BLOOD'S ROLL

Taken by a Pick Pocket Saturday.

Had Been Warned Against Light Fingering—Other Losses.

John H. Blood of Cleveland, a Tippecanoe club member, was touched Saturday for $100.

Mr. Blood was informed by an Akron man on his way to this city of having his pocket picked in Dayton and of the "light fingered men" who had visited Akron recently. He remarked that in that case "we'll have to look out," but when he looked for his pocket book to pay his board it was gone.

Mrs. M. D. Moore, 102 Adams st., lost a pocketbook Sunday on a street car between Adams and Summit sts. It contained $25.

THE SUNDAY WORLD

Discusses the Germania's Attack Upon the Street Railway Company.

Yesterday's World published the following:

"Unfortunately, at least, is the vehemence of the attack upon one local street railroad in the Akron Germania, because it objected to throwing its entire traffic out of joint at the very heart of both systems for the possible benefit of the Street Fair. Let manufacturer or merchant consider what it would mean to parallel this in his own business for a week, and he will realize more clearly how he would like to have happen to him what was asked of the street car companies. But even though these corporations are left out of the account, as legitimate objects of attack, their patrons have rights to be respected, and these the Germania seems to have forgotten. The man or woman who starts on a street car has a right to the transportation for which they pay, and there is no justice in compelling them to travel a quarter of a mile on foot through the crowd so dense that even ordinary movement is next to impossible. The crowds themselves, too, depend upon the cars for getting to and from the center of the city. Admit all the inconvenience to the sightseers on the streets, and still that does not make it right to keep what they have paid for from the passengers on the trolley lines. Still less does it give occasion for such bitter expressions as the Germania uses, so much at variance with its customary geniality. That the Akron Street Fair looked at in a large way and in a true perspective was a real success, is the main thing and for the sake of the next trial at it, there is no wisdom in stirring up strife to be remembered and used adversely, if another undertaking is attempted."

RIGHT OF WAY

For Branch Line to the Coal Field.

Shaft Is Down 100 Feet—Mine Opened by December 1.

The shaft being sunk in the new coal field, southeast of Doylestown, by John M. Rowley and James P. Loomis, of Akron, is now down to a depth of 100 feet. It is thought that coal will be reached at a depth of 300 feet about December 1.

Right-of-way has been secured by the Erie for the building of a branch from a point near the Doylestown station to the shaft, a distance of about two and a half miles.

Work of grading for the branch track will be commenced at once.

TWO RECRUITS

Enlisted at Local Office By Lieutenant Morrison.

Recruiting officer, Lieut. Ira I. Morrison, today enlisted two members for the 38th U.S.V.I. They are Will Owens of Waterford, Pa., and George W. Obilak of Newcomers-town, O. The boys will leave Tuesday for Cleveland, and from that place will leave Thursday for St. Louis.

At the Grand.

Brown is coming to town. Of course there are many members of the Brown family in this city at the present time, but this particular Brown will arrive Tuesday. The mission of this particular Brown is to spread a general glowing happiness over the county, and to do this through the medium of an intensely humorous farce comedy entitled "Brown's in Town," which will be presented at the Grand Opera house Tuesday evening.

The Heart of Chicago, a powerful melodrama, all the scenes of which are laid in Chicago, will be the attraction at the Grand Thursday, Sept. 28. It is said to contain a strong plot and to be well put together. Scenically the Heart of Chicago is said to be very strong. Realistic representations of the great Chicago fire—the Masonic temple roof garden at night—a panoramic view of the south side showing all the important streets and buildings between Madison and State sts. and from the lake to the river, and an absolutely new railroad scene are among the scenic accessories employed.

Harry Gilfoil, who heads the cast in Hoyt's new "A Trip to China Town" entertained our English cousins for six weeks at the Pavilion Music Hall, London, the past summer. The London Era, in commenting upon his specialty which created a perfect sensation, says: "His mouth is the epitome of all sounds. His throat and voice are the wonder and admiration of the medical faculty of the nineteenth century." At the Grand, Saturday afternoon and evening, September 30.

Fell Down Stairs.
