Hillhouse and family of Lorain, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ketchum and daughter, of New London, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Cowie for a few days. Mrs. Pomeroy, of Norwalk, is visiting Mrs. Zilpha Battle. John Cowie went to Cleveland Monday to purchase lumber for R. Fenner, who will make some improvements on his farm buildings. Bert Beckus will assist Mr. Cowie in the work. Mr. and Mrs. D. Day and daughter Grace visited at E. McClaffin's on Butler road, one day last week. Wm. Gillett, of Wellington, spent part of last week with his brother, E. D. Gillett, of this place. K. Edwards was in East Wellington last week looking for basket timber. He says he will put up 2000 baskets this year. His daughter, Mrs. E. Cox, and husband have returned from Hartland and will assist him. Steve Cowie went to work the 15th for Mr. Miller on the Prosser farm. Miss Abbie Stocking visited her cousin, Mrs. Lilly in New London the past week. Wm. Harwood, of Clarkfield, spent the past week with his sister, Aggie Harwood. Fred Gillett was in Clarkfield Hollow Monday.

SULLIVAN.

The C. E. of the Congregational church will give a social at E. H. Ingraham's Friday evening of this week. A literary and musical entertainment will be given in connection with the social. Don't forget the date March 24. Our school closes Friday afternoon for a week's vacation. Examinations are occupying the attention of the teacher and pupils this week. Ed. Ringler has been very sick with lung fever, but is considered out of danger at this writing. Our sugar makers are joyous over the great yield of sweetness which is their lot this year. The pure maple syrup sells for only 50 cents per gallon in Cleveland. It is the greatest sugar year known for years. Miss Ethel Smith gave a sugar party to her young friends at her home last Thursday night. Geo. Gibson went to Creston, to see little Emma over Sunday. He did not bring her home as expected. John Gibson is home from New London, for a short visit. Mrs. E. A. Gorham, who has been very sick with the grip for several weeks is slightly improved. St. Patrick's day was not forgotten by our school children. "Wearing of the green" was as universally observed here as as though we were natives of the "Emerald Isle". Mrs. G. S. Green passed another milestone in her life's journey, March 19. Her friends did not forget the occasion, although the raging blizzard prevented some from attending. All wished her many happy returns of the day.

BRIGHTON.

The third quarterly meeting of the Brighton circuit will be held at Brighton, April 1 and 2. First service will be held at 2 p. m., on Saturday. Preaching by the Presiding Elder, P. B. Stroup, both Saturday and Sunday. Rev. T. L. McConnell went to New London last Tuesday night to preach. At the republican caucus last Tuesday evening the following ticket was nominated: Trustee, Earl Griggs. Treasurer, C. Stocking. Assessor, L. W. Hart. Justice of the Peace, F. Brown. A citizen's caucus was held on Wednesday night and the following nominations were made: Trustee, Chas. Allyn. Treasurer, C. A. Hardy. Assessor, L. W. Hart. Justice of the Peace, C. E. Fox. Mr. and Mrs. Jess McDonald returned from Florida last Wednesday, where they have been spending the winter. Miss Laura Hankins spent last week visiting friends in Spencer. Arthur Everson has been entertaining his nephews. A. N. Gill and family have moved to the farm which they have recently purchased, and Earl Cole will act as village blacksmith. Ray Grady spent a few days in Creston last week visiting his cousin. The sewer also was given by the school last Friday night well patronized, and the children were a credit to the school. Much praise is due Mr. and Mrs. Miller for the careful training the children have had. The Ladies' society have placed a fine Epworth organ in the Methodist church. It is pronounced a beauty by all that have seen it, and it is just as good as it looks. The organ has been removed to the school house where it will continue to do duty. Shirley and Joe Gill and Henry Greene are down with the measles. R. Hanks, of Massillon, visited his cousin, Rev. T. L. McConnell, last week. Miss Jennie Grundy, of Creston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. O. Brown and other friends here. Mrs. Sarah Beach of Wellington, visited at Mr. Goss's last week. Brighton Grange, at its last meeting, discussed the subject of book-keeping for farmers, with much interest. The subject for the next meeting is, "The best type of dairy cow for this locality." There is no school at the center this week on account of the measles. Mrs. James Garrett, who has been visiting her daughter in Wadena, Minn., this winter, returned as far as Elyria where she stopped to visit friends a few days.

LAGRANGE.

