W. C. T. U. NEWS

The 44th annual convention of the Ohio W. C. T. U. was held in Springfield, O., Oct. 24-26, at Memorial hall, a fine new building seating 3000 people; 670 delegates were in attendance.

"America and Her Problems," was the subject Mrs. Florence D. Richards took for her annual address, as state president. "There is no grander spectacle than that of 110,000,000 people gathered together into one loyal nation, pledged to the support of its principles of democracy, and working conscientiously with their hands, hearts and souls, to build a nation upon the foundation stones of Liberty, Justice and Equality. We hear the keynote of humanity rising clear and high above the thunder of the world war—that is the note of the Cross. We want to beat the Kaiser, but cannot do it until we have beaten beer."

Thirty-three crusaders of the temperance movement were given seats upon the stage, and a special service held for their benefit. In contrast to this service was the "little white ribbons" service, when 15 little tots were dedicated to the cause.

A diamond medal contest was held, which cleared $86.50. The delegates made a journey to Ferncliff cemetery, to pay their respects to "Mother Stewart," one of the crusaders, and founder of the W. C. T. U. in Ohio. Two lovely lace shawls were shown, which were given her by Lady Henry Somerset of England, vice-president of the world's W. C. T. U. at that time. Also a large linen table cloth, in two colors, woven especially for her, by the Irish people. The design in the center illustrated the treaty with William Penn, showing the four characters, with crossed flags above their heads, and the American eagle in the space between them.

Miss Sadie Lea Weidner, a missionary to Japan, said: "The glories and beauties of Japan are true, but it has been the liquor traffic that has caused licensed prostitution. The deadly drink in Japan is the sake made from distilled rice, and the drink habit is rapidly increasing."

"If this old Buckeye State goes dry on Nov. 6, as I believe it will, there will be the same consternation in the camp of the wets that there would be in Germany if word went forth that America and her allies had captured Berlin," said Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, of Georgia. "The drink traffic is menaging our economic life. The brewers are using as much grain as would bake 11,000,000 loaves of bread every day. The world conditions are enough to appall the stoutest heart. The jaws of the submarine are always open, and are swallowing ships twice as fast as they are being built; and if we are unable to send the usual amount of food to our allies, the collapse of civilization is near. There is no coal famine in breweries. Any man knowing coal conditions, and that the breweries get all they need, if he votes "wet," and then dies of pneumonia, or freezes to death, gets what he deserves. Whenever there is a riot, statistics show that saloons are the first places to be closed. This is a world riot, and the saloons should be closed."

Mrs. Ella Boole, vice-president National W. C. T. U. gave a splendid address. She deplored the fact that so many of the men who are in the liquor business are too good for that kind of work, and she had told many of them so, and that this was a splendid time, now, when the world is calling for men in every vocation, to find some other employment.

Mrs. E. L. Calkins, president Michigan W. C. T. U., said, "This is the coldest-blooded campaign I ever saw, and if your people don't rouse up, your state will go wet."

Hon James A. White, campaign manager Ohio Dry Federation, has mortgaged his home to the limit, and turned his insurance policies to the bank, to get all he could to give to the state Dry Federation. He said "Any organization that does anything to hinder our victory, in any way, in this world war, is traitor to our country, and the liquor traffic is hindering the progress of the war. More than one of our boys have said, as they bade us good-byes, we'll take care of the Kaiser—you make Ohio dry for us. We are spending more money on the back door product of the saloon, than for the education of our boys and girls. Remember, the victory may depend on you."

Sam Small gave an address in his characteristic way. "We all like to think that we are Americans—that we came from the Anglo-Saxons, but many of us didn't come from that race any more than we did from angle worms. However, we are all engaged in this great war, and other countries are looking to our banner for relief and rescue. God has a great purpose—we cannot see it, but He will work it out. We must be sober, sane, God-fearing and obeying, if we expect to hold our moral standard; and God expects us all to do our part, here, now, right where we are. On election day 'leg patriotism is what we need. The slogan of the liquor people is 'No religion, no politics, no fraternalism.' The saloons pay license fees of $6,000,000 per year, in Ohio. It takes from the state every year $110,000,000 to buy its products. It is a conservative estimate that for every dollar paid by the saloon in taxes, the crime and poverty caused thereby costs the state $40; forty times $6,000,000 shows what the state actually loses. Does it pay, as a good business investment?"

It was decided that an open letter be sent to all the unions in Ohio to solicit funds for the ambulance which will be sent to France the first of the year by the Ohio organization. It is to cost about $5,000.

A resolution was passed that every hour, beginning at 5:30 on election day, all bells be rung, to remind people to vote, and every one to send up a prayer for "Ohio dry."

There was a grand parade when 500 women went to the saloon district. Some of the saloon keepers took off their hats, some sneered and laughed in the women's faces, others did not appear at all. One poor old man said, while tears were running down his cheeks, "I've spent four complete fortunes in drink."

