

LABOR DAY

Eclipsed All Previous Demonstrations.

Despite the Inclement Weather, the Great Parade Was a Splendid Success.

Estimated That 3,000 People Were In Line ---Over One Hour Required to Pass a Given Point.

Exercises at Silver Lake Park Were Enjoyed by Old and Young—Good Program of Sports Was Inaugurated.

With weather more propitious, the celebration of Labor Day would have far exceeded the expectations of its most sanguine promoters. As it was, with lowering clouds and frequent showers, all previous demonstrations of a similar nature were outclassed and those who labored so hard for the day's success witnessed their efforts culminate triumphantly.

The celebration was under the auspices of the Central Labor Union and to that organization belongs the credit for the splendid observance of the day set apart to uphold the dignity of labor. For weeks, even months, the members of the Central Labor Union have been making arrangements for a fitting observance of Labor's holiday. They worked and planned until the minutest details had all been properly cared for. Everything was in readiness for the grandest industrial parade in the history of the city. The various unions had promised large delegations.

The weather man had been consulted and there was every reason to look for a perfect day. But a cog slipped somewhere and the weather program could not be fulfilled. Monday dawned, but Old Sol refused to make his appearance. The sky was soon overcast with clouds and before the multitudes had reached the downtown districts, rain had commenced to fall.

But it required more than the mere precipitation of moisture to dampen the ardor of Akron's workmen. It was their day and no ordinary rainfall could interfere with their plans. Early in the morning, members of the different unions assembled at their respective halls preparatory for the parade.

At 9:30 o'clock, the time announced for the line to move, the rain was falling in torrents and it looked as if an abandonment of the arrangements would be necessary. An hour later, the rain ceased and the line of march was begun. For the next hour, one of the finest parades, either civic or military, that ever appeared upon Akron's streets, marched through the business thoroughfares of the city. It is estimated that 3,000 men were in line. Sixty minutes were required for the procession to pass a given point. All along the route, cheer after cheer went up in honor of organized labor. The various crafts were appropriately uniformed and they presented a striking appearance. The marshals and their aides were mounted and the five bands furnished plenty of music.

LINE OF MARCH. The procession formed on E. Exchange and Bowery streets and moved north on Bowery to Howard st., north on Howard to Tallmadge, east on Tallmadge to Main, south on Main to Market, east on Market to Summit, south on Summit to Mill, west on Mill to Main, south on Main to Cedar, where the column countermarched, north on Main to Market.

In front of M. O'Neill & Company's store on S. Main st., the marching delegations were reviewed by President of the Day James J. Mahony, Chief Marshal W. B. Taneyhill and staff and members of the Central Labor Union to the number of 50.

Before reaching this point, the parade was headed by Chief Marshal W. B. Taneyhill and staff, A. J. Kimpf, Scott Carpenter, Alexander Rolley, Jacob Koplin and Reuben Bulman.

KIDNEY DISEASE KILLS. Its Victims Are Numbered by the Hundreds of Thousands.

If you are suffering from Kidney or Bladder disease, the doctor asks: "Do you desire to urinate often, and are you compelled to get up frequently during the night? Does your back pain you? Does your urine stain linen? Is there a scalding pain in passing it, and is it difficult to hold the urine back? If so, your Kidneys or Bladder are diseased."

Try putting some of your urine in a glass tumbler, let it stand twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment, or a cloudy, milky appearance, your Kidneys are sick. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will surely relieve and cure even the most distressing cases of these dread diseases, and no physician can prescribe a medicine that equals it for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation. It will promptly correct the bad effects of beer and whiskey. All drug stores sell it for one dollar a bottle.

By sending your address to the Dr. David Kennedy's Corporation, Round-out, N. Y., and mentioning this paper, a trial bottle, together with pamphlet of valuable medical advice, will be sent you free; postpaid by mail. Our readers can depend upon the genuineness of this offer.

GET DOWN TO FACTS.

Read What Akron Citizens Say.

Get down to the facts of the matter. Don't take a stranger's word. It is easier to prove the truthfulness of statements made by citizens of Akron than endorsements coming from some far away place. Read the following: Mrs. J. A. Closson, of 209 East Chestnut street, says: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble, had headaches all the time and the uric acid in the kidney secretions caused me to suffer from a bladder difficulty, which embarrassed me by the too frequent action of the secretions. My back was so lame that I could not straighten up. Procuring Doan's Kidney Pills from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store their use promptly relieved me. I have no hesitation in recommending this remedy to all who suffer as I did." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. F. I. Stier-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. POLICE WERE TOO BUSY. The committee had invited Acting Chief of Police John Durkin to lead the parade with a platoon of officers, but owing to the excessive demands upon the members of the force, the invitation could not be accepted. The committee on general arrangements and to whom a large share of the success of the celebration is due, was comprised of James J. Mahony, chairman; O. S. Seever, secretary; J. W. Geary treasurer; Thomas W. Byrne and John Fitzgerald.

One of the most novel "races" of the day was the shaving contest given under the auspices of the Barbers' Union. A barber shop had been arranged upon a platform and the race was gaily watched by a large crowd. One of the rules governing the contest was that a barber drawing blood would be disqualified. It so happened that each one of the half dozen contestants drew blood on their victims and the judges were obliged to resort to the time made by each barber in shaving his man.

The entries were F. G. Henderson, Charles Stroker, Ed Narrence, William Thomas, Fred Williams and Ben Whitehead. First Prize, $15, was awarded to William Thomas, time 1 minute and 20 seconds; second prize, $10, to Ed Narrence; time 1 minute and 38 seconds; third prize, a razor, to Ben Whitehead, time 1 minute and 40 seconds.

The judges were Edward Corbin, G. W. Hale and Charles W. Kempel; time-keepers, J. A. Winthrope, Robert Simms and Johnny Whitaker.

Owing to the wet condition of the grounds, the ball game was called off. NO SPEAKING AT PARK. It was the intention of the committee to have an address appropriate to

The new kilns for the Ohio Stone-ware company are being constructed and operations will be commenced in a short time.

One of the greatest limited means and large recurring attacks of sickness are there, where sickness with its heavy demands on the purse of the unfortunate, keeps prosperity out of reach. Thousands of lives are sacrificed year in and year out, many constitutions are completely wrecked, and all because the average family does not regard with proper attention, the small ills. Wise persons watch carefully all symptoms of a disturbed system, and those who are prudent have a regulator laid by, ready for just such a condition of things. The only natural regulator, that will steer you straight to health and keep you there, is Abbey's Effervescent Salt. "THE SALT OF SALTS." It is invigorating, cleans the tongue and mouth, and imparts a feeling of freshness to the entire system. A teaspoonful taken in a glass of water every morning will keep you in the best of health and spirits, and the system in a condition of insusceptibility to disease and disorders of the blood. Wherever it has been introduced the medical profession have endorsed it as an efficacious preventative of and cure for Indigestion, Biliousness, Loss of Appetite, Sleeplessness, Constipation and similar complaints. Abbey's Salt purifies the blood, clears the complexion and makes a most pleasant beverage at all times, taking the place of Soda, Seltzer and Mineral Waters. D. WAGNER, M. D., says: "I have used Abbey's Salt recently in Nervous Prostration with Wakedness, Headaches, etc., both of which were controlled by it. After much experience, I heartily recommend it to all physicians as one of our best and most reliable remedies. It has a place among my remedies." Sold by most druggists, or sent by mail. 25c, 50c, and $1 per bottle. THE ABBEY EFFERVESCENT SALT CO., 9-15 Murray St., N. Y. (Bottle free on request.)
