Winter in the South.

The season approaches when ones thoughts turn toward a place where the inconveniences of a Northern winter may be escaped. No section of this country offers such ideal spots as the Gulf Coast on the line of the Louisville & Nashville railroad between Mobile and New Orleans. It possesses a mild climate, pure air, even temperature and facilities for hunting and fishing enjoyed by no other section. Accommodations for visitors are first-class, and can be secured at moderate prices. The L. & N. R. R. is the only line by which it can be reached in through cars from Northern cities. Through car schedules to all points in Florida by this line are also perfect. Write for folders, etc., to Jackson Smith, D. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

FOR THE LAWTON FUND

Expressions of Willingness to Help Received.

SYMPATHY IN THE MESSAGES.

Some Accompanied by Contributions of Money—Official Order Announcing the Soldier's Death Issued From the War Department at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Adjutant General Corbin, the head of the committee charged with the collection of funds for the benefit of the family of the late General Lawton, is in receipt of expressions of sympathy and of willingness to co-operate from all quarters of the country. Some of these are accompanied by contributions of money, and altogether there is promise of a generous response to the committee's appeal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The following general order, announcing to the army the death of General Lawton, was issued from the war department:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.

With deep regret the secretary of war announces the death on the field of battle of Henry W. Lawton, major general of volunteers and colonel and inspector general of the regular army.

On April 18, 1861, three days after President Lincoln's first call for volunteers in the war for the Union, at the age of 18, he enlisted as a private in the Ninth Indiana volunteers. He served with his regiment in the field in the army of the Tennessee throughout that war, and at its close was mustered out, at the age of 24, as lieutenant colonel, after being brevetted colonel for gallant and meritorious services and awarded a medal of honor for distinguished gallantry.

He was commissioned second lieutenant in the regular army on July 28, 1866, and served in the infantry until 1870, then in the cavalry until 1888, and thereafter as inspector general until the commencement of the war with Spain.

He was repeatedly commended in general orders "for vigilance and zeal, rapidity and persistence of pursuit, for great skill, perseverance and gallantry" in services on the frontier against hostile Indians.

Upon the declaration of war with Spain he was made brigadier general, and on July 7 following major general of volunteers. His nomination for brigadier general of the regular army was determined upon and was ready to be sent to the senate upon the day of his death. He commanded the Second division of the Fifth army corps in the Cuban campaign, rendering distinguished service in the battles before Santiago and subsequently commanded the department of Santiago and the Fourth army corps. On March 18, 1899, he assumed command of the First division of the Eighth army corps in the Philippine islands, and remained in command of this division in practically continuous and most eventful service in the field until he fell on Dec. 18, 1899, pierced by an insurgent bullet while leading his troops near San Mateo, on the island of Luzon. The swift and resistless movement of his column up the Rio Grande and across the northern boundary of the plain of Central Luzon, which has just been completed was the chief factor in the destruction of the insurgent power and was the crowning achievement of his arduous life.

He fell in the fullness of his powers, in the joy of conflict, in the consciousness of assured victory. He leaves to his comrades and his country the memory and example of dauntless courage, of unsparing devotion to duty, of manly character and of high qualities of command which inspired his troops with his own indomitable spirit.

The flag will be placed at half staff and 18 minute guns will be fired at every post and station on the day after the receipt of this order and the usual badges of mourning will be worn for 30 days.

ELIHU ROOT,
Secretary of War.

By command of General Miles:
H. C. CORBIN,
Adjutant General.

LAWTON'S FUNERAL TODAY.

Body to Be Placed In a Vault—To Be Sent to United States on Transport.

MANILA, Dec. 22.—General Lawton's body will be removed from his late residence to the cemetery today. In accordance with Mrs. Lawton's wish there will be no ceremonial, only a prayer. The late general's staff and Lieutenant Stewart's troop of the Fourth cavalry, which accompanied General Lawton through the campaign, will compose the escort. The actual funeral ceremonies will take place in about ten days, when the transport sails under the direction of General Schwan, and with military honors.

