

Terms: $1.00 a Year.

An Independent Family Journal—Devoted to the Interests of All Classes and Nationalities.

VOL. XXXIII.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, O., FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1909.

NO. 3.

WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

All around us, fair with flowers,
Fields in bloom, the birds are singing,
All around us Easter voices
Call to duty sweet and high.

Easter Observance Here.

The gladness of Easter of Ohio was ushered in on Good Friday last Sunday morning when the Angelus of St. Patrick's church called the faithful to early mass, and the Lutheran church bell announced the usual services in the Methodist Episcopal church. The 40 days' fast was broken by the feast of Easter. The day had its origin way back in the mists of antiquity. The Jews observed it as their feast of Passover; while Christians observe it in commemoration of a risen Redeemer. The "Mystery of Boreas" from the manger to the cross has been "lifted up from the earth" and has drawn all nations unto himself. The Lutherans of this village observed Easter by administering the Holy Communion at their forenoon services, and with religious exercises by the children in the evening. The M. E. Church also rendered a children's program the same evening, both churches being well patronized by fair-sized audiences.

Sunday afternoon a moving picture show in Leontina illustrated scenes in the life of Christ from his birth to his ascension. And to those who have not seen this Passion Play it is well worth their nickel to see it. Boys and girls too young to understand the theological importance of the Resurrection take much pleasure from a plateful of colored eggs, from which the early Germans got the word "Egg" from Easter. No matter, therefore, whether by the object lesson of a colored egg and picture, or let it come in the intellectual religion of President Taft which says, "The spirit of Jesus Rises Above Orthodox Christianity," the world is made better by some way of observing each returning Easter Sunday; for "in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are all men most miserable."—1 Cor. xv, 19.

The band realized $45.25 from their drama. This may be a prosperous year for miners, or bit. Farmers are buying much fertilizer from Elmer Warner. Wm. Hilger visited at Wm. Money's near Canfield Tuesday. L. A. Callahan says that he sold 32 tons of tobacco last year. Electric lights have been placed at waiting station at stop 11. David Kennedy will occupy Frank Stouffer's new house north of town. A fine flow of oil has been tapped on the Graham farm near West Point. Henry Richards secured a pony in Leontina last Saturday for 10 cents. H. A. Stouffer of the Erie office at Niles spent Sunday with relatives here. Glen Smedley has a position with the American Case & Register Co. at Salem. Bert Simpson and wife of Mineral Ridge spent Easter with his parents here. A car load of drain tile was hauled from here to the farm of Jesse Esterly Tuesday. Mrs. S. C. Wilson and daughters Epha and Kathryn spent Friday in Youngstown.

One youth in town claims to have eaten two dozen water eggs and still lives to tell the story. Easter hats and tan shoes were no less conspicuous among gents than with ladies last Sunday. The Y. & O. R. is a great convenience to those who reside here and work in Salem and Leontina. Ed. Wilma, wife and son of Alliance spent Sunday at the home of Walter Bowman and wife. Wm. Weikart, sr., has bought a 3-year-old cow, and the next move will be to teach it to work. Spring is here in earnest. Boys were along the creeks last Sunday catching frogs and killing snakes. Mrs. Edith Kall of Lisbon spent Sunday at the home of her parents, ex-Mayor Longnecker and wife. When in need of cut flowers, potted plants and wreaths, remember that Cox's greenhouse has anything you desire. The Carlisle family of Lisbon fall heir to $15,000 by the recent death of James Hanley at Ballarosa, county Antrim, Ireland. Dogs and chickens appear to have no rights to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" when scorching their neighbors' gardens. Witnesses for the grand jury at Lisbon were summoned from here Tuesday probably in the robbery and shooting affray of a few weeks ago. Mrs. Louise Vigron spent Monday with relatives in Mineral Ridge, where her son, Edward, is working in the store of his uncle, Bruno Koch. Barney, the freeman on "Dolly," has been given the job of motorman on the Y. & O. and Chas. Blackburn has taken his place on the shifter. Mrs. Emma Lewis and Mrs. George Holloway of Columbiana were here buying millinery and spent Sunday as guests of Mrs. Hannah Stouffer. Additional town lots are being laid out at West Point in anticipation of the short cut of the C. & P. railroad, being constructed through that hamlet. Following the strike at the Peeries mine last week the sub-district president called out the miners at West Point Saturday, operated by the same company. Rev. W. E. Hollist of Kingsville, O., a former minister at this place, has a very readable article in last week's Christian Advocate entitled, "Now I Know to Part."

