No. 180.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 9, 1901.

The indifference with which public business is transacted may be noted in the "deliberations" of the State Board of Equalization at Columbus. The Board has been in session for a month and the members have been drawing their pay and mileage for that time, but aside from adopting resolutions that do not mean anything and that have no effect upon the public interests, the Board has done nothing. There are many reasons why the State Board of Equalization ought to have a fellow feeling for the Akron Board of City Commissioners.

One of the applicants who was promised a job on the Police force by Czar Anderson has brought suit in Common Pleas court to enforce the appointment. This is the young man whose name the City Commissioners did not even know when they appointed him policeman, and whose appointment they a few days ago revoked at the request of the Czar and for the sake of general appearances. How do Akron people like to be governed by the Czar?

There was a very slim attendance at the meeting of the Economic League last evening, but this deficiency was more than overcome by the number of bright things that were said by the speakers. Judge J. A. Kohler sounded a keynote when he said that Akron people should look less to the prosperity of the party than to the prosperity of all the people. Akron people have been very liberal in the distribution of their political support in local elections, and it is to the continued willingness on their part to overlook partisan considerations in choosing their local officials that they must look for final relief from the evils of municipal government now oppressing them.

MR. MONNETT'S REPLY.

Attorney General Sheets had gained nothing in public esteem by his criticism of Attorney General Monnett for having favored the prosecution of the charges against the Standard Oil and other trusts.

Despite their anomalous verdict in the elections of last November, the people of Ohio are not in the habit of condemning officials who honestly try to enforce laws enacted for the public welfare, nor are they given to applauding officials who ignore popular laws that they may gain the favor of the privileged interests.

This may be instanced by comparing the general popular regard in which Mr. Monnett is held with the contempt that exists for the trust, mental, Mr. Sheets.

But that even such disgusting subserviency as Mr. Sheets has shown for the trusts is not always appreciated by his superiors seems to be evidenced by the plans now afoot in Mr. Hanna's party to give his place to another.

Mrs. Julia Gaylord has almost entirely recovered from her recent illness.

It is quite probable that Arthur Wetmore will be employed by F. A. Jones, the coming summer, assisting in the manufacture of ice cream.

The C. W. B. M. society will meet Friday, Jan. 11, at the home of Mrs. Loton Hartle.

Miss Daisy Call returned Sunday, after a week's visit with friends in Akron.

Frank Wetmore entered Hammel's Business College at Akron, Wednesday, Jan. 2.

Ernest Grubb and Wm. O'Kefe have opened a horseshoeing establishment in Kent, at the old stand of Charles Greenlee.

Miss Beesie Beckley, who is spending the winter with her uncle, W. D. Randall, in Daphne, Ala., writes that the weather for this time of the year is perfect. Peach trees are in bloom and all nature looks beautiful. Miss Beckley is having a most delightful time hunting, fishing and horseback riding, with many other sports that ladies of the South indulge in.

Rev. Caywood, of the Wabash ave. church, at Akron, occupied the pulpit at this place Sunday.

Miss Ruth Harrington resumed work in the Akron Rubber works, Tuesday, after a two weeks' vacation.

Albert Carl is moving his farming implements to his future home.

Bert Wetmore is devoting his time to the study of mining engineering.

"The Stowaways" again demonstrated their entertaining abilities on New Year's night, by giving the second of their series of crokinole parties at the home of Geo. Lodge. The beautiful home of Geo. Lodge. The beautiful brilliancy from top to bottom.

The fore part of the evening was spent in crokinole playing, after which a very fine repast was served, to which all fell into regular Frank Green style. Appropriate musical selections were rendered, both vocal and instrumental, which was another very enjoyable feature. It was a late hour when the guests departed, each expressing a feeling of gratitude toward the Lodge family for the hospitality extended them on this enjoyable occasion.

The play "Duffy's Jubilee," which was given at the Opera house, Monday evening was well attended.

Miss Katie Whitman left Sunday for Wadsworth, where she will stay for some time.

Miss Floria Dies of Akron, is visiting with friends in town.

Mr. Geo. A. Ott spent the holidays with his brother Willis, who is attending school at Notre Dame, Ind.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Smith, a daughter.

The literary at No. 4 school house, Friday evening was largely attended.

The first announcement of the marriage of E. L. Ott and Miss Anna Yost was called at St. Peter's and St. St. Paul's church, Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Stoolmiller of Akron was home over Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Mountz of Ill., is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Rollin Smith.

A pleasant surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Whitman, in honor of their daughter Rosa's birthday, Saturday evening. About thirty young people were present. A dainty lunch was served. They all departed at a late hour, wishing Miss Rosa many more happy birthdays.

BOARD

Wasted a Month

Upon Its Resolution
Nonsense.

Hasn't Done a Thing For the Taxpayers.

Added Another to Its Voluminous
Resolutions

In Relation to the Special Session Matter.

(Special Correspondence.)