The civil organizations, including the supreme court, will participate, and Senor Calderon will lead the Filipinos who were associated with General Lawton in the organization of the municipalities. Senor Calderon said it was "the saddest day to the Filipino nation to see lost not only the foremost advocate of peace, but their best friend."

Mrs. Lawton bears her grief bravely.

President McKinley's and Secretary Root's message to Major General Otis were posted at the palace, where flags are halfmasted.

CHRISTMAS CALLS ON M'KINLEY.

Lawmakers Extended Greetings—Day to Be Quietly Observed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Many senators and representatives called upon the president to pay their respects and extend their Christmas greetings before leaving for their homes to spend the holiday season. Among them was Representative Richardson, the Democratic leader of the house, who was accompanied by Representative McClellan of New York and Representative Stallings of Alabama.

The president is very cordial in his responses to these evidences of good will. He appears to be enjoying exceptionally good health. No extensive preparations are making for the Christmas celebration at the executive mansion this year owing to the state of Mrs. McKinley's health, and the day probably will be a very quiet one. Miss Grace McKinley and Miss Sarah Duncan, nieces of the president, will be guests at the White House during the holidays. Abner McKinley and his wife also will be here.

Clemency Extended an American.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—United States Minister Hart, at Cartagena, cabled the state department that the supreme court confirmed the sentence of 14 years imprisonment imposed upon the American, Randolph, for the murder of a German citizen named Simmons in the interior of Colombia. Randolph was first sentenced to death. His sentence was then commuted to imprisonment for life, and finally this was reduced to imprisonment for 14 years.

Will Back Goebel's Contest.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 22.—An address to the Democracy of the state, indorsing the contest instituted by Goebel and other candidates of the defeated Democratic ticket and giving the reasons therefor, was issued here. It is signed by former Senator Blackburn, chairman of the state campaign committee; Chairman Young of the state central and executive committees and all of the members of [illegible]

GOLD PLANK DISPUTE.

Kohlsaat Replied to an Article by Foraker—Statements Made by Payne, Hanna and Others.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Senator Foraker published some time ago a long article concerning the origin and adoption of the "gold plank" at the Republican national convention of 1896, in which he maintained that the plank was prepared by the committee on resolutions, of which he was chairman, after much discussion and out of diverse materials. H. H. Kohlsaat, editor of the Chicago Times-Herald, published an article in reply, in which he claimed the "gold plank" was framed by the friends of Governor McKinley at a conference held in Mr. Hanna's room at the Southern hotel, four days before the meeting of the convention, and therefore long before Mr. Foraker was elected either a member or chairman of the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Kohlsaat claimed, furthermore, that there were present at this conference Mr. Hanna, Henry C. Payne, Senator Proctor, Myron T. Herrick, ex-Governor Merriam, M. E. Stone and himself, and that the gold plank prepared by them was submitted to various Republican leaders and also to the committee on resolutions, by which it was adopted, with minor changes of phraseology, and presented to the convention.

Statements made by Messrs. Hanna, Payne, Merriam and Proctor practically confirm this, Payne saying that Mr. Kohlsaat's firm insistence for a gold standard brought the factions together on an agreement. The original draft was taken to St. Louis by Senator Hanna. Friends of Governor McKinley framed the plank.

The resolution as agreed upon was given to Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland, who telegraphed it in full to Canton for the approval of Governor McKinley, which was soon obtained, and then a copy was given to Governor Merriam, who had been selected as a member of the committee on resolutions, and he was authorized to say to that committee that the resolution as presented by him had been drawn by immediate and responsible friends of Governor McKinley and approved by him, and to ask that it be adopted by the committee.

Proctor and Merriam said the plank was shown Foraker, and it met with his approval. The former said Hanna was in and out of the room at a conference Friday morning in the Southern hotel, but gave the matter little attention, as he was more interested in making a president than the platform for him to stand on. He, however, expressed himself as ready to agree to anything they formulated, and did agree to it at the close of the work.
