The fact was divulged when the mother drew a pail of water and got a portion of the little one's dress on the ball of the bucket. The child was rescued, but was beyond all means of resuscitation.

The Salem Herald says: Elizabeth Stockwell, who visited Mrs. Summers near the city limits, returned home to Toegarden, Wednesday. She made quite a record a short time ago. Mrs. Stockwell, who is 90 years of age, walked from Toegarden to the Summers home, a distance of seven miles in two hours and 30 minutes which is considered remarkable. This about beats the record for Ohio women of that age.

Adam Moherman, who is declared to be the oldest man in Mahoning county, recently celebrated his 102nd birthday anniversary. He was in Youngstown, Thursday, drawing his pension and before returning to his home in Poland walked about in the down-town section, which he had not visited for years. He said he could distinctly remember when Federal street, now the main business thoroughfare of the city, was a cow pasture.

Secretary of State Carmel Thompson has prepared the official ballot for the November election. It is the largest sheet of paper the voters of Ohio have ever been called upon to mark. In addition to the candidates for president and vice president, it contains the names of the electors, the congressional ticket, the state ticket, the candidates for the judiciary, both circuit and common pleas, the legislative ticket and the county ticket. Extraordinary care will be required in marking the ballots, especially if a split ticket is contemplated.

Though the ranks of the civil war veterans are growing thinner all the time, the pension list steadily increases. The report of the Columbus pension agency through which the pensioners of the state of Ohio are paid shows that there were 94,428 pensioners at the close of the quarter, an increase of 230 over the July quarter. This increase is due to the age act, granting all soldiers over 60, no matter what their service was, a monthly pension of $12. The total amount paid in pensions in Ohio during the last quarter was $4,939,000.

Visit the school, as it now stands only second in the claims upon your responsibility as parents. Next to the home it has the strongest claims upon the direct interests of parents. Parents see to it that your schools are visited and cared for, as it is of vital importance to those who are given into your charge for special guardianship. The home and school have most to do in the formation of character as a rule.

Don't be a "knocker." That is only an infinitesimal degree less shameful than being a toady. Neither flatter nor court flattery; dare to speak of other men's faults when the common good demands it, but otherwise be silent on that subject; and be always a little more ready to endure unjust criticism than to criticize others unjustly. In the long run the man who follows this counsel will be liked and trusted and respected.

An exchange is responsible for the following chunk of wisdom: When one hog gets an ear of corn every other hog will trot along behind and equal and beg and is ready for a bite but just let the hog get his head fast in the crack of a fence and every hog in the lot will jump on and help tear him to pieces. Just so it is with men. As long as a man is prosperous and has money he can't keep friends off with a ball bat. The moment he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone he is not only snubbed by his former friends but they begin to do all the harm possible. When a man starts down grade the world steps to one side and greases the track.

Ohio's Grand Lodge of Masons, now in session at Cincinnati, is just one hundred years old and was instituted at Chillicothe, Ohio, in 1808 with a membership of less than one hundred. There are now 72,000 members of the Blue Lodge alone in Ohio and 510 chapters of lodges. Gen. Rufus Putnam, famous in Ohio's history, was the first Grand Master. There have been fifty since the day of Putnam. George D. Copeland of Marion is the present Grand Master and is a prominent figure in the centennial celebration. The grand parade of Ohio Blue Lodge Masons Thursday afternoon was impressive, 12,000 Master Masons being in line. In the evening there was elaborate entertainment in music.

This Masonic week in Cincinnati will long be remembered by all whose good fortune it was to be present. A man named Powell, who hauls fish from Walnut Log to Hickman, is said to have been forced to accompany the mob, which numbered about 80 members. Powell had been staying at the hotel and when the riders called everyone out and compelled them to line up, Powell, Col. Taylor, Capt. Rankin and a surveyor, whose name is not given, are said to have been taken away, while the others were permitted to return to their beds.

Powell says that after killing Rankin a vote was taken regarding the disposition to be made of Taylor. During the dispute Taylor made a dash, jumped into the bayou and started to swim across. A number of shots were fired at him. In the confusion Powell slipped away and brought back the story of the escape or attempted escape of Taylor. Searchers found the trees on the edge of the bayou clipped by bullets and there were deep footprints in the mud along the shore. On the other side of the bayou there was a single footprint and some think this may be the track of Col. Taylor.

Gov. Patterson arrived at Humboldt during the afternoon and held a consultation with citizens of Trenton, who came down to meet him. Gov. Dispute Over Right to Fish in a Tennessee Lake Ends in Tragedy—$10,000 Reward for Arrest of Murderers.

Union City, Tenn., Oct. 21.—Advices from Reelfoot Lake, where masked men early Tuesday took Col. R. Z. Taylor, aged 60 years, and Capt. Quentin Rankin, both prominent lawyers of Trenton, out of their hotel at that place and murdered the latter, fail to report the finding of Col. Taylor's body, or to reveal any trace of his whereabouts, and it is thought that Col. Taylor may have escaped. Capt. Rankin's body was found Tuesday, riddled with bullets and hanging from a tree one mile from the hotel.

The trouble between inhabitants on the banks of Reelfoot Lake and Taylor and Rankin originated several years ago when the two latter men organized the West Tennessee Land Co., bought Reelfoot Lake from non-resident property owners and made regulations of their own concerning fishing privileges. Col. Taylor also secured the passage in the legislature of an act making it a misdemeanor to fish in the lake without paying a heavy fee.

A man named Powell, who hauls fish from Walnut Log to Hickman, is said to have been forced to accompany the mob, which numbered about 80 members. The Modesty of Women
