THE MARKETS
Prices on all grades of cheese declined
1/2 cent; a good supply on hand. In general produce a good supply on hand and prices likely to go lower. Wool remains firm at 25c, but there is very little coming in. Wheat remains the same as last week, but there is very little offered, but prices
are evidently on the decline.

HUNTINGTON.
June 7, 1886.
Dry and dusty—we need a good rain.
A good deal of sickness in town. However, no serious cases are reported.
Mr. George Lashells returned from West last Saturday. His wife is quite sick.

Mrs. Crosby is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geer, at Wellington.
Grandma Elder has come to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Della Holland. She has failed much in the last two or three years. It is hard to make her hear, and she cannot see enough to know her own children. We are glad to have her with us again.
Mrs. Blakely has just heard of the death of her sister, Mrs. Ferris. No particulars.

Charles McKeen, of Terre Haute, Ind., is visiting Will Smith. They spent Sunday in Euclid.
The children of the M. E. Sunday-school are preparing for a concert next Sunday evening, Children's day. Mr. Dawson preaches to the children in the morning. The whole day is given to the children.
The school in the sixth district has been closed, on account of the sickness of the teacher, Mrs. Maggie Hazel. It is now so late that the men want their boys to help them at home; and, as the school is very small, it was thought best to discontinue it. Maggie will bid farewell to her Huntington friends, intending to go to her new home at North Amherst.

This week the pioneers will hold a two days' meeting at the M. E. Church, commencing on Thursday morning, June 10. Mr. James Kellam, who preached on this circuit over fifty years ago, is to preach the first sermon at ten a. m., Thursday. Reminiscence and experience meeting in the afternoon, and preaching in the evening. There will be preaching in the morning, afternoon and evening on Friday, the meeting closing Friday evening. As many of the former pastors of the church as can, will be here, all having been invited who could be reached. The following expect to be present: Revs. Wm. Rannels, M. T. Ward, John Kellam, Uriah Richards and A. J. Pollock. The will give a collation at the church at noon, on Thursday and Friday. Many of the old friends of the church expect to be present, and it will seem like old times to hear these old pioneers tell their experience. Come and hear them.

Card from the Disciple Church.
Once more the Disciple Church in Wellington is without a pastor. In the five or six years that Brother and Sister Moore have labored for and with us, we have had an earnest, faithful preacher, one without the spirit of fear, but of love, and a sound mind, rightly, as we think, dividing the word of truth; one upright and above reproach in all his business transactions. In her we have had an efficient organist and a sympathetic helper in all the work of the church.
It is with sincere regret that we part with them. Our prayer and hope is that, in a wider field than Wellington, their usefulness may increase. We would return them our sincere thanks. We feel assured they have not remained and labored here for the money they have received, but for the good of the cause of Christ in Wellington.

IN BEHALF OF THE CHURCH.
A Card of Thanks.
EDITOR ENTERPRISE:
Please permit me, through the columns of your journal, to express my most sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors, residing both in Wellington and Ogden, Michigan, who so kindly and freely assisted to care for my wife, Mrs. Ida Bacon, during her long illness and subsequent death. For sixteen long months she was so helpless from paralysis that she could neither feed nor dress herself. Twice during her sickness she was carried to Wellington, her old home, hoping a change of scenes and climate, might prove beneficial, and bring the boon of health, so dearly sought, to bless our little home once again.
The fond hopes of loved ones are vanquished; to-day she sleeps beneath the daisies, and those who loved her best, walk through the vale of tears, finding no surcease from sorrow.
Again, let me say to the many friends who sought to aid the suffering one, by comforting words, kindly acts, and financial aid, I thank you one and all; and may the Father of mercy bless you for benefits bestowed in our hour of need.
Respectfully,
OGDEN, Mich. GEO. BACON.