Mrs. A. L. Taylor reached another anniversary last Thursday, and her friends gave her a shower of post cards. Since then she has been visiting relatives in Cleveland. Chas. King and family of Salem will move to Tompstone, Ariz., about June 1st for the benefit of his health and will be accompanied by his sister, Miss Lydia King, of this place. John L. Zimmerman was here Friday and accompanied his father to Springfield. Miss Tammy Moore having been taken to a hospital, leaving the elder Zimmerman without a housekeeper. House cleaning time is with us again; and this includes painting, wall papering, washing of window curtains, bed linen, etc. The good housewives have troubles of their own, and we of the sterner sex should assist, and not get too grouchy.

James Seitzine is working in the country for Glen Bertolotto.

Subscriptions to The Dispatch are received by Peter M. Herold. $1 a year. W. A. Roller of Green township is interviewing the farmers as to the value of their personal property. Master Paul Vigron, of school room No. 1, spent the week's vacation with his sister Mary in Youngstown. Some early garden has been made, and some imported "garden snas" is expected for sale in our groceries. Orr Brothers have contracted to make cement cooler for milk, to be used by Mr. Summers of Millville. Now would be an excellent time to do village contract work while unemployed laborers can be had without coaxing. An ox team hauling drain tile to the country east of town was a great sight to the school boys Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Miller and Miss Myrtle Schilling of Columbiana were Sunday guests of Henry Gets and wife. The "Terrible Turk," Yusuf Mahomed, was defeated in a wrestling bout by Frank Gotch in Chicago Wednesday night. The American issue has a large number of readers on the north side of Main street, and is a fair exponent of "dry" principles. The band boys have been requested to repeat their drama, "In a Spider's Web," at Perry Grange hall, on the Franklin road out of Salem. Wait Callahan has received an iron roller and a disc harrow from the factory, and is now in line with his progressive neighbors in Green township. The police force not being equal to the emergency Tuesday night, Mayor Moore lent a helping hand and landed four victims behind the bars in Hotel de Plaisance Saturday. Ex-Mayor White of Barnesville will talk "dry" in the Lutheran church Sunday p. m. We can all afford to be dry on Sunday, so let us give the speaker a "full house."

An adjoining township the road supervisor has discovered that better roads can be made with a King drag at $8.66 per mile than can be made in the old way at $43.63 per mile. Among the 35 "dry" speakers to invade Mahoning county next Sunday, will be ex-Mayor White of Barnesville, Ohio, who will speak in the Lutheran church of Washingtonville. Isaiah Hilleman last week washed the index finger on his left hand when doing some stone work for John Bush in Green township. He has a contract for building a barn wall at the Y. & O. summit near Lisbon. Ira Christman, wife and little son of Canfield spent part of Sunday with friends here. Christman and son remaining until Wednesday evening.

Sebring. APRIL 14—An Easter service entirely out of the ordinary, so far as church relationship is concerned, was held at the Presbyterian church. It was one in which the young people of the Presbyterian and Catholic churches affiliated, rendering a cantata in a most pleasing and meritorious way. No town in Ohio has a more friendly church relationship than does Sebring. The Service Pump Co., builders of steam pumps of all kinds, is leaving the city, locating at Orrville. The Mahoning Presbytery is in session at the Presbyterian church here this week, a large number of ministers and laymen being present. The sessions thus far have been very interesting. Tuesday evening Rev. J. C. Pickens of Poland, former pastor of the church here, talked on "The life of John Calvin."

