OUSTING

Daugherty's Friends.

The Great Boss Does Not Feel Secure

Unless His Own Disciples Are on Guard.

Hiltabide's Good Words For Senator Alexander.

Third Ward Statesman Defeated by Hanna's Friends.

Those skilled in reading between the lines thought they saw more than a mere news item in the statement that Captain W. M. Hiltabide had resigned his position as superintendent of the northern division of the Ohio canal.

It is known that Mr. Hiltabide, in opposition to the general edict of the Hanna gang, worked in the interests of Harry M. Daugherty, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the State convention at Columbus, June 2, against Hanna's protegee, Judge Nash. This was an incident demonstrative of the fact that Mr. Hiltabide has the courage of his convictions in politics, and wears no man's collar.

But no one doubted that the relentless boss, who had the audacity to order his vassals to slay Hon. J. Park Alexander right in "the house of his friends," would in same manner attempt to mete out punishment to Mr. Hiltabide for his offense— that of voting against the will of the big boss. So when Mr. Hiltabide's resignation was announced, the careful observer said his punishment had come.

The appointment of Irvin Johnston, son of Washington G. Johnston, member of the Board of Public Works, to fill the vacancy seemed only to confirm the impression that the whole move was a selfish political deal, inspired by Hanna.

Mr. Hiltabide's term does not expire until next April. He will remain in charge of the office until that time.

Speaking of the matter the other day to a reporter for the DEMOCRAT, Mr. Hiltabide said: "The impression that I was asked to resign, through the influence of Mr. Hanna, is absolutely without foundation. The members of the State Board of Public Works, Messrs. Frank A. Hoffman, of Delphos; Charles A. Goddard, of Franklin Furnace, and Washington G. Johnston of Aultman are all friends of mine and have been for years.

"I have heard that some of the rabid Hannaites were sore on me, on account of my working for Daugherty, but even if they had been instrumental in asking for my resignation it would have done them no good, as I wear no man's collar; no one leads me to the end of his chain.

"I was for Harry Daugherty for Governor, and I am proud of it, believing him to be one of the brightest Republicans in the state, and eminently capable of holding the office to which he aspired.

"I merely resigned because I was offered a better position with the Manhattan Fire Insurance company of New York."

"Are you, as a Republican, satisfied with Mr. Hanna's methods of campaigning?" was a question evaded as follows by Mr. Hiltabide:

"I hope that Mr. McKinley will select some other person than Mr. Hanna to manage his next campaign."

Hannaites Defeated Alexander.
Referring to Senator J. Park Alexander's recent disappointment at the hands of the Hanna aggregation,

THE WEATHER:
Generally fair to-night and Wednesday.

Mr. Hiltabide said: "Had Hanna's Summit county friends been with Mr. Alexander, he would undoubtedly have been given the second term to the Senate, to which all men are honestly entitled."

So it is to be seen that local Republicans are displaying no enthusiasm over the movement of the party under Mr. Hanna's management. Their manhood cries out against the manner in which this despotic ruler drags down into the mire and pollutes those principles made sacred by the immortal Lincoln. No wonder! From Lincoln to Mark Hanna! To what a narrow point the Republican party's principles have degenerated. "It is now an epigram," was facetiously remarked the other day.

A little more laying on of the lash, defeating a candidate here, ousting an officeholder there, and subduing a questionable politician over yonder, the Machine crashes on, while reflective Republicans quietly ignore the whole aggregation, sighing: "How long, Oh, Lord, how long?"

CONVENTION

Of Daughters of the King—Officers Elected.

The Daughters of the King, in the dioceses of Ohio and Southern Ohio held their semi-annual meeting at St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city Saturday. The program for the day was as follows:

At 11 a.m. sermon and celebration of the Holy Communion. Rev. James H. W. Blake of St. Paul's, Rev. G. P. Atwater of the Church of Our Savior, and Rev. Robert Kell of St. John's church of Cuyahoga Falls, read the prayers and lesson. Rev. Kell, chaplain of the order, preached the sermon, taking his text from St. Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians, first chapter, twenty-sixth verse. Rev. Kell's subject was individual responsibility.

