Local and Miscellaneous.

—Mr. Powers is convalescing. —Mr. E. S. Tripp has been very ill in the last week.

—Book shelves sufficient for several hundred volumes, for sale. Inquire of J. A. Daly.

—Mrs. J. H. Hood, who has been an invalid most of the winter, is now convalescing.

—A union temperance meeting will be held in the Town Hall, Friday evening next.

—Some of the Wellington people have been to Oberlin to hear Joseph Cook lecture.

—An obituary notice of the late Mrs. Armenia Herrick will appear in a subsequent issue.

—Easter Sunday was mild and moist, with some sunshine, many sprinklings and light showers.

—Round trip tickets to Cleveland will hereafter be $2.05, instead of $2.15 as we stated last week.

—Miss Josie Briggs reluctantly gave a fortnight of valuable time while in Cleveland, to entertaining the measles.

—The whooping cough was thoroughly spread before many parents knew that there was such a disease in our midst.

—The heifer sold by G. & F. Parsons to Mr. Todd, of Vermillion, was ten months old and not two years as stated in our local.

—There is a perceptible growth of the young wheat blades, the middle of April finding the fields tinted with fresh verdure.

—Mrs. Benham, sister of the late Mrs. Herrick, who died at her house, has been under the doctor's care since that lady's funeral.

—Quarterly meeting services will be held at the M. E. Church next Sabbath. Rev. G. Mather will preach and conduct sacramental services in the evening.

—J. M. Otterbacher will make his residence in the rooms over his harness shop, where he may be found at all hours, by those wishing to see him on business.

—WANTED.—A girl to do general house work. Steady employment and fair wages given to one who is willing to learn, if not already capable. Inquire at this office.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, read reports for the first quarter of this year, at their meeting last week. We had hoped to have the figures for this week's paper.

—Throwing stones and bricks onto the roof of a school house is no doubt a diversion for the boy, but it is not good for the paint or seams, or any of the wearing qualities of the roof.

—Mrs. Lucy Butler, mother of Mrs. H. H. Howk, had a shock of paralysis on Saturday last, by which she has nearly lost the use of one side. She is over 80 years old, and the probabilities are against her recovery.

—Miss Louis Adams, who has been confined to the bed the whole of the last year, and a great sufferer all of that time, has seemed encouragingly better in some respects at times during the spring, but is again falling.

—The ladies of the Congregational Society held their first social festival in the rooms of the new church, last week Wednesday, and found it vastly more convenient and pleasant than any private house for such gatherings.

—Arthur P. Dimock Tuesday morning was leading his horses near Horr & Warner's office, when they became frightened at the cars, jumping on him and dislocating his shoulder. He was attended by Dr. McClarran, and is doing well.

—The American Young Folks, published by J. R. Hudson, Topeka, Kans., at fifty cents a year, is a safe and pure monthly, and contains dialogues, collocations, etc., in addition to other reading matter suitable for use in school exhibitions by boys and girls.

—Now is the time to secure great bargains in the purchase of New Spring Goods at Wm. Rininger's, and at lower prices than can be named in Cleveland. Don't fail to call and examine his stock of goods, if you wish to save money, before making your purchases.

—Wm. Cushman, who has been acting as "filler" in the First National Bank, was promoted April 1st to be assistant cashier. This argues that he has proved himself efficient and trustworthy, and we doubt not the interests of the bank will be subserved by his advancement.

—The semi-annual Sunday School Convention of the 11th District of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society, will be held in the Disciple Church at Wellington, April 23d and 24th. All interested in Sunday School work are invited. Sessions to begin at 10 A. M., Wednesday the 23d.

—Our supervisor makes our streets put on summer airs, by scraping them thoroughly where dry enough. The scraper is worn out, it was not properly constructed when new. The Council should give him a new one instead of expending public money by using a worthless worn-out implement.

—George Gosler discovered something wrong about his coal grate, and upon examination it was found that the setting had been imperfectly done, causing the wood work underneath to take fire, smouldering slowly but surely to a conflagration. It was discovered in time to prevent serious damage.

—S. P. Hastings, Esq., is rustling at his residence on Courtland Avenue, for a few days nursing an incipient case of erysipelas, arising from an ingrowing toe nail. Dr. McClarran extracted a part of the nail, and the patient is improving since the operation. Moral—Do not wear boots too small for your feet.