A concert was given in the opera house Tuesday evening, proceeds going to the building fund of the new Catholic church. A singing society has been organized holding its first meeting Friday evening. Louis Eriar has entered suit in Mahoning courts for divorce from his wife, Della Eriar, alleging willful absence for a period of more than three years. Thomas York, who was employed at the Limoges pottery, has gone to Canton, to engage in the grocery business. A number of pottery workers are going to Columbus, taking positions in the pottery there, with the new owners, Buxton & Beatty, former Sebring people. Among them are Harry Rice, A. P. Mercer, Sylvester Heideger, Nelson Delong, George Elliott, Nick Wynn are leaving to accept places in the pottery at Evansville, Ind. Improvements being made about the depot. A movement is on foot looking toward the draining of the lowlands southeast of town.

Milton. APRIL 14—Mrs. F. A. Eekis spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Helen Rose. Melvin Van Winkle and wife of Tiger called on his brother Scott Sunday evening. Miss Zelma Creed and brother Glenn spent Thursday in Newton Falls. Mrs. Blanche Klingeman and son Howard spent Friday at S. C. Rose's. Mrs. Geo. Schrader of Berlin spent Monday here with her daughter, Mrs. Scott Van Winkle. H. C. Creed was in Jackson Saturday. D. P. Cooper of Youngstown, one of the members of the Mahoning County Option committee, was here Friday organizing Milton township for the purpose of securing the sentiment of the voters in regard to the Rose law election. Misses Edna and Diane Lingo and brother Emory of Jackson spent Thursday evening with Wm. Creed and family. Glenn and Herman Creed were in Canfield township Monday. Quarterly meeting at Orr's Corners M. E. Church Saturday and Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Berlin Center. APRIL 14—L. T. Klyne of Youngstown visited his sister, Mrs. Leonard, a few days this week. Miss Cora Beckman of Mingo Junction was at home over Sunday. Prof. Koris, wife and son of Barberton visited Mrs. Ellen Hartzell a few days recently. Mrs. O'Neil and sister, Mrs. Allen, have returned from Georgia. Raymond Hack and wife spent Sunday with Patmos friends. Mrs. L. C. Mock spent a few days last week with Youngstown friends. Arthur Beckman, wife and little daughter of Cortland are guests at the home of H. Beckman. Emerson Wolf, Lothar Carson and Lamer Stanley were home from Mt. Union over Sunday. S. S. Best is ill with tonsillitis.

East Lewistown. APRIL 14—Wm. Burnette's children are improving and will soon be able to be out. Nelson Lodwick, who is to occupy the farm after the removal of Mr. Burnette, is at present butchering with Mr. Spizler, who lives on the Abe Motor place, until he can remove his family. Warren Bare had business in Canfield the first of this week. Charles Davis, Allen Reed and H. L. Burns attended a sale in the east precinct Tuesday. Mary Coy, who visited her sister, Susan Longnecker, for a few weeks, has returned home. Warren Bare spent Sunday with his brother Elmer in Youngstown. Rev. Albert Harold of the Brethren church will give a lecture on temperance in the Union church Sunday evening. Everybody invited. Clifton Blosser and Fred Crumbraker were in the city Saturday. Some of our Sunday school workers attended the Sunday school convention in Mt. Olivet church at North Lima Sunday afternoon. Wm. Gens of the east precinct was here Friday evening. Our citizens are spending their leisure time in the vicinity of liquor, called here Wednesday evening on their home ward trip, and while spending a few hours at the Wunderlin store a jug containing a gallon of whisky was stolen from their buggy. Citizens are warning the law, those who stole the booze or the men who brought it here? However, in either case, it is making dry votes just the same. Oscar Elser and John Harter were in the east precinct Saturday. Allen Culp and Edna Sauerwein of Bogertown were here Saturday evening. The sick in this vicinity continue to improve. David Longnecker is erecting out-buildings near his location for a new house which will be erected next fall. Oscar Elser, wife and family were guests of Ephraim Crumbraker Sunday afternoon. Frank Barger and wife of Pleasant Valley were guests of relatives here Sunday. A few fields of oats have been sown by our farmers. Ira Christman, wife and little son of Canfield spent part of Sunday with friends here. Christman and son remaining until Wednesday evening.

