

NEW FRIGIDARIUM. NEW FURNITURE. Merchant's Hotel, NAPOLEON, O.

Democratic Northwest.

LOCAL NEWS, &c.

Personal. D. Wilson has returned from the Eastern cities. Myron Norton, of Wauson, was in town Monday.

MR. EDITOR.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church Society desire, through the columns of your paper, to express their thanks to those friends who so kindly gave their assistance towards making a success of the Cantata just rendered.

LOST.—A large sum of money, by not buying paints, oils and wall paper of Kneeland.

RAINFALL.—The Maine Bros. have purchased the Rainbow Saloon and will keep one of the finest stocks of wines and liquors ever brought to Napoleon.

A PERFECT MARTYR.—"I was a perfect martyr to Rheumatism," a hale and hearty individual was heard to remark the other day.

Do it Now.—If you have any painting to do or any papering or fixing up about your premises, do it now; material is cheap, flies will not bother you, and in fact everything is, or seems to be most favorable for doing this kind of work.

The Allen County Court House Commission will visit Napoleon to-day or to-morrow to view our new Court House.

The Internal Revenue year closes on the 30th inst., when all special tax stamps expire by limitation. Hence, after that day no one can lawfully pursue any business liable to such tax, without payment of the same.

The law requires township assessors to call at the Probate Judge's office and get death and birth blanks. Judge Haly informs us that two of the townships have failed to do this.

The residence of Hon. C. N. Lamison, in Lima, was burned on Wednesday night of last week. The loss was $6,000, insured. The family were absent from home at the time of the fire. Mr. Lamison's valuable library was saved in a damaged condition.

The River Class S. S. met April 24th, 1881, and organized with the following corps of officers: Superintendent—F. H. Beck.

Such is the expression from all Druggists and dealers everywhere who are consulting Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.

The trees are leafing. Grass is growing nicely. New gather your wild flowers.

Hicksville had a $10,000 fire last week. Examination of school teachers Saturday.

The finest line of children's shoes at Freese's. Treasurer Gidley is ready to receive your tax dues.

Soapsine at Cary's, 7 cents per package or 4 for 25cts. There were two fatal cases of measles in Wauson last week.

Now is your time to buy good goods cheap at Geo. & Joes. Let the dirt and filth, the accumulation of winter, be cleaned up.

The Vocke team ran away one day last week, smashing things up generally. Take out a policy in the home Insurance Company, J. C. McLain, Secretary.

Cincinnati lager always fresh at Tony Hahn's, next door to Sheffield & Norton's Bank. A full line of watches and clocks can be had at the store of J. F. Roth, Liberty Center.

Don't forget to try a package of the tea and coffee, and get a present at Novelty Store. Summer accommodations in the shape of awnings and store boxes are coming to the front.

Misses Inis M. Baldwin and Louise Fensley, of Toledo, are clerking at the Novelty Store. Dave Hancock has placed a confectionery stand on the corner of Perry and Washington streets.

FOUND.—The way to become wealthy. Buy wall paper, curtain and paints, at Kneeland's drug store. Elegant goblets, new patterns, at 30cts per set, and lamp chimneys only 5 cents each, at Novelty Store.

A new song is entitled: "Squeeze me darling, till my eyeballs pop!" Will friend Gabriel please tout that horn? Capt. J. W. White is organizing a military school in Toledo, for the instruction of boys in drill and discipline.

Everybody call and examine the endless variety of beautiful and cheap goods at Novelty Store, just received. An order has been issued declaring postal cards unmailable with anything but directions written on the address side.

FINE CONFECTIONERY.—Shasteen Bros. have the finest line of confectionery in town. Call in and examine stock. The Gertrude Nelson entertainment which was advertised for Tuesday evening was postponed until some future time.

Farmers, try a few pounds of that rock salt for cattle; also, genuine English dairy. It will make your butter better. Cary has all kinds. Scribner & Ulrich have a good supply of the celebrated Red Jacket Plows, which are selling very rapidly again this spring.

As a purifier of the blood, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has no equal. It wonderfully improves the complexion, and brings to old and young the bloom of health. Ladies are invited to call at Mrs. A. P. Stout's Millinery store for new hats and bonnets in all the latest styles and shapes.

As soon as the leaves of the currant and gooseberry are fairly expanded, the "worm" may be looked for. The eggs are laid upon the under side of the lower leaves, and if these are removed and destroyed, much trouble is averted.

If your child is puny, fretful or peevish, before you call a physician try a bottle of Denig's Worm Syrup. It is an excellent remedy, aiding digestion, strengthening the stomach and relieving nervousness. Sold by druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

A LUCKY MINISTER.—Rev. A. J. Malory, of Wyoming, N. Y., writes: Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil cured me of Bronchitis in one week. Our dealers all say they never sold a medicine that has given such complete satisfaction, for coughs, colds, asthma and rheumatism. For sale by Saur.

