DOCTORS HERE FROM FAR AND NEAR

Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Damon assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Gleason were hosts of the North-eastern Ohio Medical Association at their annual meeting held in Medina on Wednesday. Between 40 and 50 physicians and their wives, from Cleveland, Akron, Barberton, Ashland, Orrville, Seville, Marshfield and other points were here in an all-day session. Dinner was served at the Christian church, of which 68 partook. Many interesting and instructive papers were read. A vote taken on the way and resulted in a victory for the boys and the women. At least from a social standpoint the meeting is reported to have been the best one held in years.

MYSTERY HIKE ASSOCIATION

On their return trip last Saturday afternoon from the "Mystery Hike," the Y. M. C. A. boys were privileged to visit the Medina Foundry Co.'s plant west of the village, which added a feature of educational worth. On account of rain Prof. Godlove on the return trip led the boys on a cross-country run, which tested their sticking qualities. In the evening an informal and athletic program was enjoyed at the association hall and short talks were given by President L. W. Boyden of the local organization and County Secretary Stow.
