

Brunswick

The Farmers' Institute will be held Jan. 2 and 3. Good speakers and good music. Basket dinner with hot coffee. Admission 15 and 10 cents.

A public demonstration of a dress form will be held in the M. E. basement, Friday evening at 7:30. All ladies invited.

Glenn Benjamin was operated upon last Tuesday at Fairview hospital. His condition is very favorable.

Mr. Albert Brown will be janitor at the new school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharrerer of Strongsville visited their daughter, Mrs. Charles Bolton Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hahn and Marie and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and family of Cleveland spent the week-end at Ed. Wilkins', and on Sunday Frank Brant and family ate Christmas dinner with them.

Miss Anna Bryenton left Friday to spend her vacation with her parents in Litchfield.

Christmas cards were received from Florida from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Srp.

Mrs. Walter Harrington has been having a very bad throat.

F. H. Gibbs had a registered cow killed by a hunter one day last week. Little Nellie Peck has been sick.

Earl Brown of Strongsville was a Sunday caller at A. Browns.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and Mrs. Dimick of Elyria spent Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. Charles Gibbs, Mrs. Smith staying until Friday, when Alvin returned with her to spend a few days.

Rev. Sims was sick and unable to preach Sunday.

Herbert Tibbitts died in Los Angeles and his body is being shipped back here.

Where different ones spent Christmas: Mrs. Howkins at her son Franks in Cleveland; Ernest Waite, wife and Marie and Charles Damons, Caddie Clement of Medina at Dr. Woods'; Harry Lincoln's, Ed. Gibbs' and Elbridge Gibbs' of Medina, Harry Vaughn's and Roe Moxley's at F. H. Gibbs'; Clate Benjamin and wife of Cleveland, Archie Benjamin and wife and Clif Benjamin, wife and son, at E. A. Benjamin's; Mr. and Mrs. C. Earl, Mrs. Edna Loomis and son Clifton of Medina, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Smith and Ruth Virginia, Miss Marie Hogue and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ridiker, at Ora Midiker's; Owen Waite and wife, John Wideman and family of Cleveland, Mrs. Casey Brooks and family and Harry Stephaus and family of Elyria, at Archie Benjamin's; Mr. and Mrs. Morton, Paul and Merrill, at Ben Morton's; Mrs. Mary Leinsider, Mr. and Mrs. Manley, Miss Clarice Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leinseder of Elyria and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Keller, at Charles Leinseder's; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hadlock of Medina at Walter Hadlock's; John Moody and wife of Medina and Miss Hazel

Gibbs of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Miner and daughter at Will Gibbs'.

Mrs. Alice Miner with her sister, Mrs. Ella Campbell, in Elyria; Mr. and Mrs. Ethie Wyman at George Clark's; Miss Mildred Indoe, at Will Root's; Richard Fritz and wife and Ed. Fritz and family, at George Fritz's in Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kanagy, in Cleveland at her mother's, Mrs. Spalder's; A. Oehlhoff and family, Ed. Fritz and family, Miss Margaret and Marie Hogue, at Emma Hogue's; Gene Miner and wife, Handy Miner and Helen, at George Coleman's; Mr. and Mrs. John Brasse, Earl and Grandma Newton, Theo. Chapman and family, at Lewis Peck's.

Tom Tibbitts of Wisconsin is visiting at Clair Tibbitts'. He has sold his farm to Theodore Tibbitts.

Miss Stein of Strongsville is visiting Mrs. Maud Evans.

Weymouth

Mr. and Mrs. Monty Kelly of Mallet Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore and Elwin Kelly of Cleveland spent the week-end at Clyde Kenyon's.

Mr. Fretz and family of Akron spent Sunday at D. C. Tompkin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodruff of Medina, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Haight spent Christmas at Paul Williams'.

Mrs. Beatrice Bonavitt of Rising Sun and Miss Ruth Bartholomew of Akron spent Sunday at Mrs. Inez Bartholomew's.

Miss Viva Moffet is spending the holidays with her parents at Mansfield.

O. G. Perrin and family were entertained at Carl Lutz's in Medina Monday.

The following were entertained on Christmas: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Palmer and son of Akron, E. Z. Worden and family, Mrs. Daphne Worden Sophronia Young and Robert Calhoun at D. A. Keslers; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reed and Leatha Scardan of Akron at Charles Scanlan's; John Webber and family, at Jake Huffman's; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Einhart at Frank Haight's in Sharon; Frank Chidsey and family, at Tom Huffman's; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Edwards and Fred Davis and family of Granger, at Will Warner's; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Einhart, Mr. and Mrs. John Einhart, at Jim Crook's; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perkins of Wooster, Miss Ruth French of Lakewood, P. N. Van Epp of Cleveland and M. O. Perkins and family, at Mrs. E. S. Perkins'; Dan White and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Corp, at Chas. Corp's;

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Scanlan and twins spent the week-end at Henry Myer's at Seville.

