SATURDAY, AUGUST 5

IF THE Democrats of Ohio do the right thing in their platform of principles and choice of candidates at the Zanesville convention, there will be no more call for a third ticket in Ohio this fall than there was in '97, when the Hanna check-book was placed at the disposal of men who were willing to divide the forces of reform.

In today's DEMOCRAT Mr. Paul E. Werner, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Free Street Fair and Carnival, tells Akron people how they can help in the work of making this great event a success.

He wants them to send circulars to their friends advertising the Fair and Carnival, and inviting them to be present. These circulars will be supplied upon application to Secretary H. L. Snyder, 315 Everett building, either in person or by mail.

Don't fail to read Chairman Werner's address.

ANY sensible man knows that without the votes of the half million Democrats of Ohio, in conjunction with the votes of independent Republicans, no reform along the lines indicated by the Chicago platform, and the platform of the Dayton convention—which favored Municipal Ownership and Direct Legislation—can be obtained for the people.

Not until the Democratic party repudiates any of the principles above set forth—a misfortune never possible while the voters of that party assert their right to a voice in the party's councils—will there be a legitimate demand for an independent platform and candidates.

The tax persecution that impelled such an energetic business man as Mr. O. C. Barber to found a rival city on the southwest, was a bad thing for Akron temporarily, as it caused many industrial enterprises to be located at Barberton that of right should have been brought to Akron.

But after all it makes no great difference to the people of Akron, for socially and commercially, in everything but name, Barberton is a part of Akron. When our ward grows big and strong, and old enough to be adopted into the family, the Summit City will extend her limits just a little to the southwest, and then even the nominal distinction between the two cities will have passed away.

It is a trifling straggler that some of the Ohio reformers who are constantly crying out against the evil effects of competition in the business world invariably fail to apply the same principle when it comes to voting. At any rate some of them seem to think that the reform forces cannot have too much competition of purpose when they go to the polls.

Hence the multiplicity of tickets that are placed in the field, only to divide and nullify the reform vote. No leader who has the interests of the people at heart will try to keep them forever working at cross purposes when they go to the polls—thus throwing away their only opportunity of putting desired reforms into effect.

Physicians Offer to Donate Books of Reference—Business Meeting. The Library Board Friday night at its regular meeting read a communication from Dr. D. S. Bowman.

The letter stated that a number of doctors desired to send books to the library to be used as references and asked the Board to fit up a place for them, until the doctors secure headquarters of their own. It was referred to the library committee.

The finances were reported as being in a bad condition. There is about $500 on hand, with bills due amounting to twice that sum.

The $400 balance due on the Chicago contract for furniture has not yet been paid. It was decided not to pay it until the fixtures to the furniture had been made complete.

HITCH

In Proposed Match Will Result in Another Fight For Ruhlin.

Exciting Races Fountain Park Friday.

Victorene Makes New Record For Matinee.

Five Good Events Finished—Sporting News.

Ruhlin is anxious to try conclusions once more with Joe Kennedy of San Francisco.

Gus has claimed, ever since their meeting, that he was entitled to the decision and that the award to Kennedy was a clear case of steel.

A special from New York, indicates the possibility of another go between the men. It reads: "In the event of a hitch in the proposed match between Joe Kennedy and Peter Maher, Gus Ruhlin, will, in all probability, be substituted to meet either of them. Billy Madden has been in communication with the matchmaker of the Lenox Athletic club, and says that Ruhlin will tackle Maher in September or October, just as the latter sees fit.

Kennedy Matched. Joe Kennedy, the California boxer, who has aspirations for the heavy weight championship, has been matched to meet Peter Maher. Tom O'Rourke has secured the event for the Lenox Athletic club, of New York, where the men will meet on September 26. Kennedy will be accompanied east by J. I. Collins and Spider Kelly. The latter will act as his mentor.

Matinee Races. The weekly matinee of the Akron Driving club at Fountain park Friday afternoon was attended by a fair sized crowd.

Victorene, Chas. M. Oberlin's mare, in the fast pace, beat the record for matinees. It took the second heat in 2:25, with Hastings, Ed. Dunn's horse, a close second. This was the only sensational finish during the day. Only one accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the day. Fred Laub broke a tire while driving Blazier in the second heat of the first race.

The program was made up of five races, four of which were won in straight heats. The other race, a trot, required four heats. Robert Tryon's horse, Bay Tom, won this, and Felashia and Pate, each took a heat.

EXAMINATION.

Applicants For Appointment as Janitor Fireman Postoffice Building.