Morning offering, offertory solo, Mrs. Brice Steane; Holy communion; luncheon; business session. The following cities were represented: Youngstown, Canton, Kent, Cuyahoga Falls, Elyria, Hudson, Warren and Akron, making in all about fifty delegates.

The officers elected were: Miss Consett, Warren, president; Miss Jewett, Elyria, secretary and treasurer. Sandusky and Mansfield asked for the next convention.

DELEGATION

From Arion Singing Society Furnished Music—Most Enjoyable Outing.

The outing at Voris' grove Sunday given by the Akron Liedertafel was attended by about 250 people. A delegation of 35 members of the Arion singing society of Canton were present as guests of the local society, and with music and song the afternoon was spent in a delightful manner. Music was furnished by the Eighth Regiment band.

Henry Schreiner, president of the Liedertafel, delivered an address of welcome to the visitors. Arthur Holm of the Liedertafel also made appropriate remarks.

The committee on arrangements was composed of the following named persons: Carl Schoenduve, Louis Mueller and Wm. Freudenman. Refreshment committee—William Freudenman, John A. Seidenspinner, Louis Mueller and August Kraft.

Another Big Show.

At Summit Lake park last evening the large Casino was packed to the doors. Judging from the enthusiasm there was not one in the large audience who did not go away well pleased. The three sisters, La Blanc, by reason of their wonderful success last week were retained another week and repeated their former success, making a conquest of the audience from the start. Cunningham and Cunningham made their first appearance last evening. Their act was a laughable hit from start to finish. Smith and Chester, high-class duettists were well received and their work cleverly executed. Mr. Bobby Fields, Akron's favorite eccentric comedian, was second to none on the bill, keeping the audience in a roar of laughter for fully 15 minutes and responding to several encores.

Benefit Concert.

INFANT

Thrown Into Canal.

Its Cries Were Heard by Harvey Kauffman.

Could See the Child In the Water.

Matter Reported to Chief of Police Harrison.

Canal Will be Dragged to Recover Body.

Shortly before 8 o'clock Monday night Harvey Kauffman, a boarder at the residence of William H. Eulitt, who resides near Lock 2 of the canal, heard a child cry in the vicinity of the canal, near McClellan's planing mill.

Accompanied by two friends, Harry McLaughlin and Thomas Peters of Bolivar, Mr. Kauffman hastily ran down to the canal. The cries seemed to come from the pool just below lock 2.

After reaching the foot bridge Mr. Kauffman struck several matches, whose light enabled him to catch a glimpse of a child's face as it rose to the surface three times. The child, he says, appeared to have been about six months old, and it was impossible to rescue it as the men were fully ten feet above the water.

As the men ran down to the canal they fancied that they heard voices. Before starting down they say the child's cries were such as might indicate that it was being choked. It is possible that the infant was strangled almost to death before it was pitched into the water.

Wm. Eulitt and Thomas Peters notified Chief of Police Harrison of the matter and he made a preliminary investigation of the surroundings last night, but found out nothing of importance. It is likely that the canal will be dragged and the body recovered.

LAST LINKS.

NEW ENGINES—The Atlantic type of engines, recently ordered by the Erie, will be put in use in a few days.

CONCERT—Music lovers should attend the concert at First Baptist Church Wednesday night. Artists of ability are on the program.

Next Reunion Here.
The next reunion of the 164th O. V. I. will be held in this city the last Wednesday in Aug. 1900. The reunion at Chicago Junction was an enjoyable affair.

...NOTICE...

Some of the magnificent exhibition booths located on Main st., between Market and Mill sts., are not yet rented. From this day on they are free to every one, as the preference first accorded to business men outside of the Fair District expired on Thursday, August 31st. The charges for the privilege and the booths, including decorations and light, are exceedingly reasonable. This is a splendid opportunity for such wide awake business men as will know how to make the best of such a rare opportunity. Thousands of people will throng the streets on the days of the Fair.

The space on the east side of Main st., between Mill and Quarry, is also at the disposition of the committee. No booths will be erected there but this space will be rented out to such parties as may wish to put up tents, galleries, or any other exhibits of a reputable character, at a reasonable figure.