—Several of those who sent to Oberlin and purchased reserved seats tickets for Cook's lecture, were not quite happy when they found the seats reserved for them were at the extreme end from the speaker, in the gallery, and a poorer selection than they could have made if they had purchased tickets on their arrival; in fact they were the very poorest seats in the house.

—To retain a nervous system prompt and energetic measures should be taken on feeling the first symptoms of rheumatism or neuralgia to cure these diseases (which can be done by Lawson's Curative), otherwise the nerves become shattered and weakened that they are beyond recovery. Price $5.00 and $1.

—Mr. E. Haskell, of Euclid, formerly of Huntington, died of consumption Saturday of last week. He had been spending the winter in Texas, but finding his health falling him, he returned home the early part of last week in company with his wife and Miss Nettie Keys. Funeral services were held on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gannell, Mr. and Mrs. Knowlton, and Gamaliel Herrick, of Cleveland; and Mr. Ingersoll and wife of Elyria, were among the nieces and nephews who came to attend the funeral of Esq. Howk. J. F. Herrick also was present at Miss Herrick's funeral. W. F. Herrick was called home from Mt. Vernon, where he had gone with his wife to visit his invalid father.

—Mr. Wm. McClellan, while feeding his horses a few days ago, dropped his pocket book containing $175.00 into the manger. When he discovered his loss and went to hunt for his money he found only a ten dollar bill; the balance the horse had appropriated for a dainty meal, and it is safe to say no other horse ever dined so expensively. It was a heavy loss for Mr. McClellan.

—A private letter from Albert N. Bliss, of Genoa, DeKalb county, Ills., (formerly of this State) dated April 8th, says: "Genoa has the finest butter factory in the West. It is receiving over 1,000,000 pounds of milk daily. It is furnished with sixteen pans that hold 15,000 pounds of milk each. They run two churns at present. The farmers have commenced doing their spring plowing, but it is rather cool yet for sowing grain."

—South Amherst caught this week to Mrs. Alice Marle, to engage in the military and fancy goods business. She adds to her other accomplishments, skill in the manufacture of hand made lace, also weaving and braiding hair, in both of which she proposes to instruct others. She is every way worthy the confidence and patronage of the public, and we doubt not will be cordially welcomed by the people among whom she makes her home.

—The original Ladies' Missionary Society, of Wellington, was organized A. D. 1846, as a Union Society, all denominations joining and working together for various objects of benevolence in common. In the year 1868 the Congregational ladies withdrew and formed a separate society, and in 1869 the Union organization was disbanded, and the ladies of the M. E. Church continued a society under the old name until 1876, when the name was changed to The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, and a new constitution adopted. At this time there was but one of the original members who still retained her membership, Miss Armenia Herrick, who died last week.

—E. W. Houghton's sugar-house and furniture burned Thursday morning about 2 o'clock. The fire was almost extinguished and everything made safe when left early in the evening, and as there was plenty of sap in the pan, the inference is that those who were there and "sugared off" were culpably careless as firemen. The idea is so prevalent that private property that is not under lock and key can be immediately appropriated. But boys need to know that it is as dishonest to go into a man's sap-bush and boil down syrup, and celebrate by eating, wasting, and destroying another's property in this way, as it is to go into a store at night and carry off, or waste candy or cigars, or any other goods belonging to another. Arrest and prosecution for all such offences would be a positive blessing to the moral health of the community.

—We had occasion a short time since to look through the rooms in Mr. Stroup's new building. We had often admired its beautiful exterior, surpassing everything in Wellington in taste and elegance, but we were not prepared to expect so fine a suit of rooms in the second story. The front windows are of French plate glass and give a fine view of the street, opposite buildings, railroad depot, etc. The finish is in keeping with the exterior, and the rooms together are very desirable for many purposes. Mr. Stroup has rented a store the alley in which to store the furs which he buys very largely, thus giving the whole upper story to the occupancy of any one who may desire to rent them. We mention this fact because a report has gained currency that his rooms were made undesirable by reason of use for storing furs. He will tolerate nothing that can give an unpleasant odor, and the rooms will on no account be objectionable.

Neighborhood News.

A WARNING TO CANDY EATERS.—An Akron boy who had been given to the habit of much eating of candy, died from the cumulative effects of the arsenic in the coloring.

Akron congratulates herself on the number of reformed inebriates who have kept their pledge since the Murphy movement began, two years ago. That city also intends to build a new Tabernacle for the accommodation of its mass meetings of all kinds.

