

BRUNSWICK

Remember the Senior class play for March 18 and 19. On account of so much sickness among the scholars they have had trouble in practicing. George Wyman, one of the Senior class, is out of school with inflammatory rheumatism. The next Grange meeting will be held on the regular evening, Mar. 15. Mrs. Raymond Judson of York visited her mother, Mrs. Amos Horton, last week. Mrs. Horton is gradually growing weaker, tho without pain. Edgar Benjamin and wife and Archie Benjamin and wife spent Sunday in Cleveland at Clayton Benjamin's. Miss Decker of Medina spent Sunday here with Vida Erhart. Henry Barton has bought a tract of land in Tuscarawas county, which has a coal mine on it. Mr. Fritz and children of Cleveland spent Sunday here at his father's and brother's. Mrs. Chris. Graff was taken sick one day last week, which at first was thought to be a slight stroke, but she is better now. Mrs. A. P. Gibbs was in Cleveland over Sunday at her daughter, Mrs. May Alden's. Earl Gibbs was home for a few days sick with tonsillitis. Mrs. M. J. Hawkins was at Chip-pewa Lake last week helping care for the sick at her cousin's, Mrs. Cotner's. Mrs. Arthur Jones is in Seville with her mother, Mrs. Lydia Frazier, who has been sick, and also to attend the funeral of the lady who had been living in the same house with Mrs. Frazier. Mrs. Mina Kellar Brown of Detroit is at her parents' for a short time. Charles Leinseder and Charles Bolton made several trips to Fairview hospital the past two weeks, the former to see his cousin, Clarice Frank, and Mr. Bolton to see his wife. Both the patients are getting along nicely. Rev. Kinsley's son, Alva and family have moved from Detroit to Cleveland. Lee Kinsley, wife and daughter, of Cleveland, came down Sunday evening and brought Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thurston, as Mr. Thurston spoke in the evening at the convention. Little Bessie Kellar has been sick and was threatened with pneumonia. The McCords gave a fine entertainment last Friday evening. They are truly actors. There will be no school here on Friday as the scholars will attend the Educational rally in Medina. Mary Stearns was in Cleveland last week to attend the funeral of her cousin Mrs. Lovejoy, whom she had stayed with a few weeks before. Mrs. Della Hitchcock of Ashland also went with her and they stopped over night here on her way home. Mrs. Forrest Tibbitts is not as well as when she first came back from the hospital, as she is now confined to her bed. Ernest Tibbitts was setting up an evaporator and got a finger caught, which was split open over half the length.

PAWNEE

Ellsworth Breyley's children who have been having the whooping cough for about two months are now able to be out again. I. J. Betz's sale will be held on March 17, beginning at 10 o'clock. There are a good many articles to be sold and nearly all are in good condition. The pie social at Prospect hall last week was a grand success. There was a good crowd present and they made a little over thirty-three dollars out of the pies. They are now working on a play which is to be given in the near future. The next regular meeting of the Community club will be held Tuesday, April 5. Vinton Hien spent Sunday with his friend, Clyde Fuller. A stockholders meeting of The Pawnee Farmers' Equity Exchange Elevator was held last week. They re-elected Harry Sanders to run the elevator for the following year. The Kessler family have taken possession of the farm where Jacob Nolt lived. Robert Markle's sale was well attended and the goods sold fairly well. The Markle family expect to leave soon. Joseph Sanders and Dow McVicker attended the basketball tournament between several of the surrounding high schools at Ashland Saturday. They say "the games were good and all had a very fine time." Elmer Sanders made a business trip to Wooster Monday.