The secretary of the executive committee, H. L. Snyder, is now located in a booth opposite The M. O'Neill & Co.'s store on Main st., where applications for space can be made.

Mr. Williams has kindly yielded to the persuasions of the music lovers of Akron and his many friends, to sing in this city for the benefit concert given Miss Force, before he goes east. We are sure Akron people will take advantage of this last chance to hear our great singer.

HOME AGAIN.

Barker Much the Worse For His Trip.

Unfortunate Man Suffering From Scurvy—Rough Experience.

In a recent article in the DEMOCRAT there was told the story of a Cuyahoga Falls man, William Barker, who in company with a party of gold seekers was stranded and suffered greatly along the Edmonton trail, Alaska. The news came from Seattle, Wash., and stated that the party had arrived there in a most deplorable condition, some of the members having had their toes frozen off.

Barker telegraphed from Seattle to his family for money to bring him home. It was sent, and the unfortunate man arrived in Cuyahoga Falls Monday night. He is yet much the worse of his rough experience, suffering from scurvy on one of his legs.

Barker is aged about 50 years and is owner of a machine shop at the Falls. He, in company with Wm. Butler, of Northampton township, left for Alaska several months ago. Butler has not yet returned home, but will shortly. He is being cared for at Seattle, Wash.

ANTICIPATED

A Threatened Action For Injunction by the Erie.

In order to complete the Ashland & Wooster railroad and to anticipate a threatened injunction by the Erie railroad, gangs of graders and track layers Saturday afternoon finished 500 feet of track in less than three hours near Ashland. The right of way with the Erie has not been settled. The entire road is approaching completion and will connect with five railroads and new coal mines at West Lebanon, Wayne county. A big celebration of the completion of the road is fixed for the third week in September.

ENTHUSIASTIC

Over Business Opportunities in Honolulu—A Monopoly.

Emil J. Waterman, superintendent of the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Co. of Honolulu, H. I., is the guest of Gus F. Burkhardt, of 152 Sherman street. Mr. Waterman is enthusiastic in speaking of his business opportunities in the islands, saying that his company is the only brewing establishment in the country and has a five years' monopoly of the trade.

Mission Services.

The mission services which began at St. Vincent de Paul's church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock are progressing nicely. The services are conducted by Jesuit Fathers Bosche and Dierckx of St. Louis, Mo., of the St. Louis district. Services will be held three times daily, at 5 a.m., 7:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The evening services this week are for women only. Next week's evening services will be for men only.

Store Flooded.

An old cigar stub was the cause of a little accident Sunday night. Someone at the Elks club room threw an old stub into the basin. It plugged up the hole and as a consequence flooded Oberlin's plumbing shop was flooded, the water having soaked through the floor. Only slight damage was done.

Grand Concert.
Benefit concert by Mildred Force, elocutionist, assisted by H. Evan Williams, tenor, and Miss Emma Phillips, contralto, at First Baptist Church, Sept. 6th. Admission 50 cents.

LABOR DAY.

Two Large Picnics.

Central Labor Union at Silver Lake,

Knights of St. John at Randolph Park.

Interesting Program of Sports at Both Places.

An Excellent Address Delivered by W. D. Mahon.

An immense crowd attended the Labor Day picnic at Silver Lake. The occasion was the most successful in the history of the Central Labor union.

The people left Akron early in the morning and continued going until late in the afternoon. There were no accidents to mar the enjoyment of the day.

The address of the day was made by W. D. Mahon of Detroit, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Car Employees of America. He was introduced by Hon. Charles W. Kempel of this city. In part Mr. Mahon said:

"We come here to discuss business organizations. Business men are organized to promote their interests. Labor is organized for the same purpose. It is announced that a coffin trust has been perfected. We are to be taken care of by a combination even after death. It is said that we are boycotters. It is the combination of capital that results in strikes. Laborers must fix the price for labor. We want to remove the strike. It is said we are un-American. The labor movement began when the Mayflower came across. The Pilgrims were discontented with conditions in the Old World. They came here to gain liberty. It was then that the trades union had its birth.