Patmos. APRIL 14—Florence Middleton and Glenn Leyman are quite sick with chickenpox. Arthur Leyman, H. M. Stallsmith and L. D. Waters, with their families, and Lillie and Lizzie Devan took oysters and music with them and spent one evening pleasantly last week at the home of Wash Heinger in Ellsworth township. Mrs. Laura Fogg returned home to Canfield Friday after spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Levi Leyman. Lacy Barker and wife and Chas. Rice were Sunday visitors at B. F. Regal's. Homer Greenamyre wife and daughter spent Sunday at Clyde Owen's. Harry Devan has taken Ed Riley's place upon the cream route. Roy Barco visited Sunday at the home of his aunt, Flora Keg. Mrs. E. Stallsmith spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mary Leyman. A box social will be held at No. 1 school house, Goshen township, under the direction of Edith Under. Every one invited. Ladies bring boxes. Easter services at Bunker Hill were well attended. There was a good program. The decorations were done very tastefully. The annual collection for Foreign Missions amounted to $17 an increase of $1 over last year, not counting the India famine orphan fund. Frances Stallsmith spent Saturday at the home of her parents, Herman Voneman and wife. H. M. Gunder sold a cow and calf to W. W. Burns. Chas. King and son Leroy visited at Norwood Stanley's Sunday.

Getzsbury. APRIL 14—M. C. Clay was in Painesville Monday. Mrs. L. A. Coy and Mrs. George McIntire of Calla called on friends here Friday. Frank Rhodes, wife and son Guy spent Sunday with Greenford friends. W. S. Clay purchased 10 acres adjoining his farm from M. G. Huffman. Lewis Toot and wife of East Leontina spent Sunday with M. C. Clay's. Coy brothers of Calla were here last week. Clifford Seigeman attended Sunday school in Salem Sunday. Mrs. E. A. Schurenberger and Mrs. Elias Konrad spent a day last week with Mrs. George Ziesler in Mineral Ridge. Roy Clay and little brothers of Calla spent Sunday with their uncle, W. S. Clay. Mr. Harmon of Beaver township purchased pigs of Wm. Huppel Monday. Mrs. John Coy and son Lawrence of Greenford and Mrs. John Kindig and daughter Vesta of Chestnut Valley spent Sunday at Joseph Kindig's.

Apple Avenue. APRIL 14—Eli Paulin and family and Miss Etta Goodman of Calla, F. L. Crockett and family of Dublin, Misses Celesta and Rachel Goodman and Miss Mabel Zimmerman of Salem, Josie Goodman and wife and Richard Goddard and family spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Goodman. Fred Elmer is spending a few days at B. F. Campbell's. Maria Davis was in New Buffalo Thursday. Miss Beatrice Davis spent Sunday with her parents here. During the gala Tuesday a part of the roof of B. L. Manchester's barn was blown off. Miss Bessie Justice spent Easter with her friend, Miss Pearl Walker in Salem. Harvey Duetman of Hickory called at Eli Goodman's Sunday afternoon. Miss Hazel Manchester was the guest of her friend, Miss Lucy Arner, in Millville Saturday and Sunday. James Campbell visited friends in Goshen Sunday. Falling in love is as hard on the system as having a hard spell of sickness.

Damascus. APRIL 14—Sunday will go down as a memorable one in the history of the M. E. Church. During the services of the day a class of 80 probationers were received into full church membership and in the evening an interesting and pleasing Easter program was rendered. Telephone lines were considerably damaged by the recent severe winds. Joseph Quinn, of Siskiyou, was a village visitor last week. Rev. Wallace Gill of the Friends' church was in Columbus last week. Ernest Heston and wife spent Easter with friends in New Castle. A Descriptive Publication. (Oxyrhynchus Falls Reporter.) This "warm stuff," the gross amount of news and its excellent correspondence are but a few of the many features making the Canfield Dispatch a really distinctive publication.