A. E. Butler was in Cleveland Thursday. Uriah Crow, of Litchfield, was in town Saturday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Knowles, March 14, a son. Born, March 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Biggs, a son. Born, March 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Johnston, an eight-pound daughter. Mrs. Ralph Hart and Mrs. E. A. Williams were the guests of Mrs. Lucy Underhill, of Wellington, Thursday. Mrs. Sarah Fell, of Columbus, visited La Grange friends the past week. A. S. Ingalls, superintendent of the Big Four Ry., was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard A. Wilcox, on Church street. Mr. and Mrs. John Wilcox and child, at Elyria, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Kibb. Mrs. Sophronia Curtis, of Elyria, is visiting in town. Mrs. Jane Stroup is the guest of Elyria friends. Mrs. Chester Crow and two children, of French Creek, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hattie Wheeler. Clyde Wilcox, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilcox of Church street, was in Columbus, March 14 and 15, taking law examination. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he ranked among the foremost of the class, and was admitted to the bar. Clyde is one of our most popular young men. He will graduate from Baldwin University the coming June, after which he will practice law with a prominent Cleveland firm. That his efforts may be crowned with success is the wish of the writer.

Obituary of Margaret Handyside.

Margaret Handyside was born in Litchfield, Medina county, September 17, 1845, and died in LaGrange, March 8, 1899. On the 10th of December, 1868, she was married to Egbert Holcomb. One daughter and one son crowned their wedded life.

She was converted and united with the Methodist church at LaGrange in the winter of 1864, and her life thenceforward was marked by great simplicity of faith, godliness of spirit and earnestness of purpose. In the sequestered retreat of home she made the family hearthstone a sanctuary shrine, where she illustrated the beauty of faith, the strength of patience and the evidence of fortitude seldom equaled. Firm as a pyramid, free from cant, standing foursquare to every wind that blows, yet she so commingled gentleness and modesty with strength and stability, that like the violet, she loved the shade. Slightly sentimentally disgusted her. She was given to reflection, logically matured her opinions and held them with the gentleness of the sun's shining, but as steadfastly as the grasp of gravitation. Withal she was tolerant of the honest opinions of others. There is a stone many tons in weight, so firmly placed that an army of men can not hurt it from its base, yet so nicely poised that it will tremble at the touch of a child's hand. It is the emblem of her character. She published her religion only as the sun advertises light by shining silently. True to her ideal she was recognized as a christian wife and mother, and I am sure that those who knew her will remember her as their friend and neighbor, for she was both in the fullest sense of the term. Nor was ever human heart ever more fragrant with appreciation than hers. She literally in mind and heart, lived and moved and had her being in her faithful companion and children, and all the heavenly constellation for her, rose and set in them. The whole community were mourners at her death, for her tender hands and loving deeds had cheered their homes in sickness and in sorrow.—The layman in that bright and glorious home where pure and infading joys have birth; and though our hearts are sad and lone, we would not call her back to earth." The funeral services were held from the home on Friday at 10 o'clock, and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. M. W. Beece, who made very comforting remarks from the text found in 1 Cor. 15: 57. Many beautiful flowers were placed by loving hands upon the casket, and in the east cemetery she calmly sleeps until the day break and the shadows flee away.

PITTSFIELD.

Mrs. Alton Pitts fell about two weeks ago, injuring herself severely. She has not been able to be around since. The entertainment, "Bise-Bun Gem-Nite" given by the Epworth League at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gillett, on St. Patrick's Day in the evening, was not very well attended on account of bad roads. There will be a sugar social Friday evening of this week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Avery, under the auspices of the M. E. Society. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Mrs. E. W. Pitts, of Wellington, spent last week at her son Alton's, helping to care for his wife. Miss Anna Friend returned from Cleveland last Wednesday, where she had been the guest of friends. Mr. and Mrs. John Merriam and Chloe Merriam spent last Wednesday in Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. John Perry began house-keeping last Thursday. Mrs. Henry Rawson and children, of LaGrange, visited at Wm. Avery's recently. Messrs. Orrin and Clarence Metcalf and their sister, Mrs. Mary Yosker, attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Alvera Metcalf to Mr. F. J. Hill, of Oberlin, last Wednesday evening. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Simon White-side, a daughter. Messrs. E. Arnold, C. S. Sheldon, Jas. Meredith, A. Meredith, F. Meredith and F. Vest attended the E. O. T. M. convention at Elyria, Monday. Messrs. H. McRoberts, F. Root and C. F. Avery were in Elyria, Monday.

