Death of a Well Known Resident of Barberton.

(Special Correspondence.)

Barberton, Oct. 16.—The son of Mr. Chas. Ross, aged three years, was the victim of an accident yesterday by which he was severely injured. While playing, a plank fell on him, striking his right leg, and fracturing the bone. Dr. Rodenbaugh dressed the injury and the boy is getting along nicely.

Council had a very quiet meeting last night, very little business of importance being transacted. A resolution declaring the necessity for grading Wooster ave., passed its first reading. This will very likely be passed, as the street named has been in a very rough condition since the removal of the Rapid Transit Co.'s tracks.

Mr. Will Stemple, who has been ill with malarial fever, is reported much better.

NOT A TRUST.

It Will Devolve Upon the Company to Prove It.

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—The Supreme court today, in the case brought by F. S. Monnett as Attorney General against the Continental Tobacco company, held that foreign corporations cannot be required to subscribe to the double liability clause of Ohio's constitution. ## TWO REPORTS

Furnish Conflicting News From Shanghai.

London, Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—According to a Dispatch to the Central News from Shanghai the allies are reported to have reached Pao Ting Fu, Oct. 12. The dispatch says the occupation was effected without fighting. Another Shanghai report says the capture occurred on Oct. 13.

If the reports of the departure of the expeditions against Pao Ting Fu from Tien Tain and Peking were correct, the above accounts are probably premature. The expeditions left Oct. 12 and the distance to Pao Ting Fu is 100 miles.

BRYAN

Greeted by Thousands

Last Speech In Ohio Was a Hummer.

Closed a Successful Tour of the Buckeye State.

Reception In New York Will be a Record Breaker.

Every Detail Has Been Arranged For a G and Meeting.

Cleveland Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—Col. W. J. Bryan left Cleveland on his special train for New York last night at 10:35, immediately after the great Bryan mass meeting at Central armory.

The demonstration in the Democratic candidate's honor was enthusiastic and on an immense scale. Thousands upon thousands crowded the streets, listened to him in front of the Hollenden hotel and later packed the big armory to hear the principal speech of the evening. It eclipsed by a great deal the welcome given Bryan here in '90, although that was a big affair.

Democrats are jubilant over the success of their candidate's Ohio tour and its pyrotechnical climax in this city.

In his speech at the armory the Presidential candidate dealt with imperialism, the undesirability of a large standing army and trusts. On the latter subject he went somewhat into details and suggested that the two remedies which he advocated were the abolishment of the tariff upon all products which were subject to the trust evil, and the focusing of corporations in those States which they seek to enter.

His audiences were thoroughly in accord with him and there were no interruptions and no disorder.

Mayor Jones of Toledo, who is very popular in Cleveland, had the additional advantage of speaking before Bryan, consequently held his crowd. Attorney General Monnett had the disadvantage of following the chief orator, and only a part of the crowd remained to hear him. He was well received, however.

New York, Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—Col. Bryan arrived at 2:55 this afternoon from Cleveland. From then on he received the greatest reception ever given and candidate in this country.

Immense preparations had been made for twenty-five hundred policemen as a mounted escort. Temporary hospitals along the route of the parade, with special ambulance and patrol wagon stations, are provided. Every hand in town is engaged and Tammany has ordered every shouter to be out.

Croker expects 150,000 to try to see and hear Bryan tonight. Four meetings are scheduled, and Bryan will address them all. Vice Presidential candidate Stevenson, John B. Stranchfield, candidate for Governor of New York and others will speak.

A big dinner to Bryan and Stevenson will be given at 5 o'clock at the Hoffman house.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—William J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate for President, passed through this city at 7:40 o'clock this morning in his special car, which was attached to train no. 16, on the New York Central. He came directly through from Ohio, and is bound for New York city. But few people were aware of his coming, the railroad officials themselves thinking that he was coming on train No. 18 at 11 o'clock and in consequence there was no one at the station to meet him. Mr. Bryan and his party had not risen when this city was reached.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—Bryan is making no speeches en route. Norman E. Mack, national committeeman from New York who is on the train, predicts that Bryan will carry the state by 60,000.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—After spending the night with ex-Judge Carrow, in Merchantville, Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for Vice President, left this city on the 9 o'clock train for New York city. He expressed himself as highly pleased with his stay in New Jersey and remarked that it "looks as if the state would give Bryan its electoral vote." He left over the Camden and Amboy division of the Pennsylvania railroad.

MILITIA

Forced Miners Back at Bayonets' Point.

Nineteen Mile Tramp Across Mountains—Situation Unchanged.

Tamaqua, Pa., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—The biggest march of the anthracite strike was spoiled this morning by the police and soldiers. Parties started from Hazelton, McAdoo, Freeland and other Lehigh Valley towns, as early as 9 o'clock last night. It was a 19 mile tramp over the mountains. Two columns were to sweep down the road and close all the mines of the Panther creek valley, which have withstood the strikers' efforts. Companies' detective discovered the plots and troops were sent by rail past the marchers, and were distributed throughout the valley three thousand of the strikers were marching, toiling along well on their way to Coaldale at three this morning when a line of bayonets suddenly crossed their path. The militia forced the marchers back inch by inch. At McAdoo, women were so close that they frequently held the soldiers bayonets as they slowly retreated. By eight this morning the valley was cleared. One column of marchers did succeed in closing one colliery and the excitement caused all of them to be badly crippled today, though most of them are working.

A Good Sign.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—Miners here this morning watched closely what they believe a very significant move pointing to an early resumption of work. Trains of empty coal cars were brought from the general sidings of the railroads and placed on the sidings near the breakers. This move occurred on Lackawanna and Jersey Central Railroads.

No Change.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 16.—(Spl.)—The strike situation is unchanged. The prediction of a New York operator yesterday that the strike would be settled Wednesday causes the miners to anticipate tomorrow's developments eagerly. The Gibbons Coal Company which supplies coal to the schools, has asked the miners' organization to allow the its mines to be operated to supply the schools. President Mitchell advised the local officers to consider the matter.
