

The Democratic Party. The New York Herald supported this party, and the election of Mr. Pierce in 1852. As rats desert a sinking ship, it has abandoned the sinking party, and tells some truths which may not be quite palatable to some people hereabouts.

The "Administration Man." In one of our exchanges we find the portrait of one of this genus. As the tribe is decreasing rapidly, and will soon be extinct, it will be valuable to some future Gibbon or Hume when gathering material for a history of the "Lost Tribes." We say: "The 'Administration Man' is a man who is not a man, but a machine."

To Our Contributors. We are daily in the receipt of articles for publication. Now we are thankful to our friends who so kindly relieve us of a portion of our labor, and will gladly insert in the Chronicle any and all productions which in our judgment will interest its readers.

THE PROSPECT. It is encouraging to see the unanimity with which the large majority of the opposition papers of this State express their opinions with regard to the organization of the Republican Party, and the feeling in favor of uniting again, all the forces, to do battle with the pro-slavery hunker Democracy.

PROPER VERDICT.—Miss Mary Hedrick has recovered a verdict of $7,000 in the Supreme Court at Cincinnati, for the breach of a marriage contract. The proof showed a long intimacy sought by the defendant, to the exclusion of all other visitors at his own instance, and the desertion of his victim after her health was broken down and her fair name dishonored.

THE COMING HARVEST.—So flattering is the prospect—so heavy and thick, with its deep dark green, stands the wheat—so fully covered are the fruit trees with odorous blossoms—and the rich grass stands up so proudly—that the richest croaker in the land has to keep his mouth shut. There never was before in Licking county a more glorious prospect of a most abundant harvest.

Our exchanges from all parts of this State, tell but one tale. The prospect crops of all kinds of grain, were never better.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—The Ohio State Board of Agriculture, at its late session, adopted a resolution, authorizing the distribution of 200 copies each of the Ohio Cultivator and Ohio Farmer, among those who draw premiums at the next State Fair. This is a deserved compliment to the two best Agricultural papers of the West.

CHOPS IN INDIANA.—Crops are unusually promising in that State, quite forward, and the weather delightful. They have had no frosts this spring to injure vegetation in the least. There, as in all other sections of the West, there is far more than the average quantity of grain growing.

BANK AT NEW CASTLE, PA.—The New Castle Gazette says that a large amount has been subscribed to the capital stock of the Bank, since the opening of the books by the commissioners. It will be found a safe depository for surplus funds and will yield a good dividend.

TAX RITON OF AFR.—In this wonderful age, Art lays her master touches on almost every thing. The ceilings over the arched and the arched, are halloved by the carpets we tread on, are halloved by the machinery of the mad, makes her machines of wood and iron to act as with knowledge, and annihilates space with lightning tamed down to the tutelage of a boy. Nothing is so lovely for her touch and nothing so humble.

Slave Case at Columbus. We learn by the Journal, that two colored girls were brought before Judge Swan, of the Supreme Court, Monday morning, by a writ of habeas corpus, to inquire into the cause of their alleged illegal detention by their master, a Frenchman from New Orleans, en route for Europe. The girls when interrogated in Court, expressed a desire to go with their master and they were permitted to do so. Judge S. remarked that he hoped this would be decisive of the matter, and that all would acquiesce.

Great Speed in Sawing.—The Saginaw, Mich., Enterprise of the 17th, says that "twenty five hundred and forty-seven feet of boards—three-fourths of their one inch in thickness and the balance 1 1/2 inches—were sawed yesterday at the new mill of John A. Westervelt & Co., at Cassillon, in fifty five minutes, by the circular saw put up by F. H. Permont, of Saginaw City. There is hardly a doubt that the circular saw is destined to entirely supersede the upright, doing the work much smoother and far more rapidly than by the old method."

