

LOCALS

—More than 30 members of the Medina Kiwanis club drove to Akron Tuesday evening to attend an inter-city meet of Kiwanis clubs from 13 northeastern Ohio cities. More than 500 Kiwanians attended the banquet and meeting, which was held at Good-year hall. The chief speaker was Dr. Arthur Walwyn Evans of Springfield, O., noted Chautauqua lecturer, and who has appeared on the platform in Medina. The cities represented at the meeting Tuesday night besides Medina, were Cleveland, Lakewood, Ravenna, Youngstown, Alliance, Warren, East Liverpool, Dover, New Philadelphia, Canton and Massillon.

—The closing meeting of Clytean club will be held at the home of Mrs. Max Burnham, Monday evening, May 9, with picnic supper at 6:30.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berger on Monday.

—Mrs. C. B. Uley is confined to her home with an attack of mumps.

—The Sentinel last week announced the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Morlock. We have been informed that this was an error, that it should have read Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morlock.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hallock, a son on Thursday of last week.

—Leland Longacre, who recently underwent an operation at Fairview hospital, Cleveland, for appendicitis, had so far recovered as to be brought to his home on Tuesday.

—In its daily gallery of contestants in the beauty contest being conducted by the Cleveland Plain Dealer, the latter carried on Monday a picture of Miss Avadine Kerr of Medina. In justice to Miss Kerr it should be stated that the picture was entered in the contest without her knowledge, and that its appearance to her was a great surprise. Miss Kerr's many friends hope that she may win one of the $5,000 prizes offered by the newspaper.

—Grand and petit jurors will draw $3 a day instead of $2 and will be allowed 9 cents a mile to and from the court house each day while serving on juries as a result of the passage of the Norwood bill.

—Mrs. P. C. Bigelow has been engaged as soloist at the baccalaureate services of the Remsen Corners schools, next Sunday evening.

—The Faithful Workers' class of the Methodist church will hold a bake sale at Averill's market on Saturday, May 7, at 1 p. m.

—H. Jacob Shaffer of Leroy, died Thursday morning of this week at Lodi hospital, at the age of 68 years. Interment will be made at Burbank.

—Courtney Lawrence Post of the American Legion gave $50 to the Sylvester Library this week. This was a most commendable act on the part of the Legion boys, and the library is sorely in need of remembrances of this kind.

—The Loyal Circle will meet Thursday, May 12, with Mrs. F. O. Phillips, East Washington street.

—The case of M. Levy vs. A. Cohen tried in court here Wednesday resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff, Levy, as a member of the Fostoria Pipe Line Co., sued to collect $855 from plaintiff for an excess order of gas pipe sold to defendant, which an agent for defendant is said to have ordered without authority. The jury held that the defendant was liable for the order.

—The Winyah club will entertain with a dinner-dance at Alber's Villa, May 18.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lutz will move into their home adjoining the Baptist church next week and expect to start a rooming and boarding house.

—Thanksgiving Circle will meet on Thursday, May 12, with Mrs. Huber Root.

—The Utilian club will have a May party at Lucille Blakeslee's next Monday night.

—Miss Marcella Fisher is the new stenographer at the Gibbs Motor Co. garage.

—Miss Genevieve Brintnall of Cleveland will spend Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Edith Brintnall.

—Carl Houghton moved his family here from Cleveland and will occupy the rooms over his market.

—Mrs. Edna Loomis will move into rooms at Frank Phillips', on East Washington street next week.

—Robert Tubbs of Western Reserve college entertained college friends from Cleveland at dinner, on Friday, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Tubbs.

—The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church met this week with Mrs. R. L. Clement.

—Mrs. W. R. Koons' class of the L. B. S. of the Congregational church will hold a picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. Earl Thatcher next Wednesday.

—Mrs. Addie Crisick will move this week into the house recently purchased of W. E. Hemmeter, on West Washington street, the Hemmeters having moved this week to their new home on South Court street.

—Mrs. Walter Bibbins entertained the Ludine club Tuesday night.

—Miss Marcella Fisher passed the week-end with friends in Barberton.

—The ladies of the Dinner Card club were entertained Monday evening by Mrs. W. C. Smith.

—In-As-Much circle will have an all-day meeting Thursday, May 12, at the home of Mrs. Elbridge Gibbs, S. Court street.

—Ever Ready circle meets Thursday.

—The Priscilla club meets with Mrs. Will Nichols next Monday night.

—Members of the Willing Workers circle entertained their husbands at Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Musser's, Wadsworth road, Wednesday evening.

—President J. T. Henderson of Oberlin college addressed the pupils of the Medina high school in the chapel Wednesday morning, the title of his subject being "Opportunity." President Henderson has given talks to local high school pupils annually for a number of years.

—Hirst Hilton, 18, and two companions, all of Wadsworth, were arrested the past week on complaint of Hilton's father that the boys had stolen his automobile. Young Hilton was committed to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster some time ago, and is on parole from that institution at the present time. It is probable that he will be returned to it.

—Daniel Mahoney, about 60 years old and with no home, was found in a feeble and needy condition in Sharon on Monday, and he was brought to the county jail by Deputy Sheriff Hange. Mahoney will be placed in the County Home, unless friends or relatives come to his rescue.

—Work of grading the Hinckley road from Weymouth to Johnson's Corners was begun this week. Widening of the bridge on the Cleveland road at Hamilton's Corners will be begun next week. Many accidents have occurred at this crossing at one time or another which have been charged to the narrowness of the bridge. Other road improvements for which equipment is all ready for business, are the Medina-Norwalk road west of Litchfield and the Wooster pike north of Seville.

—The Newton-Livingston Dramatic Co. that began a week's engagement here last Saturday night, has been playing to goodly-sized audiences nightly, despite inclement weather, and the capability of the players and character of the dramas presented have been up to the usual high standard set by Messrs. Newton and Livingston.

—The barn on the farm of Mrs. Frances Shildrick on the State Road was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday night about 7 o'clock, together with all of the contents with the exception of a cow. The barn was in flames when the fire was first discovered, and Mrs. Shildrick states that she has no idea of how it started. She estimates the loss at about $2,000, which is only partially covered by insurance.

—The position of supervisor of music of the Medina public schools has been tendered to Mr. John Beck, who, he informs us, has accepted it, and will enter upon his duties at the beginning of the fall term of school. Mr. Beck has arranged with school authorities to devote but half of his time to the work, which, it is stated, will be adequate for satisfactory results and will enable Mr. Beck to carry on his manifold musical activities in the village. He has already resigned his position as assistant clerk in the postoffice, which position he has held for the past year or two.

—A meeting of women voters will be held at the Sylvester Library next Tuesday evening, May 10, at 7:30 o'clock, to consider the formation of a league of women voters in affiliation with the State League. All interested in forming a local league are urged to be present. It is desired to elect delegates to the state meeting at Columbus on May 13-14.

—A special film show was given at the Princess theater Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Senior class of the high school, entitled, "The Stream of Life." There was a fair attendance.