Dairy Matters.

S. Straight & Son, of Hudson, offer to the patrons of factories operated by them, to pay as much for the same quantity of milk as the patrons of ten of the most successful factories operated by the leading Wellington, Ohio, dealers on the system of making and marketing for $1.75 per 100 lbs., and butter at 4 cents per pound exclusive of package in either and both cases, receive net for their milk. A correspondent of the Hudson paper calls it "the newly patented plan of Horr, Warner & Co."

The Murray-Ober Comedy Co.

The Murray-Ober Comedy Company had a very successful week, closing last Saturday evening, playing each night to fair sized and appreciative audiences. They are, without doubt, the best troupe that ever visited Wellington, and have made a good reputation for themselves among our citizens.

Harper's Magazine for May.

The May number of Harper's Magazine is very richly illustrated, containing over one hundred engravings that may confidently challenge comparison. The illustrated subjects offer unusual opportunities for picturesque treatment. At the outset the reader, in "A Peninsular Campaign," is transported to that wonderful region known—though it can scarcely be said to be known at all—"the Eastern Shore," on the Chesapeake Bay. Howard Pyle, who writes the article, also illustrates it with eighteen novel pictures of character and scenery.

A Splendid Offer.

The New York Weekly Tribune will be sent on trial, postage paid, three months for 25 cents. There are some hundreds of thousands of people in this country who are not regular subscribers to the Tribune only because they do not know its merits as a news and family paper. We ought to have a hundred or more names from this place, at this remarkably low rate. It is just the paper you want. Leave your names with the post master or at this office immediately, and they will be promptly forwarded.

THE MARKETS.

Cheese.

New York, April 11th, 1879. The past two or three weeks has probably witnessed the most demoralized markets for cheese ever experienced, prices being even lower than at any time last summer. A few shippers kept in the market and kept it under strict attention. Values have become steady again; the outlook has more of promise. The lateness of the season and the wide determination of factory-owners to delay opening as long as possible in having a good effect on the trade. It is considered that we will have few if any fine new cheese before June 1st, and so as the old stock, which proves quite diminished, must supply the wants until then, better prices are expected.

Cheese—Quotations are nominal now. Fine to Fancy Fall stock 7 1/2 to 8 1/2 cts. Fair to good 5 1/2 to 6 cts. Common 3 to 4 cts. Illinois 4 to 6 cts.

Butter—The market is quiet, but there is a fair movement of stock. Creamery is weak at the moment at 20 to 25 cts. Dairy, fine old 15 to 16 cts. Fair to good 9 to 12 cts. New and fine 19 to 20 cts. Fair to good 13 to 16 cts.

LITTLE FALLS, April 14, 1879. Cheese.—There was not so large an offering of cheese as had been expected, doubtless owing to the very bad state of the roads. Two lots sold at 5 1/2 cts, and two at 6c, nearly all full cream cheese. These prices are sufficient indication that it will be a losing business to manufacture skim cheese.

For the corresponding week last year 2,300 boxes cheese sold at $9.10c.—every day cheese going at $9.10c.

Butter.—The range of prices shows no variation, being 14 1/2 to 16c. No improvement in prices is probable, but there is a sharp competition at present rates, our sales being made up from figures obtained of thirteen different buyers or firms.

Old cheese is now all out of the market, and as new is not yet ready we have nothing to say this week on the subject of prices.

The shipments of cheese for the week ending April 16, are as follows: No. of boxes, 1,511. No lbs, 99,445. Butter for the same time as follows: No. of pkgs, 327. No. of pounds, 19,460.

THE FRIEND OF ALL!

Holloway's Pills!

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one." "Your Pills are marvelous." "I send for another box and keep them in the house in case of another headache that has troubled me." "Holloway's Pills have cured my headache that has troubled me." "I give one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day." "My masses of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of sores in the heel, it may be rubbed into the system so as to reach any internal complaint; by these means it cures sores or ulcers in the throat, stomach, liver, spleen, or other parts. It is an infallible remedy for head butts, but is not contracted or stiff joints, gout, rheumatism and all skin diseases."

For Cutaneous Disorders. And all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not burn externally, and best remedies with the most searching effect to the very root of the evil.

Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for fifty cents. I will send you a bottle of your Ointment, and a box of your Pills, for the same price. I have over two hundred such testimonials as those, but want of space compels me to conclude.
