FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1908.
The dust flew high long enough.

FORAKER and Haskell will not soon forget the campaign of elimination.

ROSE law elections are putting a lot of saloons out of business in Ohio counties.

THEY are a pair of fast going Bills who head the national tickets of the two leading political parties.

IF the candidates for county office did not make votes at the fair last week it was not because of scarcity of material to work on.

JUDGE T. E. HOYT is the democratic candidate for circuit judge in this district. Judge Roberts of Warren is his republican opponent.

ALL eyes are on Columbiana county to see which side of the temperance question she will land at the local option election Saturday.

THE race for pennants by the leading teams in the National and American leagues just now attracts more attention and talk by a long shot than politics.

IT seems pretty certain that W. J. Bryan will speak in Youngstown before the close of the campaign. If he does it is safe to presume that W. H. Taft will also be heard on the stump in Mahoning's metropolises.

AFTER being cleared of charges in the courts, Congressman J. F. Laning of Norwalk withdrew as a candidate for re-election and F. V. Owen of Knox county takes his place on the republican ticket in the 14th district.

EDITORS of political sheets are now under the lash and must drive their typewriters long hours in order to grind out all the stuff the politically ambitious demand, and probably sadly need, to boost them in their "business."

THERE is no denying the fact that Mr. Hearst succeeded admirably in stirring up the animals. And now he is sitting back not saying a word while the belligerents are fighting it out hammer and tongs. Great is Hearst.

A JOINT debate between Congressman Kennedy and candidate John J. Whitcomb on political issues should draw stronger than a porous plaster. Why not jump into the arena, gentlemen, and make the populace sit up and take notice?

WHY so old-fashioned political meetings in the country towns? Do the denizens of villages refuse to enthuse over the utterances of old-time spellbinders that they are so neglected? Or is it only the city folk who need to drink in the oratory of the silver-tongued gentlemen on the hustings?

Honesty, Justice, Prosperity.
No man is doing the best he can when he takes an undue advantage of a fellow-being merely because of the opportunity he has for doing so.

Every act whereby one man is able to possess himself of that which rightfully belongs to another, whether it be property rights or personal rights, is dishonest, nor does it matter how poor he may be nor how rich he may be, neither excuses or condones the offense.

It matters not how rich a man may be he is the enemy of prosperity as long as he denies the rest of his neighbors any of their just opportunities. Honesty, justice and prosperity are sisters. If one is denied all are repudiated.—Pres. Post.

Austintown.
SEPT. 30.—A. J. Wetzel sold his property to W. C. Robinson of Youngstown and has purchased a small farm near Kent to which he will soon remove, expecting to engage in gardening.

Greenford.
OCT. 1.—Rev. W. L. Bowell of Columbus will preach in the Disciple church next Sunday morning and evening.

THE CANFIELD MARKET.
Dealers are paying the following prices for produce:
Butter, 24c.
Eggs, 22c.

RETAIL PRICES.
Butter, 25c lb.
Eggs, 24c doz.

Youngstown.
Fred Harjosten, ex-county treasurer, has made official announcement that he will be a candidate for the republican nomination for mayor next year.

Mrs. Mary Clark, a resident of this city for 70 years, died last week, aged 88.

Engineer Roy Castle jumped from the cab of his locomotive when he thought a collision was imminent and his back was badly injured.

Street car employes have been "spotted" and a number are now out of jobs. S. Cronin, a foreigner, was terribly beaten by his countrymen two weeks before he died in the hospital of lockjaw.

Margaret Jones, three years old, fell from a second story window while reaching for a bunch of grapes and was badly injured.

Musicians want a raise from $20 a week for next season at the parks.

Bob Darro has resigned as chief clerk in the Erie freight office to accept a more lucrative position in Pittsburgh.

A new military to be known as Company M, will be organized in this city.

The Y. M. C. A. is trying to secure funds to erect a mammoth public bath house and swimming pool. It is estimated that $75,000 will be needed.

Fire Sunday morning burned a barn belonging to the Stambaugh-Thompson Co. and two horses badly burned had to be killed.

The Standard Casket Hardware Co. will move its plant to this city from Pennsylvania.

North Jackson.
SEPT. 30.—Fine rain Monday. Much more needed.

Rev. Wiseman has served his pastoral relations with the Presbyterian church of this place. He is now located in Sebring.

Joel Woodward and wife have returned from a visit with relatives in Zanesville.

Mr. Thomas will move his family to Taylor's Corners where he purchased a farm.

Guy Hoover of Alliance visited friends here the first of week.

J. C. Umstead says he enjoys racing even if he does lose a buggy top once in a while.

Prof. Glass is progressing nicely teaching in our school with Miss Ines Gault as assistant.

Miss Florence Kistler is teaching in Rosemont, Angie Siroop at Ellsworth Station and Len Flick at Cornersburg.

Stephen Golden's smiling face was seen here Saturday evening.

Leo Thompson, of Youngstown, spent Sunday here with his parents.

Mrs. Saffie, who was ill with typhoid fever at Joel Woodward's, left yesterday for her home.

The clopers have returned.

Born, to Frank Jones and wife, a girl. Mrs. Wm. Garry was thrown out of her buggy in Niles Sunday and one of her hips was broken. Her little son was also injured about the face.

Mrs. J. G. Foulk, whose maiden name was Mabel Handwork, died Tuesday evening, aged 10 years. The deceased had until recently been teaching school in the village, her husband being teaching at Kyle's Corners. On Sept. 22 she gave birth to a son and her death followed one week later. The child is doing well. Funeral services will be held from the home of J. G. Foulk on Friday, Rev. L. D. Spangy conducting same.

