

NEW PROFESSION. NEW FURNITURE. Merchant's Hotel, NAPOLSON, O.

Democratic Northwest, NAPOLSON, OHIO. LOCAL NEWS, &c.

Personal: Dr. McCann, of Troy, Ohio, is in town visiting. Mrs. G. W. Tressler is visiting in Ft. Wayne.

Wm. Stout, of Missouri, is visiting with his son, B. F. Stout. Mrs. Jennie Hoag, of Washington, D.C., is here visiting her parents.

Miss Mattie C. Squires, of Defiance, is visiting in this place with Miss Lou Foust. Wm. M. Beckham, of Petoskey, Mich., is visiting in Napoleon, his former home.

Miss Ada McWilliams has returned from her visit, much to the pleasure of her many friends. F. M. Baldwin was called to Williams county Tuesday to attend the funeral of a brother's child.

Mr. Wickham, of the Columbus Law Journal, spent Friday in Napoleon, in the interest of his paper. J. J. Malley returned last Thursday from his extended visit in the far West.

Will Donahue, of this place, who has been visiting with his friends in Cleveland for the past two weeks, returned Tuesday. W. C. Smith, formerly of Napoleon, but now of Ada, Hardin Co., spent several days with friends in this locality during the past week.

Look out for watermelons. How utterly utter is the latest. New hay is coming into market.

The woolen mills are running day and night. The Tyler cemetery is being cleaned up and put in nice order.

The canal boat "H. E. Cary," Capt. Bull, has received a fresh coat of paint. "She is absolutely unstampedable," is what the President says of Mrs. G.

Job work neatly executed at this office at reasonable prices. Give us a trial. It is the duty of every good citizen to see to it that the law is enforced in every instance.

The farmers are now in the midst of their grain harvest. They have had good weather. Col. Newbert turns a beautiful badge to the company turning out the strongest at the encampment at Clyde next week.

Gentlemen whose beards are not of a pleasing shade, can remedy the defect by the use of Buckingham's Dye for the whiskers. The firm of Parish & Crawford, of Liberty Center, has been dissolved.

Mr. Goodman, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, Toledo, will preach next Sabbath, morning and evening, at the Presbyterian Church. Chas. Hostetter has been hired by the Council as night police.

Our town is evidently entering upon a new era—there has been some arrests during the past week! It is to be hoped the good work may continue and that every violator of the law may be made to pay the penalty.

The new Henry county jail was accepted last week, and Sheriff Daum expects to occupy it this week. The building throughout presents a fine appearance, and Henry county can now boast of one of the finest Sheriff's residences and county jails in this section of country.

The unusual quantity of white clover which presents itself this year, cannot have escaped general notice. The swards which should be green now are white with its bloom.

A GOOD CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—Now that everybody loves to make money, to make it just as easy as they can and to make lots of it, we will give everybody the secret how to do it.

We suppose that many people think that newspaper men are persistent duns. Let a farmer place himself in a similar position and see if he would not do the same.

PAINT, OR! PAINT!—All kinds of paints and oils are cheaper and better now than they have been for the last 20 years.

Talk about warm weather! exclaims the Enquirer. If the comet were to come in contact with the earth, the temperature, according to Professor Newcomb, would rise to 10,000 degrees in the shade.

At about one o'clock Monday morning, upon Mr. Wm. Sheffield awaking from a sound slumber, he saw a man standing in his bed-room doorway with a drawn pistol leveled at him.

Up to date the next term of Common Pleas Court has five Penitentiary cases to try. S. M. & M. E. Heller are fitting up their basement, to be used as a boot and shoe department.

The Vocke Bros. have and are making extensive improvements at their mill and elevator. The Vocke Bros. are wide awake to business.

For constipation in children, don't force them to swallow castor oil; try Denig's Worm Syrup. A full dose at night, followed by a smaller one in the morning, will do more good than the oil, and will be readily taken, because pleasant.

A letter was lately received from Germany addressed to "Herr Garfield, Union's President, Washington, Virginia." It went to Washington, Rappahannock county, Va., and the Postmaster kept it, advertising it, marked it "not known," and sent it to the Dead Letter Office.