ROCHESTER.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hanley were called to Columbus, Saturday, to attend the funeral of a nephew. Mr. W. B. Crandall visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crandall last week. Mr. T. B. Garrison is home for a few days. Mrs. Flora McElroy is home for a two week's visit from Cleveland. Mrs. Charles Ashcraft and little son, Dutton, are visiting friends in Cleveland. Miss Pearl Blair visited friends in Cleveland last week. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chast are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Swartz, in Cleveland.

Is Baby Too Thin?

If so, there must be some trouble with its food. Well babies are plump; only the sick are thin. Are you sure the food is all right? Children can't help but grow; they must grow if their food nourishes them. Perhaps a mistake was made in the past and as a result the digestion is weakened. If that is so, don't give the baby a lot of medicine; just use your every-day common sense and help nature a little, and the way to do it is to add half a teaspoonful of to the baby's food three or four times a day. The gain will begin the very first day you give it. It seems to correct the digestion and gets the baby started right again. If the baby is nursing but does not thrive, then the mother should take the emulsion. It will have a good effect both upon the mother and child. Twenty-five years prove this fact.

Mr. Charles Cowie was in Elyria, Saturday. Mr. A. Williams was in Cleveland, Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Johnson of Elyria called on Mrs. C. Johnson, Wednesday. Miss Sadie Bidinger visited her sister Mrs. Corpening in New London last week. Mr. L. Johnson is delegate of E. O. T. M. convention to be held in Norwalk, Tuesday. Miss Jessie Phelps is home again from Brownhelm for a few days. Mr. Robert Chesnut will occupy C. A. Beardley's house, on West Railroad street, April 1. Mrs. Reynolds has moved into C. A. Beardley's house on East Middle street. Mr. Lewis Mason and Miss Jennie Sheets were in Cleveland, Thursday. Mr. Lewis Johnson, teacher of the Rochester union school, gave his pupils a treat to warm sugar Saturday afternoon. The Baptist society at Mrs. Segar's was well attended last Thursday. A delightful supper was served to seventy-three. Mr. Harry Campbell has purchased half interest in the Johnson mill plant of L. R. Petty of this place. Mr. John Gordon returned home from LaCrosse, Wis., Saturday evening. Mrs. Geo. Williams of Greenview visited Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams of this place one day last week. Mr. Frank Stigter and James Blair left for Cleveland last week to enlist in the U. S. heavy artillery. They were accepted and left for Baltimore, Md., where they will be stationed for a while. Their friends wish them success. The Ladies' Union met at the pleasant home of Mrs. S. Phillip's on South State street, on Saturday afternoon, March 18. There was excellent speaking and good music, well rendered. Prayer was offered by Rev. Lash. A most excellent supper was served and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation. Mrs. Phillips will be remembered as a most charming hostess and good entertainer. All had an enjoyable time.

SPEECE.

Y., is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Lee Grisinger. Mrs. Abigail Walters has bought the Frank Stedman property on West Main street.

BUTLER ROAD.

Fire destroyed the barn on the D. Hoffstatter farm last Wednesday evening. The origin of the fire is not known. Insurance $100. About fifty friends and neighbors surprised A. S. Ketchum and wife in the evening of March 14, it being the 27th anniversary of their marriage. Clarence Bracy and wife were taken unawares on the next evening, the occasion being a birthday celebration. Considerable difficulty was experienced by some of the guests in getting home through the mud. Sugar makers have struck prosperity and are piling up a reserve. The sap filled the pails in one night lately. Who says the brown leghorns lay small eggs? The writer gathered an egg that measured 7x8 1/2 inches in circumference. Come with a bigger one. It was quite a surprise to many of us to see the name of W. W. Ketchum as a democratic nominee for trustee of New London. We supposed he was a Populist. Lyman Vaseoy has secured the nomination for supervisor for district No. 2, North-East New London. The West Rochester correspondent takes this opportunity to say "An Revolt to the many readers of the Enterprise, while we make the last here we can as Preston and daughter, Grace were the guests of Mrs. Geo. Welling in Collins last week Thursday.

Headache for Forty Years.

For forty years I suffered with sick headache. About a year ago, I began using Celery King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headache leaving at once. The headache used to return every seventh day, but thanks to Celery King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know what has cured me will help others.—Mrs. J. D. Van Keuren, Sangerites, N. Y. Celery King for the nerves, stomach, liver, and kidneys is sold in 50c and $1.00 packages by E. W. Adams, Wellington, and Firestone & Sweet, Spencer.
