DREAMERS.
"There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream." The old song is right. Lovers are dreamers. They create a special world in which they live immune from the hurts and ills which vex common humanity. In their estimate of household expenses there's no place for a doctor. And every often when the dream dissolves they find that the doctor's bill, the one thing they didn't count on, is now the one thing that's as regular as rent and taxes. And many times it is money wasted. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do for a woman and her womanly ills, practically everything that can be done by any doctor or medicine. It regulates the periods, dries debilitating drains and cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It makes childbirth easy, and thousands of nursing mothers have testified to its tonic and strength giving properties. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic. Mrs. Annie Blacker, of 409 Catherine Street, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicine has done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor. I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery I have much better health, and now I have a fine, healthy baby." Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Earl Carter's Large Score—Local Sporting News.

The greatest pest to latter-day pugilism is the knocker. In every town in America where boxing is permitted you can always find a bunch of knockers. Nothing hurts the sport as much as this same class of people. It's hard to please them, and they would rather kick all day than to spend 10 minutes putting in a "boost" for the game. The worst feature about the knocking element in the fighting business is that they are so unjust. They will accept a complimentary ticket to a boxing show and take up the best seats at the ring side, and after the show is over make a wild rush for the street corners to get a chance to knock the show they just witnessed on a free pass. The real sports, who paid their $3 or $5 for a seat, walk home congratulating each other on seeing such a lively evening's sport. Their hearts are full of hope for another show of the kind, and when they go to work the next day they tell others what they missed by not being present at the contests the night before. The knockers, instead of going on about their business, will wait around to find some other ill-minded individual who likes to hear his opinion aloud in public, and they will get in a crowd, and from the tone of the conversation one would think that they had been bukkoed by a band of circus grafters. These same knockers wait around for some one to buy them a drink, and the man who does this always proves to be a "good fellow." If you don't buy booze and jolly the knocker you are rated as a stiff. Noble deeds and gentlemanly conduct never come in for consideration with the Knocker. You have got to buy booze and throw the Mexican alive for them or they won't like you nor can they see anything good in what you do.

LANDED ON RUHLIN.

Judging from the Eastern press dispatches it appears that the knockers have landed on Gus Ruhlin. They have branded him a chump because he does not go out and get drunk and stay up all night entertaining a crowd of would-be sports.

When they knock Ruhlin it is only a shining example of what low-bred specimens of humanity the knockers really are. If ever there was a good, hearty, gentlemanly fighter with many noble traits of character it is Gus Ruhlin.

No one ever heard of Ruhlin mixing an inoffensive man or getting mixed up in a row with a woman. He is not that kind of a fellow. Gus would rather sit down and have a social chat with a person of intelligence than to spend a night on the Tenderloin in a crowd of brainless youths celebrating on money they received from home.

Ruhlin has always made it a point to look after his mother and sisters and they have enjoyed the fruits of his victories as much as the big fellow himself. It is a credit to the Buckeye State to have such a noble young fellow, full of health and strength, striving for honors that only perfect manhood can achieve, and none but the knockers begrudge him now laurels in the prize ring. Ruhlin is a fighter, but a gentleman.

MATCH FELL THROUGH.

The proposed match between Peter Maher and Gus Ruhlin having apparently fallen through, there is talk of a go between the Irish champion and the gigantic black, Bob Armstrong.

AKRON BOYS AT CORNELL.

Nearly all of the old regular varsity players were given a lay off Monday and the scrub candidates were worked for all that was in them, says an Ithaca special. New coaches were on the field, including Yvan Tracy, '98, of Syracuse, and Cleves Short, last year's sub quarterback, who has been coaching Colgate this season. In addition there were Haughton, Porter, Torney and Capt. Starbuck. The whole bunch gave attention to the eleven which represented the varsity, with the result that some hard and fierce work was secured from both teams. Nannack was at center and Cooper and Voris the guards. Brewster remained at quarterback and Schollkopf his position at fullback. The scrubs succeeded in scoring a safety against this eleven, while the last team crossed their opponents' goal line twice.

John Pierson came back from New York with sufficient good records to warrant his registration here. This

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy Has Proved Itself to be the Only

Positive Cure For Kidney and Bladder Diseases.

