturally replied, "Why, one, of course."

"No," said the assistant editor, "Eve ate one, and Adam ate one, too; that's two."

Then the subeditor passed along a slip of paper on which was written "Eve 81 and Adam 81, making 162."

But the poet, who is a man of imagination, expostulated with "Eve 81 and Adam 81—8987."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

The poet, who dislikes being surpassed as much as he hates barbers, came up to the scratch again with "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

Then the publisher tried his hand, and his contribution was, "Eve 8,142 and Adam 8,142, equals 16,284."

CANNIBAL COBRAS.

Fierce Fight Between a Couple of Venomous Monsters.

Two cobras recently fought a fierce battle in the Philadelphia zoo.

The fight began with angry hissing. Then the larger snake made a dash for the other.

The dart was quick as a flash of lightning, but the other snake was too nimble for his companion, and the head of the first struck full against the side of the cage.

Two great streaks of venom spouted down the glass. Then began a battle royal, with the keeper the only spectator.

For a solid half hour these two monsters fought each other, now interlocking and each trying by main force to crush its opponent and now striking at the head and body of the other with its fangs.

What the smaller bucked in size he made up in activity, and the result was a drawn fight for their exhaustion compelled an end of the struggle.

The snakes are two of 19 which were recently brought to this country from India.

GRANT CALMED THEM

AN INCIDENT OF JOHNSON'S FAMOUS SWING AROUND THE CIRCLE.

A Painful Spectacle Which the General Thru to a Close by Forcing the Tremulous Crowd to Listen to the President.

There is nothing in history that corresponds to that wonderful swing of President Johnson from Washington to Chicago by way of the Robert Hood's barn.

Mr. Johnson planned the trip with infinite cunning. He prided himself on being a commander, and he believed that if he could meet them face to face he could convince them that the president was right and congress wrong.

To get the love of the people he carried with him General Grant, Admiral Farragut, Secretaries Seward, Welles and Randall, General Custer and other men well known to the people. He reasoned that, accompanied by the popular idols of the day, he would be sure of enthusiastic reception everywhere.

That was all that he asked. Give him a big crowd, and he was confident that he could win them over.

The president started from Washington with a chip on his shoulder. The very way he knuckled it off without ceremony. It soon became clear the people were in a resentful mood, and after two or three clashes some of Mr. Johnson's best friends recommended a change of program.

Many believed that the president, seeing the mood of the people, would yield, but they didn't know the man. I had seen him face all sorts of crowds and he was a military governor of Tennessee. I had heard him scold the leading citizens of Nashville as he would a lot of school children; he had seen him, when a mob threatened his life, stride out into the street and march the full length of the city at the head of a procession, carrying the stars and stripes, and I knew that he would resist keenly a scamp with those who he defied him.

At one point a crowd of 50,000 people had gathered, mainly to see Grant, Farragut and Seward. There was tremendous enthusiasm over the party, and the president was elated. But when he rose to speak the crowd hooted and hissed and set up a great shout for Grant. The people had seen through the president's scheme and were turning the tables on him by using Grant and Seward to intimidate and punish him.

The president saw the strategy of the move, and he was as furious as he was helpless. In every interval of quiet he would attempt to speak, but every word he uttered would be lost in the thunder of the shouts for Grant. It was a painful spectacle, and everybody was embarrassed. The crowd would not listen to the chairman or any other local official.

General Custer, then at the height of his popularity, stepped forward in his dramatic, imperious way, believing that he could quiet the tumult. The crowd was friendly, but it hooted him down, and the dashing cavalryman took his seat, with the remark that he would like to clear the grounds with a bundle of corn.

Johnson, looking down on the tumult, saw smoldering, contemptuous faces, but no hatred. He turned to Grant, who had retired to the rear of the platform, and said petulantly, "General, you will have to speak to them."

General Grant said decisively, "I will not."

Then the president said, more graciously, "Won't you show yourself, general?"

Grant stepped forward, and after a round of cheers, the people were as quiet as a church in prayer time. Waiting an instant, Grant raised his hand, made a gesture toward Johnson and said clearly, "The president of the United States."

The incident was a simple one, but it spoke volumes. Grant's face was full of indignation and reproach, and the crowd, accepting his rebuke, listened to the president for an hour. He scolded them to his heart's content, replied to all their taunts, talked back to every man that opened his mouth and seemed to enjoy the performance as a war horse would a battle. The people took the scolding in good part and realized that they had come in contact with a new sort of president. They heard him in respectful silence, but they disapproved of him, as the president knew when the votes were counted at the election that fall.

Seward's face at such meetings was a study. The wound in his neck was only faintly healed, and the people took a deferential attitude toward him. But still everybody wanted to see him and shake hands with him.

Farragut, in crossing the rotunda of the capitol, came upon a group of ladies, one of whom turned toward him and eagerly inquired, "Are you Mr. Seward?" Farragut answered without a moment's hesitation, having been made a man's best friend by the people.

"No; I am a handsome man than Seward. My name is Farragut."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Test of Beauty. Gladys—I am afraid you aren't as pretty as you were.

Mamma—What makes you think so?

Gladys—We've been walking in the park a whole hour and not a single gentleman has kissed you.—Boston Traveller.

Waterworks Repaired. "See here! We got a centipede in our hydrant water!"

"Well, you are only a private consumer. Did you think you were entitled to tarantulas?"—Chicago Record.

MUNYON'S INHALER

CURES CATARRH

Colds, Coughs, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, Asthma and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Chronic Catarrh of the Throat is caused by the action of mucus on the inflamed and diseased parts which cannot be reached by medicine taken into the stomach.

It reaches the sore spot—It heats the mucous membrane—It opens the vessels—It restores the inflamed and diseased parts to the normal state—It is a safe and reliable remedy—It is sold by all druggists or sent by mail. 100 Cents per Bottle.

GRANT CALMED THEM

AN INCIDENT OF JOHNSON'S FAMOUS SWING AROUND THE CIRCLE.

A Painful Spectacle Which the General Thru to a Close by Forcing the Tremulous Crowd to Listen to the President.

There is nothing in history that corresponds to that wonderful swing of President Johnson from Washington to Chicago by way of the Robert Hood's barn.

Mr. Johnson planned the trip with infinite cunning. He prided himself on being a commander, and he believed that if he could meet them face to face he could convince them that the president was right and congress wrong.

To get the love of the people he carried with him General Grant, Admiral Farragut, Secretaries Seward, Welles and Randall, General Custer and other men well known to the people. He reasoned that, accompanied by the popular idols of the day, he would be sure of enthusiastic reception everywhere.

That was all that he asked. Give him a big crowd, and he was confident that he could win them over.

The president started from Washington with a chip on his shoulder. The very way he knuckled it off without ceremony. It soon became clear the people were in a resentful mood, and after two or three clashes some of Mr. Johnson's best friends recommended a change of program