

D' BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

Democratic Northwest. NAPOLEON, OHIO. LOCAL NEWS, &c.

Boys Wanted. Two good steady boys wanted at this office to learn the printing business.

Personal. Daniel Hess is now with J. P. Reeder. J. H. Cochran is in town, as sick as of old.

Mrs. Rachael Parker is visiting in Van Wert. Miss Jennie Mason is home from school at Valparaiso, Ind.

Rev. Martin Koehler, of Toledo, spent Friday in Napoleon. Rev. John Fisher, of Dubuque, Ia., was in town last Friday.

Bro. Patch, of the Delta Avatach, dropped in to see us yesterday. "J. N.," the immortal philosopher, was in the court room on Tuesday.

B. E. Sheldon, of Bryan, has been here on court matters for some days during the past week.

Mrs. Davis, a sister of M. Knupp's, from Oakkosh, Wis., is here visiting him and his family.

The wife of Judge Moore leaves for California this week. She goes there to regain her health.

Jacob Mueller has moved back to Defiance from Napoleon, and is erecting a residence in East Defiance.—Defiance Dem.

Miss Nellie Brown, of Napoleon, sister of Will Brown, night operator at the Wash depot, is visiting Miss Mary Frederick, of this city.—Defiance Times.

Mrs. Susan Rowan, her son Elbert and her mother, Catherine Stout, who is quite aged, being probably the oldest person in Henry county, left on Tuesday for California, which State they will make their home for an indefinite period. Mrs. Rowan's many friends in Napoleon wish her a safe journey.

This is the month when those troubled with a cough should go for a twenty-five cent bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and be cured at once.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Donehey will preach in the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath, both morning and evening. The public is invited.

"What would you do if you were me and I were you?" tenderly inquired a young swell of his lady friend, as he escorted her home from church. "Well," said she, "if I were you, I would throw away that vile cigarette, cut up my cane for firewood, wear my watch-chain underneath my coat, and stay at home nights and pray for brains."

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Napoleon, Ohio, Post Office for the week ending Oct. 29th, 1881:

John Hellman, James Long, Dr. Merrissey, Maggie Murphy, Fannie Richards, John Schwartz, Andrew Shupe, Schultz Bros., Frank Voght.

Persons calling for the above letters will please say they were advertised and give date. JAMES S. FOUKE, Postmaster.

OVERCOATS.—Hahn & Meyer have just added to their already large stock over three hundred overcoats and a large assortment of ready-made clothing, which they are now offering at prices but little above the cost of manufacture. Their stock of overcoats is the largest and most varied ever brought to Napoleon, and the goods cannot help but suit customers in both price and quality. An invitation is extended to all, whether they wish to purchase or not, to call in and examine the goods and prices at the Eagle Clothing House.

Hear the Kenton Democrat: "Farwell stringy, starchy ice cream, an unfit disburser of trade dollars, your loss is our gain. Good-bye, soda water; unfizizable until next summer shall thou be. Adieu, calm, but slobbery watermelon; we cast thy closely gnawed rinds into the alley, hoping that after many days thou wilt return to us, bigger and cheaper than ever." Au revoir, watery lemonade; thou wert too weak for this positive world—to weak for anything. Welcome, invigorating popcorn, indigestible mince pie, invisible red flannel—glorious trinity of comfort—we are compelled by reason of circumstances to halt thee.

GRAND SHOW.—A wonderful display of books and stationery is now being opened out at Saur's Drug and Book Store. Saur has just returned from New York and other eastern cities, where he purchased one of the largest and most complete stocks of goods for the fall and winter trade which has ever been on exhibition in this or any other town of its size; for the truth of which we only ask you to step in at this store and see for yourselves. The stock not only consists of books of every style and variety of authors, albums, photograph and autograph, perfumes, pocket-books &c., but large varieties of choice novelties, of the finest goods which the markets afford. The great book sale too, which is now open, will afford everybody to secure choice literature at their own prices.

"To utterly too," is the latest.

Truth to be Unveiled.

J. N. Determined to Carry the Whole Load To-Night!

J. N. dropped in to see us yesterday, and being pleased with the great sympathy shown him during his several visits to our place, he thus says: "I realize that the kind people of Napoleon have probably given me more sympathy with the veil enshrouding me, than I could have expected under the same circumstances. I often postpone my lectures from time to time as I have at this place, and at each postponement people think naturally they are ready to hear me, and with all their sympathy the veil will not allow them to assemble.

"I now have a desire to reason away all that mysterious and electrical veil which enshrouds myself and friends, to-night at the Court House. Thank the kind people of Napoleon for the sympathy shown me while now here and long ago, and have all understand that if honored with an audience on the 3d, I will assume all; a small admission will be kindly accepted of the men; ladies free and especially invited to attend. Subject, Truth and Prejudice."

A new counterfeit silver dollar is in circulation, which is pronounced by the sub-treasurer to be the best counterfeit silver coin ever seen. It is beautifully made and has a slight appearance of iron, which is often found in a genuine standard dollar. It is silver plated and acid does not hurt it unless the surface is scratched up. The weight is the marvelous point in the deception. The counterfeit, as it stands, would pass in size easily, and in weight would not be detected on any but a fine scale. The date upon it is 1878.
