TRADE MARK OF COUNCIL OF AKRON

Official Paper of the City of Akron.
TO TELEPHONE THE DEMOCRAT CALL NO. 180.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

No description that can be given of the magnitude of Akron's Free Fair and Carnival will be exaggerated.

The editors of Youngstown's newspapers must be crusty old bachelors, sored on all the pleasures of the world, or they would have said something nice about the Baby Show that will be a part of Akron's Street Fair and Carnival.

NO DEAD ISSUES.
There was a time when Washington McLean, as owner and editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, opposed several prominent Democrats of Ohio something after the fashion that the Cleveland Plain Dealer, of uncertain ownership and more uncertain control, is now opposing the Hon. John R. McLean.

But since Mr. John R. McLean has been in control of the Enquirer no man could question its loyalty to the Democratic party or Democratic leaders. It has done more than any other influence in the great central states to crystallize the sentiment that found expression in the platform of principles adopted at Chicago and prepared the way for the nomination of Mr. Bryan.

Such is the record of the Enquirer under the control of John R. McLean. How can it be assailed?
Every true friend of the Chicago platform and Mr. Bryan must admit that this is no year for Ohio's Democratic forces to be divided by the rehearsal of a personal quarrel which happened in the last generation. But if the newspapers that are a part of the Hanna bureau, including the wayward Plain Dealer of Cleveland, can find pleasant occupation in exhuming the remains of the dead and forgotten past, who would hinder them? They will have nothing but their labor for their pains, and in the rugged language of our amiable Republican friend, Col. Burlington—"the stench which always clings to the dog that digs up rotten bones."

Ohio people have living issues to consider in this campaign. They will waste no time on dead ones.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.
A prominent Virginia Editor had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—Read His Story.

From the Times, Hillsville, Va.
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore. Sold by all druggists. E. Steinbacher & Co., wholesale agents.

NOTICE.
The friends and patrons of R. L. Mead, will find him again located in his old stand, 518 South Main st., ready for business.

The Worm Turns.
"The doctor says you must not take anything that doesn't agree with you," said Mrs. Peck to her invalid husband. "It's lucky for you," replied the sufferer, "that he didn't give me that advice 15 years ago."

"Why is it?" she asked. "Because the chances are you would be an old maid today," answered the sick man, with a peevish smile. And just to prove that she could agree with him if she wanted to she made no reply.—Chicago News.

School Begins

SEPTEMBER 5.
Pupils return to their studies. The mental and physical strain begins. Did you ever stop to think that at no time in life should more care be taken with the eyes? The severe strain on the young, untrained eye is liable to cause defects, serious in their nature. Headache is a common symptom. Child must sit upright at blackboard to see. Dullness and stupidity are also good hints that something is wrong. Glasses will correct the majority of these conditions. If properly fitted. CONSULT.

Dr. Finch, Oculist, Popular Prices, Everett Building, Hours, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Liked His Frankness.
Briggs—There is one thing about Dr. Candor that I like. He tells the truth. Griggs—What has he been telling you? Briggs—He told me if I had only come to him before my money gave out he might have cured me.—Critic.

Less Terrifying to Him.

"Why did you decline to press the case against the footpad?" "Oh," answered the Newport millionaire, "he wasn't so bad as I supposed. I thought he was a snap shot photographer, but he was only trying to rob me."—Washington Star.
