—Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tuttle was taken suddenly ill one day this week and for several hours it was thought that the doctors would be unable to save his life.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Spitzer and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Longacre chaperoned a party of boys and girls at a picnic supper and dance at Chippewa Lake Wednesday evening.

—Ruth, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods, fell on the stone pave Tuesday of this week, injuring her hip in such a manner that she was unable to walk for several days.

—Rev. Hass is expecting his two sisters, Misses Emily and Magdalena Hass, for a visit of several weeks, beginning next Saturday. The young ladies are both from Albany, N. Y., where they have been in state employ.

—Mrs. Ida Adeline Waite died at the home of T. C. Woodard, in Akron, last Friday, July 2, at 1 a. m., aged 80 years and 18 days. The cause was cerebral hemorrhage. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon July 3.

—Mr. Lewis Walbon met his brother, George unexpectedly, while in Cleveland one day this week. Mr. Walbon had not seen his brother for five years and had thought him to be in Pittsburg.

—Rev. Hass will preach at Poe next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock eastern time, upon the topic: "The Prayer of Jesus for a Holy Church." Last Sunday the attendance was exactly the same as for the corresponding Sunday last year.

—Rails are being laid along the C. S. & C. tracks on West Liberty street, which mean some time this summer—or next—work will be begun on tearing out the old rails and fixing the pave, both of which have been badly needed for some time.

—M. F. Bailey of Lester, county clerk elect, was in town yesterday. While here Mr. Bailey said he was laboring under difficulties, being constantly sought by Progressive applicants for his vote on the new liquor commissioners, who will be appointed this fall.

—While driving an auto south of town Monday forenoon, Harold Berger and two other occupants narrowly escaped serious injury when a tire burst and the machine skidded into a hollow at the side of the road. The auto was broken, but not so badly that the boys were unable to run it back to town.

—In an article contained in our last issue under the caption "New Liquor Law Creates Interest," we stated that the two license commissioners would be appointed upon the recommendation of the new county clerk the present president of the county commissioner and the present county recorder. We were in error as regards the recorder.

—Receipts at the local postoffice for the fiscal year ending June 30, of the present year were $2216.15. For the same period last year, $20813.62. Postal savings respectively for the above periods, $2321 and $3941. Domestic money orders issued amounted to $53262.44 and the international orders issued amounted to $2076.05.

—It being the recorder-elect, Mr. Bailey, who will be one of the three members from this county, making three Democratic votes from this county, three from Ashland and three Republican votes from Lorain. The men will meet Sept. 5, at Lorain to appoint the two commissioners and their clerk for the district comprising the above mentioned counties.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Brought, recently of Idaho, moved into their home on West Lafayette road, Monday. The following were guests at dinner: Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Brought of Weymouth Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Brought of Medina Center, Mr. and Mrs. John Beck, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gage and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bowman and daughter, Mr. Fred Bohley.

—The Medina County Ministerial Association will meet next Monday forenoon at Chippewa Lake for its regular bi-monthly session. Rev. C. Searles will address the gathering upon the theme, "The Kind of Preaching Which the Church Needs." The families of the ministers are expected to be present and each preacher will bring along a picnic basket—presumably with a yellow-legged chicken all carefully prepared.

—Local Magyars held a big bazaar and wholesale jollification Monday on the ground just east of the foundry, upon which they were given permission to assemble. The purpose of the bazaar was to raise money to send to their suffering countrymen across the sea. It was a very laudable purpose and we understand the bazaar was well patronized and a reasonably orderly gathering, save for the momentary effervescence of one, who, early in the morning let drive a charge of buck shot through a window of Ben Water's house.

—Mr. C. O. Davenport and J. R. Lampson took the Case examination of the Fifth Division of Railway Mail Service last Wednesday morning, under Chief Clerk G. W. Pepper of Cleveland. Number of cards handled by Davenport was 1100; receiving 100 per cent for correct placing. The number of cards handled by Lampson was 900; he receiving 99.78 per cent, missing but two cards of the number.

—A mother skunk and six little ones braved the glamour of South Court street one evening last week and caused considerable anxiety to the residents in the immediate vicinity who observed the little brood slyly making their way across the street and straightway under a porch. Soon the fight was on and three infant pole cats bit the dust. Later the mother was discovered in the cellar and she, too, answered the clear call. It is possible that Harold Zigler may be able to shed some light as to where the clothes were buried.

—While crossing the street near the inter-urban station, Cleveland, to take a car for Medina, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Zoe Boulit had a very narrow escape from serious injury, if not death. A car which she did not observe, in passing her caught her hand bag and wrenched her with such violence that had she not been rescued by a man who chanced to see her predicament, she would have been dragged underneath the wheels. The experience was a severe shock to Mrs. Boulit.
