OHIO TALENT.—Our readers will be glad to know of the success of the subject of the following paragraph which we clip from the Cincinnati Commercial, as she is a sister of our fellow-townsmen, S. Bernstein: "Miss Clara Bernstein, of this city, and recently of the Paris Grand Opera, is now singing in Italy with evident success, and would appear from a cable dispatch to her brother here, dated and reading, 'BARI, February 19.—Immense success in 'Carmen' in Muschiera, 'Aria and duo repeated.' The young lady ranks as a soprano prima donna assoluta, with a repertoire of sixteen operas and under contract for the next two months. Miss B. has been the pupil successively of Mme. Marchesi, M. Vaucorbell and Sig. Muzio, and is confidently expected to rejoin her family in Cincinnati the coming summer, when her many friends here will be given an opportunity to judge of her proficiency.

Our subscription list is increasing, notwithstanding we have been compelled to cut off a number of subscribers who were in arrears to such an extent that we could not in justice to ourselves carry them longer. Postmasters should not forget that it is their duty to inform publishers when a paper lays dead in their office. Don't put it to your own use, or you may be compelled to pay for it—in dollars and cents or your official head. Bradley purchased a large bill of damaged goods last week while at Toledo. He also had a bill of coffee damaged to such an extent as to render it entirely useless, while lying in the freight house at Toledo during the flood.

In publishing the real estate transfers a few weeks ago an error was made in a transfer from F. Nischwitz to J. Nischwitz. The transfer should have read: F. Nischwitz to J. Nischwitz and J. Gray, 13 1-3 acres in Flatrock twp., 81. Quite a number of our merchants had bills of goods on the way and lying at Toledo when the floods struck that place. Much damage was done there. The question now arises: Who is responsible for the damage, and who is to stand the loss. Napoleon has more naughty girls to the square inch than any town in the State, of its size.—Toledo Dem. Not naughty, only playful, Mr. Democrat; so much so that if you ever show your face again in Napoleon they will play the old harry with you. Hahn & Meyer, the popular proprietors of the well known Eagle Clothing House, are offering their winter stock at cheap rates, in order to make room for their immense spring stock, which will be on in a short time. A visit to their store will repay you. Last week Judge J. J. Moore received a telegram announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Moore, who died at her residence in Mahoning county, on the 17th inst. Mrs. Moore was 78 years of age and had resided at the place of her death since in 1812.—Ottawa Sentinel.

ARRESTED FOR BIGAMY.—On Monday Sheriff Daum arrested at Whitehouse one Albee for bigamy, and covered his prisoner into the Defiance Jail. All in a life living in Napoleon, one in Wauseon and probably others at other points. He is a regular Mormon—at least on the wife question. It was a Vassar girl just graduated who inquired: "Is the crack of the rifle the place to put the powder in?" Another watching the operation of a steam fire engine, remarked in wonder to her companion: "Who would have thought that such a diminutive looking apparatus could hold so much water?"

A big lot of canned fruit to be sold cheap at Bradley's. 1t

"J. B." your communication will appear next week. The County Commissioners will meet in regular March session next Monday. C. M. Fisk has just received an elegant stock of new walnut clocks. Call and examine. 1t

Mrs. A. E. Mann requests those ladies wanting dresses cut or made, to call at her rooms, over Stockman's grocery. Her prices are reasonable. 1t

Cary & Co. have dissolved partnership, both here and at Defiance, Mr. Cary taking the store here and Mr. Carroll the store at the latter place. We wish both success. An attempt was made to break into the store of Hahn & Meyer Monday night. The burglars were frightened away by the young men who sleep in the store. The hall lock was completely demolished. Dyspepsia in its worst form will yield to the use of Carter's Little Nerve Pills aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus. 2t

Parents may escape many anxious sleepless nights by a timely use of DeWitt's Cough Balsam. One dose just before going to bed will relieve the worst hacking cough, and ensure a good rest. Children take it readily because pleasant. 2t

Parents of Napoleon and vicinity, it is all folly to go to Toledo to purchase your children's clothing, when Hahn & Meyer keep a full stock on hand at all times. Their prices are as low if not lower than Toledo prices, and their goods are always the latest style. Try them and see if the above is not true. 3t

A letter from H. H. Sturges, of Mansfield, to E. Masters, and published in the Pioneer Alliance, has this to say respecting the M. C. & L. ED. NORTHWEST.—The programme at the last semi-monthly literary exercises was a decided success. The district school was joined by the select school, taught in the district by Miss Nemmie Crockett, of Napoleon. The manner in which they performed their pieces spoke well for their talent and training. J. A. WRIGHT, Tel'r. of No. 9, Damascus tp., Henry Co., Ohio.

SOMETHING NEW.—That horses and cattle need now and then some good preparation for purifying the blood, has long since been conceded by all the best stock raisers, but the best and cheapest thing to use has been a question. Several years ago Saur, "the Little Dutchman," saw the want of such a remedy and at once set himself to prepare it. He has made numerous experiments with it, and tested it in many ways, and is now satisfied that he has the very best compound which can be made, and one that is cheap. He has named it the Blood Purifying Powders. If your horse or cow has Fistula, Poll Evil, Jaundice or yellow water Mange, Hide-Bound, Distemper or any disease of the skin, buy Saur's Blood Purifying Powders. They are warranted to give satisfaction and to cure all of the above named diseases. This is strong language but nevertheless true.

