THE Chicago Trust conference seemed to go up in smoke.

In the Hanna lexicon, a campaign opening and a barrel opening are synonymous terms.

WHAT would the managers of Mr. Hanna's local campaign have to say to the friends of Candidate John R. McLean to go among local business men begging contributions to help pay the expenses of a campaign opening designed for his benefit?

AKRON has a very hospitable set of newspaper men. Out of town representatives of the press who attend the campaign opening next Saturday will be entertained in fine style by their local brethren.

To direct the public attention from the issues so aggravatingly forced to the front by the Zanesville platform and nominees—the dreadful John R. McLean—Mark Hanna might put on the road the greatest spectacular show of the age—the Sultan of Sulu, with his 300 wives and pickaninny slave pens—

MR. JOHN PARSONS, a member of the Republican Central Committee of Springfield, Gov. Hushnell's home, has presented his resignation to the chairman.

IF Mr. Hanna's barrel is insufficient to pay the expenses of his red fire and brass band campaign opening, the DEMOCRAT suggests that he pass the hat among his good friends and beneficiaries, the trusts.

THE DEMOCRAT never wants to be in error, so it is glad to be informed by its local Republican neighbor that next Saturday's campaign opening was designed for the exclusive benefit of Akron.

HON. H. O. RUTAN of Carroll county, who was defeated by Hanna for renomination to the General Assembly because of his opposition to bossism, tells what he thinks of the Ohio situation.

Mrs. Bradish, of Detroit, Wrote Mrs. Pinkham and Tells the Result.

LETTERS TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 52,307 "About two years ago I began to run down and soon became almost a wreck. I lost my appetite and began to lose flesh; my blood was impoverished and I had to leave my store."

"The doctors gave me a little tonic, but it steadily grew worse and consulted another doctor. He helped me in some ways, but my headaches continued, and I began to have night sweats and my rest was so disturbed that I would have hysteria and would cry and worry over business matters and my poor health."

"Finally, husband took me South, but with no benefit. This was a year ago; no one can ever know what a winter of misery I spent. Would blot after eating and was troubled with palpitation of heart and nerves. Having read by happy chance of your medicine, I bought it and wrote for your advice, and before having finished the first bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the hysterics nearly stopped and I slept soundly."

"I used seven or eight bottles with such benefit that I am as healthy as I can ever remember of being. I shall never cease to sound your praises."—MRS. E. M. BRADISH, 179 DIX AVENUE, DETROIT, MICH.

Mrs. Pinkham's advice is at the free disposal of every ailing woman who wishes help. Her address is Lynn, Mass. Every case is sacredly confidential.

Hudson, Lusk, Stanton, Hopkins and Van Vorhis are in school. The stone wall line of last year practically remains intact. There are about fifteen new men trying for positions, and every one of the old players will find it necessary to do some hard work to hold his position.

Among the new men who give promise of developing into strong players are Morris and Neubauer of Ravenna and Hallock of Ravenna and Rymer of North Carolina. The schedule, which is not completely filled, will be announced in a few days. It is to include games with all the leading secondary schools of Ohio, including among them Central, South and West High of Cleveland, University school, Kenyon Military Academy and Akron High school.

A Word to Mothers. Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by all druggists. E. Steinbacher & Co., wholesale agents.