Sebring.
SEPT. 30.—Sebring held its second annual home coming Saturday, the event attracting the largest number of people ever seen here. Fully 5,000 people came from a wide range of territory, many from beyond the state.

The decorations were fine, the main street being especially beautiful. Flags and bunting were in evidence everywhere. Free dinner was provided all, each person being given two big slices of bread or a bun with a liberal supply of meat sandwiches between, a couple of pickles, an ear of roast corn and a cup of coffee. Two heaves killed to supply the meat, and 5,000 ears of corn, 1,000 bush and 500 loaves of bread went to feed the multitude. There were contests of all kinds and games, excellent horse racing, and a big political meeting in the evening.

Gen. Grosvenor, the sage of Athens, with Congressman Kennedy, being chief speakers. A big delegation from Youngstown with 500 uniformed men in line of march was a feature of the afternoon.

During the past week 140 building lots have been sold in the Pleasant Heights addition and seven of ten one acre allotments platted. A decided land boom seems on at present.

Catholic people of Sebring are about to begin the building of a church edifice, its location to be in the Pleasant Heights addition. Rev. Father Schoenmann has been stationed here as pastor of the parish and held first services Sunday, meeting place being Heacock's hall.

REACTION IS SURE
FALL MILLINERY STYLES ARE TOO EXTREME.
Good Designers Realize That Revision and Modification Will Be Demanded by American Women Who Dress Well.

No siren ever called men to danger and destruction more effectively than do millinery openings lure women into bankruptcy of dress allowances. The enticements of the fall openings are many and deceptive.

At first glance, the average shopper will decide that all styles are extreme and she must be resigned. If she selects her hat on this supposition she is making a grave mistake, because after the exaggerations of the fall openings will come a reaction in favor of more sane styles.

This much in warning. Do not buy your fall hat, which may have to last you well into the winter, until you have studied the millinery field thoroughly. Do not pin your faith to the milliner's statement that only the extreme styles will be worn. Good designers already admit that the extreme styles of the moment will be revised and modified within a month's time. The American woman simply will not be made to look like a frump, and selecting an extreme style for millinery for general wear, not occasions, stamps the woman as the frump, the person of hopelessly bad taste.

Naturally the first question raised at fall opening was this: "What will replace the merry widow sailor?"

And the answer is: "The English walking hat, crowned with a man's silk tie."

Not a promising outlook, is it, especially for the middle-aged woman of conservative tastes? And the oddest thing about the situation is that the woman who wore the merry widow sailor is quite sure that she can swing to the other extreme and look smart in the severe English hat which the millinery world is trying to popularize.

In addition to the walking hat described above, there are many large and bizarre shapes. The merry widow shape, probably a trifle larger in diameter, has a higher crown, and is bent in the back. Another large hat, but trimmed with wintry fabrics, is as broad as the merry widow, but droops on the sides, suggesting the big sunbonnet or scoop-shaped hat.

In fact, the extreme hats along these lines seem almost to touch the shoulder. Fluted brims appear, and while there is no bandeau, the brim is sharply tilted on the left side. Crowns are generally high, some running up absolutely straight and others graduated, smaller at the top than where they join the brim, like a peach basket. What few toques are shown at all have elaborately fluted brims and a very heavy look.

Soft Bristle Brush Best.
The most important method for achieving pretty gray hair is by the use of a long, soft, bristle brush. For by applying it—even if the hair is inclined to come out easily the fall is not increased and the brushing will accomplish much by way of taking out the dust. The brush should be used, not by drawing close down against the scalp, as would be done were one trying to bring luster to the surface, but as a clothes brush might be applied, lifting the hair in strands and bringing the bristles through in short, sharp strokes that will raise the dust and take it out. In this point lies the value of the treatment, and unless the brush is wielded in such way as to dust, rather than to brush, the whole object has failed.

For the Girl Who Crochets.
The girl who likes a bit of crocheting on hand should immediately make for herself a set of Irish crochet buttons for the front of her shirt waist.

These are popular just now and look charming on the batiste waists, made in tailored fashion, that many women wear the season round.

To go with the buttons, of which there should be four if as large as a two-cent piece, and five if smaller, she could crochet or buy narrow Irish crochet edging for down each side of the box-plait, around the cuff and Dutch collar.

When worn with a tie or jabot of Irish "crochet" a "smart" shirt waist is assured.

Pharaoh's Mummy.
Pharaoh's mummy has been discovered and unfolded, and the eyes of readers of these pages can rest on the very features on which the eyes of Moses looked 3,000 years and more ago.

The Worst of All Hils.
I expect to suffer a thousand ills, but none so great as to act unjustly—Soerates.

A great many people easily manage to find all the thorns and thistles that grow along the roadside.

Your Deposits
In any bank are as safe as the value of the assets in the loan item, no more, no less, and it must follow that the safety of your money in any financial institution, depends largely, if not altogether upon the honesty and ability of the officers and directors in making up the loan item with the choicest kind of securities. In view of the bank troubles in this section of the state, we will be pardoned for stating at this time, that The Farmers

National
Bank of Canfield, Ohio, has not loaned its money to a favored few, or to inside parties; has not, in the making of loans, lost sight of security for its depositors and stockholders; that it has no connection with, or any of the securities of the failed banks. The officers and directors of this

Bank
are striving to develop a safe bank. The prudent depositor should know the character and the standing of the bank with which he deals, and we will be very glad to have any of our patrons come in, and inquire into the methods and management of the "Old Reliable" bank at
