

THE MEDINA SENTINEL

THE MEDINA SENTINEL, FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1915.

NO 41

Dept. of Investigation & Statistics

Fifty-four Medina Scholars Constitute the Graduating Class of 1915

LUCILE ALLEN EARL B. ARICK MILDRED ARNOLD JULIA M. BAILEY

BEATRICE BLAKESLEE F. O. BOHLEY DOROTHY BRADWAY BESSIE BREYLEY

MANLEY BURGIN RUTH BURKETT H. J. BURNHAM GUY CHAMBERLAIN

MABEL CHIDSEY J. ALFRED DANNLEY DWIGHT L. DERR ALSETTA F. FRETZ

The baccalaureate sermon by Dr. H. S. Fritsch at the Congregational church last Sunday evening marked the beginning of commencement week of the graduating class of Medina High school of 1915. Dr. Fritsch spoke from the Scriptural text, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." The speaker made much of the text and emphasized to the class its deep significance as to intelligent and efficient effort. The address was a very thoughtful one and ably uttered.

Tuesday evening the class play, "The Melting Pot," which has for its basic thought the religious and sociological conditions of the Russian Jew, was presented at the Princess theater. The play is of four acts and abounds in long and weighty speeches. Each of the nine characters essayed his or her part with remarkable ability. Indeed it would be difficult to grade the action of the players, because each one had so different a character to portray. It is well, however, to make passing allusion to the work of Joseph Seymour, as he essayed the chief role and his work was especially exacting. The speeches were very lengthy at times and demanded energetic and polished deliverance. Mr. Seymour's work was especially praiseworthy. The other members of the class who took part in the play were Glenn Weisz, Branch Pierce, Fred Bohley, Emanuel Tinstman, Dorothy Bradway, Genevieve Nichols, Doris Searles, Anna Holcomb.

The beautiful scene in the last act showing the Goddess of Liberty stat-

WILLIAM E. GATES VICTOR G. GATES GRACE L. HARTMAN ALBERT E. GILL

LLOYD A. HEATH MARGARET HOLCOMB WILLIAM HOBART MAE M. ISHAM

KARL E. JENKS ALTA JOHNSON SARAH KERNAN MARJORIE KINDIG

ETHEL KREIGER DESSIE LEATHERMAN O. S. MORLOCK ORLIN NETTLETON

BUTTO RELEASED AND REARRESTED

Sam Butto, who shot down Dominico Cacciola in Wadsworth two weeks ago and was subsequently lodged in jail on the charge of shooting with intent to maim, was released last Friday afternoon on a bond of $1,000 signed by Sam Arrego, who was with Butto when the crime was committed. The latter at once returned to his work in Wadsworth. Arrego was also required to give bond in $300 for his appearance as a witness when Butto comes to trial.

Cacciola will recover. His condition is improving rapidly and while a bullet still remains in his back, the danger of infection is now said to be remote. He has suffered intense pain ever since he was shot and it was feared at the start that paralysis of one of his limbs might result.

Tuesday night of this week the bondsmen withdrew their bond and Butto was again placed in jail, but not without considerable difficulty. Sheriff Gehman and Deputy Pelton went to Wadsworth and with Marshal Lucas of that village visited the Arrego house, where Butto boarded. He was there and assured the officers that he would go back peaceably as soon as he changed his clothes. Shortly afterward Deputy Pelton observed Butto passing hurriedly out of the back door. The officers started in pursuit. Butto fled south of the house into a deep rully which was thickly covered with brush and second-growth timber and served to protect him part of the time from his pursuers. As the latter widened their circle Deputy Pelton saw Butto emerge on the opposite side of the ravine and enter a house. Butto was found by Sheriff Gehman concealed under a bed in the chamber of the house. He fought desperately to escape, but was finally subdued and brought back to jail.

Since his reincarnation Butto has refused to eat anything and has groaned and yelled incessantly to the distraction of the Sheriff's family, court house officials and employees and neighbors for a block on either side of the jail. Thursday morning Doctors Strong and Robinson made a thorough examination of Butto to ascertain if there really was anything the matter with him mentally or physically. They pronounced him normal. It has been suggested that a generous application of the "water cure" might have a very quieting effect upon eloquent Samuel.

—Reverend Frederick W. Hass will hold a special missionary service at Chatham next Sunday afternoon. This will be an interdenominational gathering, as Reverend Hass comes as the county superintendent of missions, to which office he was elected at the last county Sunday school convention.

BIG TIME HERE ON JULY 4TH

Make up your minds to enjoy one of the biggest times of your life in Medina July 4. The pleasures which will be provided by the Medina Business Men's club for the entertainment of the public on that date will come thick and fast. There will be no evening demonstration, but all of the many amusements will be crowded into the hours between 10 a. m., and late afternoon. Following is a list of the attractions:

There will be two ball games, one at 10 a. m., and the other at 4 p. m., between Rickard's "all star" team of Medina and the famous Calvary team of Cleveland. The horse races will begin at 1 p. m. Leroy & Paul, comedy triple and horizontal bar act; Me and Oh My, comedy, novelty revolving ladder act; Silas & Mandy, comedy on the bouncing hay wagon; Three Orleffs, sensational trapeze act; Marvin, the Speed King, sensational novelty motorcycle act; Gilbert Sarvoy, the giddy old maid; Anthrup, acrobatic dogs; The Twirling Tabluts, rings and trapeze artists; an impersonator of Chas. Chaplin, the funny man; Buck Bailey, Wild West riding act, consisting of three performers and three horses; Buck will ride any horse brought to him.