"It is an un-American spirit when Carnegie goes to Scotland to enjoy what he has reaped at the hands of labor in this country. The labor unions are stronger at present than ever. Politicians pat us on the back and tell us to vote right. We will accomplish our ends when we organize. Go on with your work of organization, but break the chain of political slavery. Tradesunionism is your only protection. The business man should be in sympathy with labor."

The morning game of base ball between Akron and Mogadore for a prize of $10, was won by Mogadore by a score of 22 to 20. It was a slugging contest. Mogadore rooters were very much in evidence. The village sent a delegation of 250 to the picnic.

In the afternoon the Sharon team was defeated by Kent by a score of 12 to 9. The winner was awarded a prize of $50.

Other sporting events resulted as follows:
Boys' race—Clifford Simmons, first prize $1; Fritz Niestoeckel, second, 50 cents.
Girls' race—Mabel Street, first $1; Sadie Eagling, second 50 cents.
Watermelon race—J. J. Jey, prize $2.
Tug race—Miss Miller, prize $1.
Swimming race—William Roepke, prize $2.

Boat race—Ira Williams, prize $2. The 100 yard foot race was an exciting event. There were 10 starters. In the first heat there was a tie between Geo. Rogers and C. Chatfield. Another heat was run. This was followed by a dispute and the prize, $5, was divided between Rogers and Chatfield.

Eighteen couples entered for the prize waltz. The prize of $5 was awarded to Fred Steers and Miss Gusta Steber.

The committee are entitled to great credit for the success of the picnic. Knights of St. John.

Natural Gas

Notice to the Citizens of Akron:

In order to introduce into all homes in the city of Akron in the shortest possible time the use of Natural Gas, The East Ohio Gas company will give

A Discount, From the Present Fixed Rates, of 5c For Each 1,000 Cubic Feet.

Of gas used for domestic purposes during the year commencing July 1st, 1899, and ending July 1st, 1900.

As the company is making all house connections at actual cost of materials and labor, it believes that this saving in the price of gas will go largely towards the expense of piping the houses and will give the company the advantage of having every citizen (even the poorest) as a consumer, thus affording to all the best and cheapest fuel. To encourage the use of gas by manufacturers, special rates will be given on application at the office.

F. Spoethe, for leaving a horse latched on the street.

T. S. Hammer, accused of disorderly conduct, was discharged. Phillip Collins, David Davis and Samuel Langer, each got $2 and costs for intoxication.

NEW HALL

Dedicated by Akron Landwehr Verein.

Twenty Eighth Anniversary of Battle of Sedan Celebrated.

The new hall in the Kubler & Beck block, South Main st., recently fitted up for the Landwehr Verein, was dedicated Sunday night.

The event was doubly important in view of the fact that it was also an occasion of celebrating the 25th anniversary of the splendid victory of Sedan, and a delegation of 75 members of the Cleveland Landwehr Verein came down to assist with the exercises. They arrived about 1 o'clock and were given a royal welcome by a cannon salute. An excellent lunch was served to the visitors at the hall, and short addresses of welcome were delivered by Fred E. Koerschner, president of the local association, and Matthias Wein, secretary.

The hall was crowded during the enactment of the dedicatory exercises. Patriotic and appropriate music was furnished by the Eighth Regiment band.

Matthias Wein was president of the meeting. Addresses were made by Fred E. Koerschner, Col. George W. Seiber, Mayor W. E. Young, Paul E. Werner, Captain Herman Warner, George Schmidt, of Cleveland, and August Zimmermann.

Following the addresses, several songs were sung. The floor was then cleared of chairs and dancing began about 12 o'clock, continuing several hours.

The Landwehr Verein is to be congratulated upon its fine new quarters, which have not only been fitted up artistically, but also in a manner that provides every convenience.

Former Akronian Dead.

Hon. H. R. House, ex-Mayor of Newark, died early this morning of dysentery, aged 70 years, says a Newark special. Before coming to Newark he was a conductor on the Erie road with headquarters at Akron.
