

Talking to Heaven. A mother living not very far from the post office in this city, tired of watching over a sick baby, came down stairs the other day for a moment's rest. She heard the voice of her little four-year old girl in the hall by herself, and, curious to know to whom she was talking, stopped a moment at the half open door. She saw that the little thing had pulled a chair up in front of the telephone, and stood upon it, with the piece resting against the side of her head. The earnestness of the child showed she was in no playful mood, and this was the conversation the mother heard, while the tears stood thick in her eyes, the little one carrying on both sides as if she was repeating the answer?

"Hello?" "Well, who's there?" "Is God there?" "Yes." "Is Jesus there?" "Yes." "Tell Jesus I want to speak to him." "Well." "Is that you, Jesus?" "Yes. What is it?" "Our baby is sick, and we want you to let it get well. Won't you, now?" No answer, and question and answer again repeated, finally answered by a "Yes." The little one put the ear piece back on the hook, clambered down from her chair, and with a radiant face, went for mother, who caught her in her arms. The baby, whose life had been despaired of, began to mend that day and got well.—Elmira Free Press.