Frank Garrett, who has been under the doctor's care, is slowly improving. Little Helen Short of Medina is spending the holidays at Frank Chidsey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ganyard and children of Ashtabula are visiting at Jud Greer's.

The friends of Carl Greer were surprised to learn of the announcement of his marriage to a Cleveland girl last Saturday.

The Misses Mary and Sarah Baily of Medina visited a few days last week at F. F. Chidsey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Webber spent Christmas at Clifford Thomas' in Lester.

Miss Ruth French of Lakewood, P. N. Van Epp of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perkins of Wooster, Miss Bessie Perkins, Mrs. E. S. Perkins and Mrs. Mary French, were entertained Sunday afternoon with a Christmas tree at M. A. Perkins'.

A fine Xmas entertainment was rendered by the teachers and scholars last Friday evening at the church, which was filled to its capacity, with its two-hour program. Jim Crooks represented Santa Claus much to the delight of the children, and had the older ones guessing his identity. A Xmas donation was made to our minister, Rev. Caulk. The fine collection of exats he received will last him and his family for some little time. Jay Einhart, our Sunday school superintendent, who has so ably and faithfully performed his duties as superintendent received a fine rocking chair from the Sunday school, for which he wishes to express his sincere thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hamlin and family spent Christmas at Loren Hamlin's.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Huffman of Medina. The bride was formerly Mrs. Mary White of Weymouth.

Miss Vilma Speas and Harry Thomson of Akron spent the week-end at Will Speas'.

Those wishing to subscribe for the Sentinel will please call the correspondent.

Remson Corners

Frank Welton of Wooster spent from Saturday until Monday evening with his brother, Grant Welton and family, and Sunday they all went to York, where they were entertained and ate their Xmas dinner with Mel Foskett and family.

Pete Hanson of Akron spent last Tuesday with his brother, Fred Hanson and family.

Mrs. Alfred Nichols visited her parent, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, in Brunswick several days, recently.

Raymond Hatch has been quite sick with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ganyard entertained Jay Sylvester and family to their Xmas dinner Sunday.

Miss Winifred Chrisman, who is attending school in Berea, is spending her two weeks vacation with her parents, Emmet Chrisman and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Case spent Saturday and Sunday in Akron and ate their Xmas dinner with their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Keitt and husband.

Mrs. Case attended Xmas exercises at the Grace Reform church on Wooster avenue Sunday morning.

The concert given by the Y. M. C. A. band last Friday night was a real treat to everyone present, and the attendance was fairly good considering the busy season.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Rickert spent Xmas with Jim Rickert and family in Windfall and their son returned home with them for a few days.

Adelbert Ruple and wife of Cleveland were entertained at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ruple, Saturday and Sunday and attended the Xmas exercises at the church Xmas eve.

Our mail carrier, John Jason, had quite a wreck last Saturday which happened at the noon hour, where he had his horse hitched in B. C. Kimball's yard, near the house. Suddenly it became frightened and broke loose, ran under a wire clothesline and tore the box completely off the running gears of his mail wagon and ran down the west road without bridle and only part of the harness, and was caught at Frank Reid's. Fortunately no one was hurt, not even the horse, only a badly demolished mail wagon.

All enjoyed the Xmas exercises at the church Saturday night. The orchestra as well as the speaking and the children were very much pleased with their Xmas treat and also their dolls.

Mrs. Mary Beach and children, Catherine and Gordon of Ashtabula, are spending their holiday vacation with Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew spent Xmas with Floyd Smith and family in Bath. Vernon Dean was also one of the guests.

Paul Young, Allen Kuder and John Hanson, who are attending O. S. U. are home for a week's stay with their respective parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Baird entertained the following Xmas day: Fred Hanson, wife and children, Ora Phyllis, Ralph and Helen, also her friend Stanley Cottingham of Sharon, John Hanson and Miss Marjorie Alber, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Anderson and little Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hanson of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunsha of Coddingtonville and Mr. and Mrs. Hodd Dunsha of Stony Hill making 22 in number.

The people of Granger will be interested to know that one of our boys, Paul Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young, has been appointed captain of Co. B, of the University R. O. T. C., and approved by President Thompson.

Richard Kimball, wife and son Ralph of Akron, also Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woodward and little girl of Creston, were entertained at their parents, B. C. Kimball and wife Saturday and Sunday. They also attended the Xmas entertainment at the church Saturday night, both of the children reciting a poem.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hanson of Columbus spent from Friday until Monday with Fred Hanson and family.

Frank Rockwood and wife entertained their children and grandchildren, 22 in number, to their Xmas dinner Sunday.

Dr. Cumberworth and wife entertained the former's nephew, Will Cumberworth of Oberlin, one day last week.

