FOUND RELATIVES

That He Had Not Seen in Over Fifty Years.

Dr. William E. Chamberlain returned Tuesday from an extensive trip through the south and east. At Cumberland, Md., he found relatives that he had not seen in over 50 years.

Dr. Chamberlain emphatically denies Coroner Leberman's statement that he was called as a witness in the Millie Belle Weary case. He says that any intimation that he left the city because of this is unfounded and untrue.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Will be Established.

First Session Monday

Evening, November 6.

Fifty-four Pupils Are Already Enrolled.

Reconsidered the Bill of Miss

Julia Cochran.

Adverse Report On Matter of Free

Text Books.

C. B. Raymond presided at Tuesday evening's meeting of the Board of Education. The session was short, little other than routine business coming before the body for consideration.

The resolution recommending the establishing of a night school was adopted, the first session to be held Monday evening, Nov. 6. The hiring of teachers and providing the details necessary to the school were referred to the proper committees with power to act.

Sessions will be held Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of each week. Prof. I. R. Garbutt, principal of the commercial department of the High school, will be placed at the head of the night school, and two other teachers will be secured, presumably seniors from Buchtel college. It is estimated approximately that the expense of conducting the night school during the term will be $1,000. Books will be furnished to pupils of the night school at the same rate as to those who attend during the day.

Fifty-four young people have thus far signified their intention of attending the night school. Of this number four are young women. The course of study suggested is as follows: Arithmetic, grammar, reading, spelling, U. S. history, book-keeping, algebra, civil government, writing and mechanical drawing.

Four of the night pupils desire to study geometry, three geography, two Latin, two stenography, one German.

It is thought that before the term is ended, over 100 pupils will be in attendance upon the night sessions. The sessions will be held at the High school building, rooms not yet selected.

H. W. Walker of Akron, has made application for a position as teacher in the night schools, and Miss Albert S. Killinger of Canal Fulton, applies for a position as teacher in the regular schools. Both applications referred to the Committee on Teachers and Salaries.

The action taken at the preceding meeting to not admit the salary of Miss Julia Cochran to the pay roll was reconsidered, from the fact that Miss Cochran has already been paid. She will continue teaching in the ward schools.

The Committee on Janitors and Fuel reported in favor of purchasing a boiler for use in the engine room at the High school building. Referred to the committee with power to act.

The Text Book and Apparatus committee reported adversely to free text books in the High school.

The Board is figuring on the purchase of iron flag-staffs for the various schools in the city.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a grand old remedy, used for many years, and still in public favor. It is without doubt the best medicine for all pulmonary affections. It always cures. All druggists sell it for 25 cts. 14

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

Called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the system. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children as well as adults can drink it with great benefit. Cords about one-fourth as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

ORGANIZER

Ed Smith, international organizer for the Cigar Makers' Union visited Akron—Trade Good.

Ed Smith, international organizer for the Cigar Makers' union, spent Tuesday in the city. Mr. Smith devotes all his time to travel in the interest of the union. His home is in New York. He reported the condition of trade in Akron as being very good; in fact, stating that it was good all over the country.

FIRES IN THE MOUNTAINS.

Big Six Days by Devastating Flames in Pennsylvania—Water Famine Near Carbondale.

BERKS COUNTY, Pa., Oct. 25.—Fire started in the Allegheny mountains and the flames soon spread over thousands of acres of land, destroying many thousands of dollars worth of the best quality of timber. In different parts of the county people were fighting hard to keep the flames from reaching their houses. There were many instances of families narrowly escaping serious injury from the flames.

JANESVILLE, Pa., Oct. 25.—This section of the state has had very little rain for many weeks, and as a result a severe water famine is being suffered. At Olyphant, six miles below this city, there is no water in the mains and the electric light station and several coal collieries have been shut down because of the scarcity of water. The Ontario and Western railroad is running water trains.

In several sections of the county forest fires are burning, endangering houses and coal breakers, and the fires cannot be quenched because of the lack of water. At Jersey, the flames crept to within a few rods of the Moscoe Powder company's plant, and were there checked after much trouble. At this place the flames came within about 20 feet of the large Klotz silk mill. At Forest City, about five miles above here, two houses on the outskirts of the town were destroyed. The fire on the mountain extended from Forest City, in Susquehanna county, south to Olyphant, in this county, a distance of 17 miles. Much valuable timber has been destroyed.

BERNARD, Pa., Oct. 25.—Destructive forest fires raged on Williams and Dunnington mountains. Thousands of dollars worth of valuable timber was destroyed. The annual appropriation of $1,000 for fighting these fires was expended and the fire was not yet under control.

Succeeds the Late Spencer M. Janney.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Huntington and Broad Top Mountain Railroad and Coal company George H. Colket of this city was elected president to succeed the late Spencer M. Janney, who died last Friday. Mr. Colket has been a member of the board of directors since September, 1890.

Davis Gave Himself Up.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 25.—A. E.