North Lima. APRIL 14—The Child's Study Circle will meet Friday afternoon in school hall. All interested will be cordially welcomed. Daniel Heindel has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Baltimore. Henry Yahn and wife of Youngstown visited relatives here Sunday. Otto Entriken, wife and son of Columbians spent Sunday with her parents. Miss Lucile Macklin and lady friend of Alliance spent Saturday and Sunday at Martin Grove's. Francis Reinkenberger, wife and children of Youngstown were Sunday guests at the home of Daniel Color. Mrs. Elizabeth Smith and children of Leontina spent several days last week at Clark Plau's. Mrs. Susannah Forney is confined to the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Covert, with grip. Harry Glenn of Sharon spent Saturday night and Sunday here with his parents. Harvey Snyder and wife of Youngstown visited his mother, Sunday. Miss Dot Jordan of Austintown and Fred Boyer of Youngstown were Sunday guests of Orla Summers. Bert Bailey and wife, Andrew Black and wife and Charles Kurz and wife of the city spent Sunday with Solomon Center. C. A. Snyder of Pittsburg is here visiting his parents. Mrs. Charles Chambers of New Castle is here visiting her brother, Dr. J. V. Chambers. Clarence Heindel returned from Massillon and will stay with his brother George. Charles Hamerick is in Kokomo, Ind. John Hoffman of Mineral Ridge and Miss May Davis of West Austintown were united in marriage at the Evangelical parsonage Thursday by Rev. O. D. Myers. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Pittsburg to visit several days. Loyd Snyder, wife and child of Youngstown visited Mrs. Della Snyder Sunday. Remember the orange social in school hall Friday evening. Mrs. Geo. Gearing Summers, a native of this place who moved to New Waterford six years ago, died Saturday, death resulting from muscular tumors on her neck. Her age was 56 years. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Wentz. Funeral services were held Monday and the remains were brought here for burial.

Cornersburg. APRIL 14—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamman very pleasantly entertained 70 neighbors and friends at their home Saturday evening. Dancing and cards were the evening's amusement. An excellent luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wire, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weick and Miss Beas Wire of Youngstown were pleasantly entertained at the home of G. W. Strook Saturday evening. Vocal and instrumental music whistled the hours away. A midnight luncheon was served. There will be a dance in Fink's hall Saturday night. Mrs. Chas. Sanzenbacher spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Smith, in Austintown. John Brobst draws the reins over a fine team of horses purchased in Struthers. Harry Thompson, who recently purchased the George Hamman farm, has sold it to Albert Pabst of Youngstown, and Mr. Calvin of North Jackson moved to the farm Tuesday. Mr. Pabst will plant 700 fruit trees on the farm. William Call of Florida is spending a few days in this vicinity. Miss Estelle Sanzenbacher of Canfield spent Easter with her parents. Mrs. William Smith and son Harry spent Monday at Henry Baldwin's in Boardman. Miss Mary Bush and niece, Miss Ruth Bush, spent Easter with Mrs. Elizabeth Harding of Canfield. Scott Blackburn and son Donald of Canfield were Sunday visitors at Harry Smith's. Paul Lanning has sold his property and will have a sale Tuesday, April 27. William Hamman moved Monday to his farm recently purchased from Andrew Corll. Mrs. Charles Weaver of East Perkins spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. L. Zimmerman, and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Elsie Turner. Miss Sarahann Jones and niece, Miss Helen Jones, are spending this week with Pittsburg relatives. Ollie Weidy of Ashtabula spent Saturday night at Oscar Barger's. Mr. and Mrs. George Barger of Boardman are spending a few days at Rob Lanterman's. Jas. Leonard has moved to Haseltin. The village school teacher and her pupils spent Monday fishing in Indian Creek. Gen. Orr Succeeds Himself. Columbus, O.—Gov. Harmon has announced a change in the appointment of Edward P. Searl of Toledo as trustee of the Sandusky Soldiers' home. Instead of succeeding Gen. William P. Orr of Piqua, whose term on the board expired April 7, by the change he takes the place of Gen. R. B. Brown of Zanesville, and Gen. Orr is reappointed as his own successor. Searl is a Democrat and Orr a Republican.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