Columbus, Jan. 9.—Immediately before adjournment last evening the State Board of Equalization adopted, by a strict party vote, the following resolutions, declaring that the Board has full power under the Royer law and that there is no occasion for requesting the Governor to call an extra session of the General Assembly:

Whereas, there seems to be an erroneous impression as to the powers and duties of this Board under the Royer act of 1900, and

Whereas, there seems to be a determined effort to create in the public mind an impression that this Board is shorn of power to perform the public functions for which it was elected, and this is done notwithstanding the opinion of the Attorney General of Ohio, in which these words occur: "I cannot understand how the repeal of rules which governed former Boards could have the effect of leaving the present Board without powers to perform the duties for which it was elected," and

Whereas, there has never existed in the minds of the members of this Board the slightest doubt as to its legal power and duty to "equalize the valuation of real property among the several counties and towns of the State, as defined in the law, and for which duty the members have been elected and have each taken an official oath, and

Whereas, it seems to be the duty of this Board, considering the interests of the owners of real property in Ohio, to make a public and final declaration of its attitude at this time, especially so in view of the rumors of a disturbing nature which are given space in public prints. Therefore,

Resolved, by the State Board of Equalization, met in decennial session, that it is the sense of this body that the Board is possessed of all needed power to perform its public duty in the matter of equalizing the valuation of real property among the several counties and towns of the State, for which duty alone the members were elected and qualified, and

Resolved, further, that it is the sense of this Board that it has ample power to provide necessary help in its labors, and has experienced no inconvenience from a lack of employes as elected under the law, and

Resolved, further, that being clothed with ample power to perform its public duty in a legal manner, and being provided with ample funds with which to bear its necessary expenses and to employ all necessary assistants, and being further provided at the present time with all needed officers and employes, it is hereby declared that this Board has no desire for an extra session of the General Assembly and has no intention of asking the Governor of Ohio to exercise his authority in its behalf.

It is generally felt here that the Board could do more for the owners of real property in Ohio by beginning to do something than by adopting resolutions setting forth its attitude at this time, even if disturbing rumors have been given space in the public prints. The Board has been nominally in session for more than a month and absolutely nothing has been accomplished as yet, except that each member has regularly drawn his salary and that liberal accounts have been honored for mileage.

STINGING

Is Monnett's Rebuke

To His Successor, Judge
J. M. Sheets.

"Monopoly and Trusts"
Are the God,

And Sheets Is Their Chosen
Prophet (Profit)

Pays Some Attention to the Attorney
General's Egotism.

(Special Correspondence.)

Columbus, Jan. 9.—Former Attorney General Monnett, who was covertly criticised in the annual report of his successor, Judge John M. Sheets, as reported in yesterday's Democrat, last evening made a fierce attack upon the present Attorney General and his action in dismissing the famous trust cases. Mr. Monnett said, in part:

"Attorney General Sheets has filed his annual report with Governor Nash and given it out in the way of self-justification. In order to cover up self-stultification has been spewing his foamings out on the ex-Attorney General and his assistants, and by inference is claimed to have had the endorsement of all of the former employes, such as Kinkaid and Mr. Bennett, and that they are on their knees to him and occasionally, with their mouths in the dust, crying, 'unclean, unclean,' and that there is but one God, that 'monopoly and trusts,' and Sheets is its prophet (profit)."

"This is the first time in the history of the office that the incoming officer took upon himself the burden of reporting his own year's doing, as well as the preceding year of his predecessor. It is in the line of his written opinions of the past year that have been the amusement of many of the courts and county officials and will be taken equally seriously. The absurdity and falseness of part of his insinuations in reference to the prosecution of the Standard Oil company for contempt for court need but be refuted by the facts.

"Under the statute, the Attorney General of the State shall prosecute corporations offending against the provisions of their charter and prosecute them when they misuse their franchise, privilege or right conferred upon them and the same shall be done and the prosecution shall be begun by the Attorney General; or when upon complaint the Attorney General has good reason to believe that a corporation has violated the provisions of its charter and violated the laws of the State, it becomes his duty to commence such an action."

INSPECTED.

Major Lee Pleased With Showing Made by Company F.

Co. F, Eighth Regiment, was inspected last night by Major Charles E. Lee and Lieutenant Bolck, his adjutant, of Wadsworth. Equipment, quarters and accounts of the company were thoroughly examined and found to be in excellent condition. Major Lee praises Co. F very warmly, and regards it as one of the very best companies in the regiment.

Did Not Meet.

An attempt was made Tuesday evening to hold a meeting of Theodore Miller Camp, Spanish-American War Veterans, at Oriental hall. Owing to the fact that most of the members had forgotten the date of the meeting, and that members of the Camp also belong to Co. F, which was being inspected at the time, the meeting did not materialize.

COST OF SICKNESS.

What a large proportion of the time of the well is necessarily devoted to and lost in the care of the sick.
An army of Physicians, Nurses and Watchers, etc.
One sick member of the family upsets the whole current of domestic affairs, and social and business interest suffers. Sleepless nights and anxious days tend to undermine the health of those who are well.
The direct cost of sickness is an item impossible to estimate: even the direct cost—could it be computed—would be something appalling.
Health is maintained by resorting to the use of Warner's Safe Cure just as soon as the liver shows signs of torpidity or the kidneys give suspicion of weakness. This great Kidney and Liver Specific relies upon the verdict of the world after 21 years trial.