Paris the Murderer. We give below extracts from the Cleveland paper of May 31st and June 2d, describing the last scenes in the life of Parks, who was tried and convicted of the murder of Beaton at Cuyahoga Falls, some two years since.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE OF PARKS.—Just before one o'clock, and immediately after the Turkey had left the cell of Parks, a cry of sudden pain was heard from L. The Turkey turned, and found that Parks had cut his throat. Dr. Strong was sent for, and upon examination, found that a deep gash had been cut in the right side of the neck. Parks, with violence and cursing, resisted every effort of the Doctor to staunch the flow of blood, and with his own hands on his throat, he tried to stop the bleeding. As last he was overcome and his hands chained behind him. Weakness soon followed the loss of blood, and he became apparently insensible.—Herald, May 31st.

EXECUTION OF PARKS.—The eventful career of this remarkable man terminated yesterday afternoon at precisely four minutes after one o'clock. Some faint hopes were entertained by the more humane portion of the community, that he would prove fatal, and that he would be found dead in the morning; but fate seemed to have decreed that he should be hanged. During most of the night he slept soundly, and in the morning he seemed more than usually cheerful. He had no visitors, and he was with great calmness, and expressed a readiness to undergo his terrible punishment.

At five minutes before ten at his execution, including the sheriff and officers of the jail, his counsel at his late trial, reporters for the press, and citizens who had been invited, there was a strange seriousness in every countenance, and a mysterious silence in every cell; for all the prisoners were carefully locked up. Parks lay on a pallet in the corridor, securely handcuffed and manacled, presenting a ghastly picture to the gaze of those who looked upon him. He was fully disposed of—that the South will up and 'dissolve the Union' unless it can have its own way—in short, he believes all the necessary nonsense calculated to make him and distinguish him a good 'Administration man.' One way, we confess, we rather like the man. You are always to be found where you find a heart to be a temperance man; but if the leaders and regular candidates are consummate rummies, he must graciously conform.

At fifteen minutes before twelve, he finished his cigar, swallowed a mouthful of brandy and water, and told the sheriff that he was ready. He mounted the scaffold with a feeble step, but with an undaunted air, and after resting a few minutes called for some brandy and water, and made a speech to the spectators, which, though desultory in its character, contained some exquisite touches of pathos and eloquence. The following is the closing paragraph: "It is a sad thing to be cut off in the prime of life, from a wife who has done so much for me, and from my child that I love so tenderly; for I have some twenty-eight years of age; oh, never will I forget the day when I was born, and I should have been able to read from them the news of my ignominious fate. (Here his utterance was choked by sobs, and some time elapsed before he was able to proceed.)" It was for the sake of these dear ones that I attempted, yesterday, to put an end to my life. I wish now that I had succeeded, and that I had been spared this morning. But oh, spare my poor old father and mother the news of my fate. I have read the Bible thoroughly, and had I conformed to the precepts of Jesus Christ I should not now be here; but we cannot undo what has been done. Would to God that I could; but I am not guilty of murder, and I am not a member of Congress, and both U. S. Senators. The Legislature will assemble on the 6th of June, and the two U. S. Senators will have to be chosen. Messrs. Hale and Bell will probably be elected. The official canvass of Members of Congress has just declared, as follows:—In the first Congressional district, Mr. Kirtland (Dem.) had 9,799, and Mr. Pike (K. N.) 13,011. In the second district, Mr. Morrison (Dem.) had 8,950, and Mr. Tappan (K. N.) 12,129. In the third district, Mr. Wheeler (Dem.) had 8,640, and Mr. Craig (K. N.) 11,126. The aggregate majority of the opposition candidates over those of the Administration is 10,177. The majority against the Democratic candidate for Railroad Commissioner is 9,870. In eleven out of the twelve Senatorial districts the Democratic candidates were defeated.—Cleveland Herald.