Struck it Rich. We are permitted to publish the following private letter, which explains itself: HUTCHINSON, Kansas, Feb. 14, 1881.

A. B. SCRIBNER, Esq.—Dear Sir:—I write to inform you of the painful aches, that we have finally struck it very rich, I mean the Hutchinson Gold and Silver Mining Co., of which your humble servant is one. We have some valuable mines in Colorado. One year ago we organized a company here to work them, one in particular, a fissure vein. We have been tunneling the mountain to get to it; in doing so we have struck another vein 18 feet thick, and very rich. The mineral in this vein assays on an average of several assays taken, $347.00 gold, and $514.80 silver; total $861.80 to the ton. We have yet to tunnel twenty feet further, according to the survey, before we strike the other vein. It is causing great excitement there. They think it is the richest mine and mountain in Colorado. There are only 400 shares in our company, $25.00 to the share. I own twenty shares. We expect to sell about a half a million dollars worth of ore in June. The mine is only six miles from the railroad. You may think this is a pretty "big thing," of course it is, but nevertheless it is all so. Times are now brightening up here, as the prospects are splendid for good crops, and we expect a heavy trade.

We are all cheerful and well, and much rejoiced to learn of father's convalescence. With much love to all, I am Yours, truly, E. H. GREGG.

Temperance. MR. EDITOR:—The question of temperance has been agitated for a number of years, and the most stringent laws have been enacted. The people have tried license and no license and all to no purpose. There are other great evils existing that have been a constant annoyance to the peace and prosperity of our beloved country, such as granting license to houses of ill fame, which is done in cities not far from this. Also, granting license to land pirates to defraud and swindle the people. I wonder what monkey will use Burton for a cat's paw while somebody is gone to Congress. J. W. H. 6t-feb17

Defiance Correspondence. DEFANCE, Ohio, March 2d, 1881. A LETTER RETURNED FROM MID OCEAN. On the 27th day of August last, while H. T. Brass was returning from Europe, on board the steamer General D. Weeden, one of the North German Lloyd Steamers which left Bremen August the 18th. The steamer encountered a hurricane and there was some danger of the ship being lost. The distance then was 600 miles from New York. Mr. Brass wrote a letter directed to his parents in Hanover, Germany, or care of Defiance National Bank, Defiance, Ohio, sealed in a bottle and cast it in the ocean. A few days since, a letter bearing postmark Halifax, was received by the National Bank of this place, which on being opened proved to be the letter of Mr. Brass. Accompanying it was a note from the Halifax agent of Marine and Fisheries, stating that a bottle containing the note was picked up on the beach on Sable Island, off the coast of Nova Scotia, many hundred miles from the point where it was thrown overboard. The agent not being able to determine the address of his parents in Germany; and knowing the steamer was not lost, forwarded the letter to Mr. Brass of this place, where he is one of the most popular dry goods men. The letter being a private one is therefore withheld from publication.

EDITOR NORTHWEST:—The musical entertainment given by the Sisters of Notre Dame, at the Catholic School House on Monday evening, was a rare treat to those who had the privilege of attending it. It was generally admitted that it far excelled anything of the kind ever held in Napoleon.

While all the children performed their parts well, I hope I will be pardoned for referring especially to some of them. Master Vandenberg, in the character of Dr. Jacobs, appeared to be thoroughly at home, and certainly showed the excellent training he had received from the good Sisters. I have seldom seen one of his years perform with as much grace and dignity. Miss Grosechner also surprised and pleased the audience very much by her masterly effort in the song of "On the Rhine." Little Tony Hahn carried a great deal of merit in the character of the "Gold digger."

The character of the "Fanny" was well performed and I would gladly remark that he was very "thingy" was not what they seemed to be, "but he could not help it now, nor never could, or he would."

For all kinds of garden and field seeds, go to Bradley's. 1t

The Wann House at Napoleon has been leased by Toll Thompson and remodeled and refurnished throughout, and the name changed to the Merchant's Hotel. Toll is every inch a hotel man, as the traveling men who visit Napoleon will say. When we say traveling men, we mean nine-tenths of all the traveling men who stop at Napoleon. There is only one drawback to the house, and that is its too small, as parties are turned away almost every night. With a landlord like Thompson, assisted by such a competent and genial clerk as Mr. Charles Berry, this house is bound to be one of the most popular between Toledo and Ft. Wayne.—Sunday Democrat.

Croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, in short, all affections of the throat and lungs are relieved by this sterling preparation, which also remedies rheumatic pains, sores, bruises, piles, kidney difficulty, and is most economic. On the 27th ult., our old friend Geo. W. Zimmerman and his young wife, of Pleasant Grove, celebrated the 21 anniversary of their marriage, by getting up a dinner for a few of their most intimate friends. The repast was a complete success, the writer putting himself outside of a good share of it, therefore he can testify as to its merits. May Mr. Z. and his estimable lady live long, to enjoy many anniversaries of their marriage, is the wish of all. A. J. S. Napoleon, O., March 1, 1881.