The Farm Bureau and Mother's club will meet Friday night, Jan. 6. Remember Ladies, the school board will furnish the lunch this time.

Harry Kuder is still confined to his bed with rheumatism and improves very slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Spellman had as their guests Xmas day, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan, Sam Albertson, Mary Beach and children of Ashtabula.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Woodward of Creston are making a several days' stay with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Kimball.

Fred Gingery and family are enjoying a new Victrola since Xmas.

Those who went to Cleveland on Tuesday to hear Mr. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, were: John Stoll, Sam Albertson, Sidney Unick, Vern Robinson and Eudoice Haight.

Dr. and Mrs. Salisbury ate their

Xmas dinner with her brother, Clyde Wideman and family in Medina.

Dr. Cumberworth and family spent Xmas day with Mr. and Mrs. George Coddington in Medina.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Davis had as their guests Xmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Edger Wiley of Medina, Mr. and Mrs. Bonner Wiley, Corwin Wiley of Wapakoneta, and Howard Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coddington and son Keith were entertained to their Xmas dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baysinger in Sharon, Monday.

George Graff and family spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Earl French in Ghent.

Several around here have been quite sick with the grip.

Fred Sylvester got his family a new Silvertone victrola as a Xmas present.

Vernon Dean is spending a week in Bath with Mr. and Mrs. Dana Miller and Floyd Smith and family.

Mrs. Nettie Rice spent Monday with her brother, Lynn Worden and family, at E. Granger.

Clair Wheeler went to Akron Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. Nettie Crow, and expects to be gone three or four days.

Clair Wiley and family had as their guests Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Wiley, Merle Pelot, George Pelot and family and Glenn Ganyard and wife.

Carl Mickel and family, also Webster Bolles and Miss Lelia were entertained at Grove Valentine's at E. Granger Monday.

The bridge just east of the Tom Jackson farm has gone down and it is hoped there will soon be a temporary bridge, at least, put in to avoid detouring, as it is almost too far around, making a difference of about three miles.

Miss Beatrice Rockwood and Miss Marian Ruple are spending their holiday vacation of one week with their respective parents.

Frank Harris and wife of Detroit spent Sunday at Byron Simmon's, and on Monday Charles Harris and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris, also Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jagger. Mrs. Jagger remained for a few days with her parents and Frank Harris returned to his home in Detroit Tuesday. His wife, Lucile, will make a several week's stay with her parents, Byron Simmons and wife.

George Case and wife of Medina spent one day last week with Chas. Case and wife.

Mrs. John Stoll and two children went to Cleveland Saturday, where they visited her sister, Mrs. Fran. Brabon and husband, returning Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Coddington ate their Xmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bell in Sharon Monday.

Fred Indoe and family spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. John Indoe, Sr.

Mark Moon and family were entertained Xmas at the home of George Root in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Baird will entertain the following on New Years Clair Wiley and family, Merle Pelot, Glen Ganyard and wife, George Pelot and family, Archie Chapman and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. Baird.

DANGER!

Don't allow your sickness to grow. Every day you let pass without using the correct method to remove the cause of your sickness you just get that much further toward the grave. My specific Chiropractic adjustments will positively remove the cause of your sickness and nature's health producing energies will make you well. See me today.

MARY A. SPICE, D. C.
PALMER SCHOOL GRADUATE

Medina over Abrams Shoe Store every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 8 a. m., to 5 p. m.
Medina Phone 4056 Lester Phone 3W284
Consultation and Analysis Free

We wish you all

a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

and a

PROSPEROUS

HAPPY NEW YEAR

We would like the opportunity of presenting all our customers with a Christmas Present

OATMANS HARDWARE

Medina's Ninth
Golden Rule Sale and
Community Auction
Tuesday, Jan. 3, 1922

Medina will be the city of Bargains on this day, and the Auction promises us a larger variety of articles than ever before. A few items to be sold at auction are:

- |                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| 1 Baby Carriage          | 1 Forge  |
| 1 Sugar bush smoke stack | 6 White Leghorn cockerels  |
| 1 New Bear overcoat      | 1 Thoroughbred Duroc Boar13 month old wgt. 300 lbs.          |
| 1 Spring wagon           | 1 Pair young mulescoming 3 and 4 yearsMaking a good team |
| 1 Rocking chair          | 1 Jersey cow, 5 yrs old  |
| 1 Good Western saddle    | 1 Team horses weighing2200 lbs.                              |
| Blacksmith vise          |  |
| 1 Anvil                  |  |
| 1 Empire Milking machine |  |

Terms: 3 per cent is charged by the club for selling your goods or offering same for sale for you. No by-bidding allowed. If you want your goods sold, bring it and our auctioneer will sell it for you. Attendants on the grounds. Special attention given to stock.

Bring them in -- Somebody wants what you have to sell.