New Hampshire. The Granite State is pretty effectually revolutionized politically, at last. The Democratic candidates were elected by the Members of Congress, and both U. S. Senators. The Legislature will assemble on the 6th of June, and the two U. S. Senators will have to be chosen. Messrs. Hale and Bell will probably be elected. The official canvass of Members of Congress has just declared, as follows:—In the first Congressional district, Mr. Kirtland (Dem.) had 9,799, and Mr. Pike (K. N.) 13,011. Disastrous State of Affairs. The annexed extract from a letter addressed to the Cincinnati Commercial, dated upper Red River, Claiborne Parish, La., April 23d, 1855, contains startling intelligence:

"Such a state of affairs never existed before. As yet the Red River has not been navigable, and not a bale of Cotton has been shipped. Thousands and tens of thousands of bales are on the banks of the Upper Red River and its tributaries, awaiting a rise. Not only have the people failed to get their Cotton off, but as a necessary consequence they are fast perishing for want of any kind. We have no railroad communication, and the people, wealthy though many of them are, are in an alarming state of destitution. Flour worth $90 per barrel, and not to be had with ninety miles; Corn is commanding $2 per bushel, and other things in proportion.

Shooting Affair. A desperate attempt to take the life of one of our citizens was made on Saturday, by Mr. Jeremiah McKibben, son of Mr. Chambers McKibben, formerly Post Master of this city, and present proprietor of the Merchants' Hotel, in Philadelphia. Mr. Isaac Craig, a resident of Allegheny city, was married some years ago to a daughter of Mr. McKibben, but a difficulty arising between them a few weeks since, relative to an affair, the nature of which we do not deem it prudent to disclose, the parties separated. Mr. McKibben, on the 21st of May, was at the residence of Mr. Craig, and after a short conversation about the affair referred to, drew a revolver from his pocket, and snatched it by Mr. Craig's breast. The cap did not explode, and Mr. Craig, fearing that McKibben intended to murder him, ran up Market street, and took refuge in Snicker's Store. Mr. McKibben followed him, but Craig eluded his assailant by passing out of the back door on Liberty street. McKibben barred after him, he again discharged the revolver, but, as before, without effect. Craig then ran into Hart's Hotel, where he was secreted until McKibben was arrested, and then returned to the river to his home. The affair caused the most intense excitement, and ended in McKibben being held to bail by Alderman Steel for assault and battery with intent to kill.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN PRATT, LAKE CO.—Mr. Morris Ritter left home on the morning of the 19th, to finish a piece of work in the woods. Not returning home as usual in the evening, his wife became alarmed, and sought the neighbor. Mr. Ritter was found near two fall-trees. The external injury done to his body was imperceptible. His body having been carried home, he was buried on the following Sabbath. He was married to Mrs. Ritter, a native of Ohio, and was about 24 years old, and unmarried.—Merrill Gazette.

Another Outrage in Kansas. A Citizen Kidnaped. Yesterday another outrage was inflicted upon our devoted territory by the Missouri brigands. Fourteen of these ruffians crossed the river and seized Mr. Wm. Phillips, one of our most intelligent, energetic and respectable citizens, carried him to their camp and landed safely on the opposite side of the river before the people of the place had collected together to determine what to do, and then he was taken to the Missouri side of the river, and there he was kept in a cell, and there he was kept in a cell, and there he was kept in a cell.

WEEKS, nervous, depressed in spirits, and a prey to temporary mental as well as physical evils, the victim of a series of misadventures, and a man of great talents and energy, was held in a cell in the Missouri State Prison, at Jefferson City, Mo., for the purpose of being sold as a slave. He was held in a cell in the Missouri State Prison, at Jefferson City, Mo., for the purpose of being sold as a slave.

AN ORDINANCE. To prevent swine from running at large in the Village of Warren. Be it ordained by the Council of the Incorporated Village of Warren, that any person who shall keep or have in his possession any swine, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each swine, and to be imprisoned for each swine, until the same shall be disposed of, or until the owner shall appear and pay the costs of the Ordinance, and the costs of the swine, and the costs of the swine, and the costs of the swine.