From the amount of visiting to and fro between the young folks of Defiance and Napoleon, we are led to believe that a better spirit between the two places is being engendered. This no doubt is brought about by the fact that Napoleon is now as great (if not as big) a place as Defiance.

PROVED IT.—"What?" he said, do you think you can make me believe that anyone sells cheaper than Hahn & Meyer? Not much. You just walk down to their store, corner of Perry and Washington streets, with me and I'll prove to you that they sell cheaper than anyone else, and have better goods."

Letters remaining uncalled for in the Napoleon Post Office for the week ending July 9th, 1881: Julia Edwards, Caudill Jones, John Hall, Paul Flager, Frank Keeler, Elsie Mielon, Anna Rorde, Worlen Smith, James Ward.

The Henry county prisoners now confined in the Defiance jail sent a sample of their relations in Napoleon last Thursday. They reported that it was a fair specimen of what they get daily at the hands of the Sheriff of Defiance county.

As provided by the Revised Statutes Prosecuting Attorney Knapp has made a report to the Attorney General of all crimes prosecuted by indictment in Henry county during the year ending July 1st, 1881. We take the following from the report:

Reunion of the 100th O. V. I. Postponed. Many members of the Regiment having expressed a desire to be present at the ceremony of unveiling the McPherson monument, at Clyde, O., July 23, 1881, and believing that a large proportion of them will be there, and consequently not feel able or disposed to meet again so soon, the annual reunion of the 100th O. V. I. appointed for Wauesson, August 26, 1881, is postponed to 1882, same place and date.

A Few Church Dont's. Don't go to sleep. Don't bring the baby with you. Don't sing if you don't know how.

Don't sit down on your new silk hat. Don't put counterfeit coin on the plate. Don't stay home on collection Sunday. Don't read your book during the sermon.

Don't go in late if you wear squeaky boots. Don't take a sneezing fit if you can help it. Don't keep your religion in the pocket of your Sunday coat.

Don't try to make children sit as still as Egyptian mummies. Don't think everybody went to church just to see what you've got on. Don't do any inward swearing if a fly plays hop scotch on that bald spot.

Don't pull a pint of pen-ants out of your pocket with your handkerchief. Ridgeville Breezes. ED. NORTHWEST.—The citizens of our place celebrated the Glorious Fourth in a very moderate way, holding a picnic in L. W. Rogers orchard.

Mr. H. L. Chapman has just returned from Northern Michigan, on account of ill health. At Traverse City he had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Wash. Raff, an old citizen of Napoleon, who appeared very much pleased to see a resident of Henry county.

Elias Kigar, Jr., who recently dislocated his shoulder by falling from a cherry tree, is rapidly recovering and will soon be sound again. Scofield and Chapman have just employed a new peddler to run their merchant wagon, in place of Mr. Henry Sechrist, who has given up the business.

The driving days of harvest are upon us and our farmers are up to their eyes in business, securing their crops. There seems to be quite a scarcity of laborers, and they are demanding large wages. As the self-binding machines come into use the tables will gradually turn, and farmers will be more independent.

The extremely hot weather of the past week has been terribly oppressive to those working in grain fields, the thermometer standing from 92° to 98° in the shade, which is putting it on too thick for Monday, July 11th, 1881.

The "London Lancet" says: "Many a life has been saved by the moral courage of the sufferer" and many a life has been saved by taking Spring Blossom in case of bilious fever, indigestion or liver complaints." Price 50c, trial bottles 10c.

RESCUED FROM DEATH. William J. Coughlin of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with weakness of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half-dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BAL-SAM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

FREE TO ALL.—If anything ails your horses, cattle, sheep, hogs or poultry, you will find a line of remedies and receipts at Kneeland's Drug Store, which he has selected and tried for years and not found wanting; they are kept for the benefit of customers and will be filled and sold at lowest living prices.

Man's Noblest Work. This is an age of great works and wonderful inventions. Steam, electricity, water, air, all are made to serve man, but unquestionably the greatest inventions are those which preserve man's health and prolong his life, and among the greatest of these is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Its effects are truly wonderful and hundreds are happy to day, who once looked forward to an early grave.