Letters remaining uncalled for in the Napoleon Post Office for the week ending April 23d, 1881: P. J. Allen, Mrs. A. Bird, Catharine Myers, A. Edwards.

Persons calling for the above letters will please say they were advertised and give date. JAMES S. FOUKE, Postmaster. Hugging parties, at so much a squeeze, the proceeds to go to the poor is a purely western invention. We have been handed the schedule of prices which is adhered to: Girls under sixteen, 25 cents for each hour of two minutes; from sixteen to twenty, 50 cents; from twenty to twenty-five, 75 cents; another man's wife, $1; widows, according to looks, from 50 cents to $3; old maids, 3 cents each, or two for a nickel. According to this schedule editors would be compelled to take two for a nickel.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.—A meeting for the examination of teachers for the Napoleon Union School will be held in the Union School building, April 30th, 1881. Applicants must present themselves at 9 o'clock a. m. of said day.

C. W. Williamson, A. H. Tyler, R. W. Cahill, Examiners. Young man, if you wish a nobby suit or spring clothes, call on Hahn & Meyer. They have an excellent stock of stylish piece goods.

J. F. Roth, Liberty Center, is prepared to do all kinds of repairing on watches and clocks. FARMERS! FARMERS! FARMERS!—If you want a harrow that excels all others and pulverizes the ground more once going over than any ordinary harrow will in three times going over, why get the Kalamazoo spring tooth; Scribner & Ulrich are the agents. It will surprise every farmer in the excellence of its work, warranted in all kinds of soil, new ground, sod, stubble and summer fallers it cannot be excelled, and for putting in small grain it has no equal.

They say that Lamb, in Liberty, has got the goods and at low prices. Do not believe that anyone will sell you drugs, paints, wall paper &c., for less money than Kneeland, the druggist. If we are strongly disposed to regard that person as the best physician who does most to alleviate human suffering, judged from this standard, Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., is entitled to the front rank, for her Vegetable Compound is daily working wonderful cures in female diseases. Send for circular to the above address.

Oh, What a Cough! Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough, at once. Mothers do not be without it. For Croup, Croup, Croup, and Sweet Shiloh's Forous Plaster. Sold by J. C. Saur.

Disysepia and Liver Complaint. Is it not worth the small price of 75 cents to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints, if you think so call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer, every bottle has a printed guarantee on it, use accordingly and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by J. C. Saur.

We have a speedy and positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth and Headache, in Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A nasal injector free with each bottle. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50cts. Sold by J. C. Saur.

MARRIED. MIZZNER—FURBISON.—April 18, 1881, by Elder L. K. Rockwell, Mr. Charles Mizner, of Pennsylvania, and Miss Arletta Furbison, of Henry Co., Ohio.

DIED. KERSTITTER.—At the home of her parents in Wood Co., Ohio, Mary A. Kerstitter, daughter of Peter Kerstitter, on April 21st, 1881, aged 20 years and 13 days, of spinal fever. The funeral was largely attended at Damascus Church, on the 23d, at 11 a. m.; Elder G. W. Hagan, of Uhrichsville, Ohio, preached the funeral discourse. Those that knew Mary best, loved her most.

When the dark hours of earthly life And earthly pangs are o'er, These lips shall bless, these hands shall move, These eyes shall look no more. Oh, let no tear this eyelid dim, O'er this frail form of clay; But I rest at peace with Him, Who wipes all tears away. These hollow eyes but seem to sleep, For a'th to them 'tis given, One endless watch of bliss to keep, For they have waked in heaven. G. W. H.

VANPELT.—In south Napoleon, April 20th, 1881, Jennie, wife of Frank Vanpelt, aged 22 years, 8 months, 5 days. Her funeral took place on Friday, 22d, at the brick church, in Harrison township, and was largely attended; services conducted by Rev. J. W. Myers, of Damascus township. Mrs. Vanpelt was the last of a family consisting of father, mother and seven children; may we not hope that they constitute an unbroken family in the kingdom of heaven. This dear woman suffered long and severely, yet patiently and meekly; she leaves a kind husband, an infant son and many friends to mourn her early death. She lived in our midst but one short year, yet in that time we learned to love her as a neighbor, friend, a lady and a Christian. Her early death reminds us that the early leaves do sometimes fall in the sweet spring-time of life.

When winter winds are wailing, And death rides on the breeze; These lips shall bless, these hands shall move, These eyes shall look no more. Oh, let no tear this eyelid dim, O'er this frail form of clay; But I rest at peace with Him, Who wipes all tears away. These hollow eyes but seem to sleep, For a'th to them 'tis given, One endless watch of bliss to keep, For they have waked in heaven. G. W. H.