Thousands of requests for free bottles of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy are received nearly every day by the manufacturers, and upon strict investigation it has been found that no less than 91 out of every hundred of those receiving trial bottles have been so helped by the Kennedy sent, that they have bought large sized bottles, at their druggists.

It has been proven beyond question, that Favorite Remedy is the very best medicine known for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, chronic constipation, and the sicknesses peculiar to women. The manufacturers are prepared to send free trial bottles postpaid to all those who will write, giving their full name and post office address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper.

Put some of your urine in a glass tumbler; if in 24 hours it has a sediment, or a milky, cloudy condition; if it is pale or discolored, rosy or stringy, you need a good medicine, and Favorite Remedy is the best one you can take. It speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, scalding burning pain in passing water, staining of your linen by the urine and inability to hold it. Also the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whisky or beer.

means that only the question of his deficient scholarship stands between him and a place on the team. Whether they allow him to take part in the big games or not. Pierson said he was going to come out every afternoon and play on the scrubs. He wants to see Cornell have a good team. Pierson has won the admiration of all by his manly position, and there are great hopes that his case will again be taken up, and that he will be reinstated with a good standing in scholarship.

CARNIVAL AT DETROIT.
(Special Correspondence.)
Detroit, Oct. 9.—Interest in the coming welterweight championship battle between Matty Matthews of New York, and Rube Ferns of Kansas, which will be decided here Tuesday, Oct. 16, is growing more intense as the date of the affair grows nearer. Both men are hard at work and both are reported in fine condition for the fray. Ferns has entirely recovered from the trouble with his arm and is using that member with unusual freedom. Ferns has been here for the past three weeks, while Matthews is not due here until about the middle of the week.

Art Simms, who meets Frank Stackhouse in a 15-round preliminary, is one of the fastest and hardest hitting men of his weight in the country, and there is great interest shown in him, as he will probably be matched to meet either Terry McGovern or Oscar Gardner if he makes good with the Detroit. Simms has a long string of knock-outs to his credit and has never yet lost a decision, although he has been boxing for four years.

THE TOURNAMENT.

Rome, Oct. 9.—(Spl.)—The Messagero says that Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee and the Admirals of the powers have invited the civil and military authorities of the province of Pe-Chili to submit within 48 hours. Nearly all the Chinese in question agreed to accept the invitation, the paper says, and a general disarmament followed.

The Messagero says that 8,000 Chinese, working on the fortification of the great wall, fled when the province of Pe-Chili, includes Pekin, Tien Tsin and Pao Ting Fu. It was the scene of the most serious Boxer outbreaks.

Shanghai, Oct. 9.—(Spl.)—The natives report that Field Marshal Von Waldersee, has peremptorily demanded of Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, that Prince Tuan and the other Boxer leaders be handed over to him for punishment before he begins to negotiate.

Didn't Fool the "Shadow."
Inspector Conquest tells many entertaining anecdotes of his relations with Mr. Gladstone, whom he was specially told off to "shadow" during the troublous times of 1881. The premier, who, as is well known, chafed under the vigilant supervision to which he was subjected, was fertile in expedients to get rid of the detective. Upon one occasion he attempted a particularly ingenious ruse. Entering a club, of which he was a member, he persuaded a friend of about his own build to walk out wearing his unmistakable hat and overcoat and carrying his umbrella. Mr. Gladstone hoped of course, that his unweelcome attendant might be misled in the dusk of the autumn evening and thus allow an opportunity to escape.

The astute detective saw the familiar garments leaving the club, but was not deceived as to the identity of their wearer. Gait is one of the most difficult things in the world to imitate, and Mr. Gladstone's was intensely characteristic. Inspector Conquest simply walked up to the wearer of borrowed plumage, administered his most professional tap on the shoulder and said, "I believe, sir, you have just left that club with another gentleman's property in your possession?" Mr. Gladstone never attempted to elude his "shadow" after that.—London Chronicle.

AN OPINION INDORSED.
"It takes genius and hard work to make a great actor," exclaimed the chubby matinee favorite who was smoking a cigarette and reading a 50 cent novel.
And the press agent looked up from the piles of fiction which his facile pen was tracing and in a voice that shook with feeling exclaimed:
"You bet it does!"—Washington Star.