OBITUARY Lewis Milo Hawk, son of Daniel and Katharine Hawk, was born August 2, 1874, and died after an illness of four weeks, on the 3rd day of Oct. 1917, aged 43 years, 2 months and 1 day. He was married to Della Brumbaugh by the Rev. E. P. Herbruck at Canton, Ohio, Oct. 5, 1902. They established their new home at Kent and remained there for eight years, after which they removed to Wadsworth, which has been their home for the past seven years. This union was blessed with three children, Chester Lewis, Marian Katherine and Ruth Burdella, who together with their grief-stricken mother, survive to mourn the loss of a very affectionate and loving father and husband. Besides these there are also left the father and mother, Daniel and Katharine Hawk, of Akron, four brothers, Adam, Grant, Clyde and Fred also of Akron and near Tallmadge, and three sisters, Bertha Isenhardt and Grace Hawk of Akron and one sister residing at Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Hawk was baptized in infancy and as a young man confirmed in the Grace Reformed church, Akron. He was buried from his late home on the Seville Road last Saturday afternoon at 12:30 with further services in the East Market street Reformed church, Rev. W. S. Shelly having charge of the services and assisted by the Rev. G. W. Good pastor of the Reformed church at Akron. Burial was made at the East Akron cemetery. And so there passed away from the neighborhood, an unusually dependable, helpful neighbor, and from the family a very thoughtful, loving and tireless toiling father and husband and from his wide circle of friends a staunch, tried and true, devoted comrade.

OBITUARY Elmer J. Leatherman, son of Rev. Martin and Mrs. Susannah Leatherman was born in Wadsworth township, July 6, 1865, and departed this life Oct. 18 at his late residence and home near Wadsworth, after a sickness of four weeks, death being due to pneumonia. His age was 52 years, 3 months and 12 days.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah Leatherman and four children, Ella, Leah, George and Milo; also three brothers and two sisters, Alfred of Wadsworth, Elias of Akron, Mrs. Melinda Keagle of Michigan, Levi and Miss Mary Leatherman of Wadsworth.

These, together with a host of friends and neighbors, mourn his departure. He was preceded to the great beyond by one sister, Mrs. Sarah Stevenson.

In 1892 he united with the Mennonite church, being a faithful member and ever consistent worker until his death.

Funeral services were held from the Bethel church Saturday afternoon, Oct. 20, conducted by Bishop, Ira Buch walter of Dayton, Ohio, and burial was made in the Mennonite cemetery.

OBITUARY Jacob B. Friedt, born in Montgomery county, Pa., Nov. 6, 1831, was the son of Joseph and Mary Friedt, the fourth of thirteen children. He departed this life at his home near Wadsworth, O., Oct. 14, 1917, aged 85 years, 11 months and 8 days.

He married Miss Elizabeth Yoder in the year of 1856. Their entire life was spent in the vicinity of Wadsworth.

To this union were born five daughters and one son. One daughter died in infancy, the remaining five grew up to manhood and womanhood, were married and established homes of their own. They are Mrs. Amanda Heller, Akron; Mrs. Mary Heller, Barberton; Mrs. Sarah Nixon, Medina; Mrs. Elvina Shelly, Wadsworth; David Friedt, Sharon.

These, together with his aged wife, thirty grandchildren, forty-six great-grandchildren, one brother, Michael Friedt of Wadsworth, one sister, Mrs. Susan Deuker, Medina, besides a host of other relatives and friends are left to mourn his departure.

He became a member of the Mennonite church at Guilford township in an early age and was a consistent, faithful member of this communion until death. During the last few years of his life he fully realized that his earthly existence was nearly spent. Faith in his Maker gave him strength to meet his God cheerfully and hopefully.

He was a kind, loving father, and a friend to all who came in touch with him. He could always give a passage of scripture that would apply to trouble or sorrow of those who would go to him, never tiring of doing something good.

Funeral services were held from the Mennonite church, Guilford, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 17, at one o'clock conducted by Rev. Norman Lind of that church. The remains were interred in the Mennonite cemetery.

REDUCE EGG LOSSES If farmers would realize that the annual value of the country's egg crop is equal to the average value of its annual wheat crop—approximately $600,000,000—and that nearly 8 per cent of the eggs marketed are lost through spoilage or breakage, the industry undoubtedly would be put on a more businesslike basis, says a Farmers' Bulletin of the United States Department of Agriculture, recently reprinted. Improper handling between the farm and the market, the bulletin declares, is responsible for a large part of the loss. This loss, it is suggested, could be greatly decreased if farmers would cooperate more generally and market their eggs through community egg circles. These organizations take care of the frequent collection and the proper packing and marketing of the eggs of members, attend to accounting and making collections, establish standards, encourage the raising of better breeds of poultry, the use of improved methods, and the production of infertile eggs.

The bulletin tells farmers how to go about the formation of a community egg circle and prints a suggested constitution and by-laws for such an organization. Copies of the bulletin may be had free, as long as the supply lasts by application to the United States Department of Agriculture.

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY Medina People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers Medina testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Medina who suffer from bad backs, and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt this evidence of merit, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Medina people who again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills—confirm their former testimony. Here is a Medina case: E. W. Beedle, blacksmith, S. Broadway, Medina, says: "For nearly ten years, I was troubled with my kidneys. My kidneys were too frequent and I had to get up several times during the night. The kidney secretions were highly colored and painful in passage. My back was lame and sharp pains often caught me across my loins. Sometimes I could hardly straighten up after stooping. Some time ago, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me good relief. I can now rest better nights, my kidneys are regulated and the lameness in my back is much relieved." (Statement given March 29, 1913.)

KEEPS DOAN'S ON HAND On January 24, 1917, Mr. Beedle said: "I always keep a box of Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and take them when I need them. They keep my back and kidneys strong." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Beedle has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., The Medina Telephone Co.