LODI LAD DROWNED IN BLACK RIVER

Henry Willey, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Willey of Lodi, was found drowned in about six feet of water in Black river last week Thursday evening. The boy had been missing since noon and in the search for him his hat and shoes were found on the river bank, indicating the spot where his body was discovered later. He had evidently been playing on a raft with some companions and when left alone undoubtedly fell from the raft and was drowned. The body was found about 7 o'clock in the evening. Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon.

BAND CONCERT PROGRAM

The following program will be given by the Medina Band on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock standard time, unless prevented by inclement weather. March—The Victorious First Fillmore Loscy Arr. by Atherton Simple Ave Forest Whispers (Morceau Characteristic) Loscy Pierson Dvorak Briquet Overture—Orion Simple Ave Forest Whispers (Morceau Characteristic) Loscy Pierson Dvorak Briquet March—Panama Exposition Humoresque Waltz—Adele March—Selected Star Spangled Banner

ARRESTED FOR BOOZING

Marshal Gates was summoned to the home of Wm. Ritter, near the corner of South Elmwood and Smith Road, about 12 o'clock Wednesday night to arrest James Battles, who Ritter said was making a desperate attempt to break into the house. Battles was drunk and was taken to the lock-up. Thursday morning Mayor Randall imposed a fine of $5 and costs and a suspended sentence of 30 days in the workhouse. Unable to raise the amount of the fine and costs, $3.75 in all, Battles was taken back to the lock-up. Battles, since he left Medina several months ago, has been working in Cleveland. Wednesday before leaving the city he telephoned his former wife, from whom he is divorced, that he had both legs broken and was about to be brought to Medina. As Battles is under a court order to pay the woman alimony, she at once notified her attorney, Arthur Van Epp, who was on hand in Mayor's court when Battles was brought in, but there was no more alimony in sight than there was fine and costs. The only trouble with Battle's legs was that they were somewhat wobbly from surplus booze.

—The program committee for the county convention has secured Dr. G. R. Monte of Granger to serve as toastmaster at the Y. M. C. A. banquet to be held at the Disciple church in Medina Tuesday evening, at six o'clock central standard time.

RUNAWAY ON SOUTH COURT STREET

Misses Elsie Bennett and Lucile Miller probably will never have a narrower escape from death or serious injury than they had last Friday afternoon when the Miller ponies which the young ladies were driving ran away on South Court street, the latter being thrown violently to the pavement as a wheel of their vehicle collided with a wagon on the east side of the street, in front of Tuttle's drug store. While both girls were bruised somewhat and badly frightened, they were able to walk away from the scene unaided, the Miller girl to her home and the Bennett girl to the office of Dr. Gleason across the street, where it was found that she had sustained very painful though not serious bruises on one of her shoulders and limbs. The ponies became frightened on Main street and made a mad dash down South Court street, which was lined with vehicles on both sides. The ponies stumbled and fell a couple of rods south of where the collision occurred and were caught and led home. The carriage was smashed.

—A delegation of local Odd Fellows will attend the annual memorial service of Wadsworth Odd Fellows next Sunday.

GENEVIEVE NICHOLS E. B. PIERCE MILDRED PETTIT JEANNE RICKERT

HAZEL F. ROBERTS RHEA M. ROUNDS DORIS SEARLES J. A. SEYMOU R

RALPH W. STUART NELLIE STROUPE JAMES THAYER E. H. TINSTMAN

ue and surroundings at night was painted by Miss Florence Leach. The scene was remarkably realistic and is concrete evidence of Miss Leach's unusual skill and ability as an artist.

"The Melting Pot" will be repeated at the Princess next Tuesday evening to accommodate the many who were unable to get seats at the performance last Tuesday night.

Graduating exercises took place last evening at the Congregational church, the program of which was published in our last issue. The class address was made by Dr. Henry Churchill King, of Oberlin college.

The Sentinel takes pleasure in presenting its readers with a picture of each of the 54 graduates. To do so requires a very great encroachment upon our space, but we believe a very large number of friends will appreciate our doing it, while those who are at a distance and unacquainted with the graduates will bear with us if once a year we devote more than ordinary attention to the ambitious young folk of our own town.

Graduating class of 1915, accept the hearty congratulations and best wishes of the Medina Sentinel.

JUNE SCANLAN EDITH SHEPARD ORENE A. SHERMAN LOUISE STARR

HELEN E. TUBBS J. H. WARNER NANCY WATTERS A. D. WHIPPLE

RALPH C. WATERS GLENN D. WEISZ E. EMILY CLARK