A Correction.

For The Enterprise: ERRATA.—In the article in last week's issue on the Boers, in transferring the type from the galley, a line was dropped, which somewhat crippled the meaning of the sentence explaining the origin of the word Anglo-Saxon.

The Anglo-Saxons were essentially the "anglers" of fish and game; land game was caught in "sacks", etc.

A reader suggests that the Aryan family started from Persia; but the text is not changed materially as the Anglo-Saxon in all probability first migrated into Thibet and then returned. The llamas of Thibet retain the light, straight hair, full, heavy face and blue eyes of the Teuton, besides still using many words common to all branches of the Aryan family.

The Epworth league, Sunday evening, led by Harvey Auble, was an honor to the rising generation. The topic, "Intemperance," was discussed in all its phases. Strong drink, wine and cider, and everything that would produce intoxication, was condemned.

The lives of unhappy families, where love has been destroyed by strong drink, was plainly demonstrated. The destruction it makes in health, wealth, business, happiness, and all good, in society, church and state, was clearly set forth; and also the power it has in political circles was freely discussed by our young men of the church, and each pledging himself to do all in his power to remove the evil.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others.

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

It will generally correct this difficulty. If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power.

W. & L. E. Thanksgiving rates, Nov. 25th and 30th. Tickets good returning till Dec. 1st inclusive.
