ADVERTISING IS NEWS

We would divert the attention of our readers to the splendid array of advertising to be found in the columns of the Sentinel. It is a real privilege for our readers to have such a wide selection, and it establishes the commercial supremacy of this town. Read them carefully; they help settle the annoying problem of the high cost of living, by telling you where you make your money go the farthest in getting necessities. Medina is one of the best towns on the map, and our merchants make it so more than any other set of men in it. They have goods that will bear inspection, or they would not advertise them so fearlessly. Follow their announcements from week to week and buy at home. Let's make this a better town.