The United States Civil Service commission announces that it is desired to establish an eligible register from which a selection may be made to fill an existing vacancy in the grade of janitor-fireman at a salary of $890 per annum in the custodian service at Akron, O.

Eligibility for appointment will be determined from an examination into each applicant's experience, ability, and character as a workman and physical qualifications for the work to be performed.

Applicants must be citizens of the United States, and under the regulations of the Treasury department, must be between the ages of 21 and 60 years.

Persons who have suffered the loss of an arm or leg, who are ruptured, or who have other serious disability, are considered physically disqualified for appointment to the custodian service.

This examination is open to all citizens of the United States who may desire to enter the service, and who comply with the requirements, without regard to race or to political or religious affiliations. All such citizens are invited to apply; but attention is invited to the fact that it is the practice of the department in filling vacancies in the custodian service to give preference to eligibles who are legal residents of the place or vicinity where the vacancy exists.

Applicants will be examined, graded and certified, with entire impartiality and wholly without regard to any consideration save their ability as shown by the grade given them.

Persons desiring to enter this examination should apply to the secretary of the board of examiners at the postoffice in the city above mentioned, for application blank. Form 1062, which should be properly executed and at once forwarded to the Commission at Washington, D. C.

NOTED INSTRUCTOR.

Death of a Prominent and Useful Citizen.

John S. Orr died at his residence in Millersburg last Saturday, July 29th, at 6 o'clock a.m., aged 66 years, 6 months and 24 days.

He was born in Lancaster county, Pa., Feb. 24, 1833, and came to Ohio when six years of age with his parents, who located at Benton. Deceased leaves a wife, 12 children and 31 grandchildren. The funeral occurred at 10 a.m. Monday from the residence, Rev. Welshimer conducting the services. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery. Deceased was a soldier in the Civil war, being a lieutenant in Co. I, 87th Regiment O.V.I. Pomeroy Post, G.A.R. attended the funeral in a body.

John S. Orr began teaching school when 15 years of age and had followed that vocation during the greater part of his life. He was a noted and successful instructor and many a man of today owes his practical education to this source. He was county surveyor for two terms, county clerk two terms, was a member of council, board of education and county school examiner. He was a Jackson Democrat in politics.

He had been an invalid for practically the last eight years from the effects of paralysis, and had been confined a greater portion of that time to the house and unable to perform any of his customary duties. But notwithstanding his affliction he never lost interest in the affairs of his many friends or in public matters in general, and retained to the very last his naturally jovial and companionable disposition. He will be greatly missed. Peace to his ashes.

The deceased was the father of William A. Orr, a compositor at the DEMOCRAT office. J. M. Laffer and Col. W. B. Taneyhill of this city were pupils of Mr. Orr.

The tendency of the age is to cast reflection and doubt upon the beliefs of the past, in science, literature, history and religion. Many past scientific beliefs are regular attendant upon the ministry of the word is better safeguarded against the assaults of the tempter than one who neglects God's house. God also promises us wisdom in answer to prayer. "If any man lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God... and it shall be given him." Pray for wisdom to remain steadfast in faith. Christlike is a safeguard against drifting. The reception and practice of Christian truth leads us "unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ," and thus we are safeguarded. The nearer we are to Christ in thought, word and deed, the harder it will be to lead us away from our faith in God, in Him and in a blessed future life with them. The Company of Christ. It was said of Melik Shah, one of the noblest of the Seljuk emperors, that "to belong to his household, to hold his commands, was not merely an honor and a privilege. It was also an apprenticeship in principles. In serving the sultan one grew like him, and a standard of conduct was thus set up, modeled upon the life of the royal master, the pattern and exemplar of the age. A chief or governor was esteemed by public opinion in accordance with the degree in which he conformed to the sultan's example."

These words could scarcely be improved upon as a statement of the privileges and duties of Christian discipleship. How truly to belong to Christ is "not merely an honor and a privilege," but "also an apprenticeship in principles." In serving the famous sultan one grew like him, much more is this true of the follower of Jesus Christ.—Evangelist.

Good Advice. It will not pay to be always asking. Will it pay? Infidelity plucks the flowers and scoffs at the gardener. It is only the coward that finds it necessary to be cruel. It is not opposition without, but apathy within that hinders.

A Dear School. Experience keeps a dear school. But fools will learn in no other, and scarce in that, for it is true we may give advice, but we cannot give conduct. However, they that will not be counseled cannot be helped, and if you will not hear reason she will surely rap your knuckles.—Franklin