West Austintown. APRIL 14—John Hoffman of Oshkosh and Miss May Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis, were married April 8 by Rev. O. D. Myers at the parsonage in North Lima, from which place they went to visit with friends in McKeesport. Abraham Brandyberry of Youngstown and Miss Doris Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowman, were married April 10 by Rev. Boyer of Akron, at the residence of the bride's parents. The young couple will be at home to friends in Youngstown. The former couple belong to the Evangelical church and the latter to the United Evangelical church of this place. May both spiritual and temporal blessings be their lot in life is the wish of many friends. It is rumored that another couple will soon launch out on the sea of matrimony. Quite a number from here attended the Easter entertainment given by the Sunday school of the Reformed church in Austintown. Rev. and Mrs. Francis Boyle of Marlboro and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neier of Smith's Corners visited at Scott Neier's Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson of Blisfield, Coshocton county, are visiting her with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. John Dehoff and W. O. Hill attended the funeral of Jacob Bailey recently held in Youngstown. James Walters is in falling health. Wm. Bowman purchased a fine Jersey calf at the McKeesport stock farm near Leontina. C. A. Anderson has lately had several attacks of asthma. Cecil Haver of Youngstown has moved to his farm lately purchased from S. Brunstetter. Wm. Bowman sowed a field of oats April 5. Can any farmer in the county beat that?

Toots Corners. APRIL 14—John Gether, and wife of Leontina visited at Wm. Progenzer's Sunday. L. Goodman and daughter Mabel were in Youngstown Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins, and Mr. and Mrs. Mead of Youngstown and Wm. Sigle of Poland visited at A. M. Sigle's Sunday. Mrs. Freeman Baird visited at John Unger's Tuesday. Floyd Progenzer returned home Tuesday from Canton. A. M. Sigle was in Youngstown Saturday. Isaiah Goodman and family and Clyde Toltz as trustee of the Sandusky Soldiers' home. Instead of succeeding Gen. William P. Orr of Piqua, whose term on the board expired April 7, by the change he takes the place of Gen. R. B. Brown of Zanesville, and Gen. Orr is reappointed as his own successor. Searl is a Democrat and Orr a Republican.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just the green clouds of winter who flip to buy bread, who is it that bears the brunt of freight, who is it who pays the rates in coarser strings, in dress shields and in peck-boots, who pays the extra that they put on coarse coats and low shoes, who pays the imposed tariff on face powder and imported rats, who flips to buy new maulic busts and dancing pumps, and wash tub bats, who pays for cold cream and school books, for correct covers and for frocks, for nursing bottles and for lace, for lingerie and baby's socks? Who does it all, says for it all! The husband on whom the year around the death-like, swift collectors call. When woman got a picture had the married man paid for the hat, and now their stockings will go up and he will have to pay for them. It is an intricate web. The wife will turn sometime! Why don't the bachelors get in the game?—Lewis in Houston Post.

Garfield. APRIL 14—A pleasant birthday surprise was accorded Rose McElwenny Sunday, a goodly number of friends being present. A box social afforded mirth and pleasure for the young people of Garfield at the High school room Friday evening. About 25 boxes were placed on sale, the price at which they sold ranging from 80 cents to $1.35 each. Everybody enjoyed the festivities. Scott McConnell of Damascus is now occupying a clerical position in Armstrong's store. Wallace Pettit of Salem was with friends here Sunday. E. E. Stanley has taken possession of the farm recently purchased of Mrs. Judith Armstrong. Much stock is shipped each week from Garfield. His Kick. That stockings will be higher yet than they have been should cause a war! Why do they swipe the married man always, and not the bachelor? The bachelor goes on his way and chorics o'er his gladsome lot, and stocking worry him no whit, he knows not if they're high or not; when drouths come and burn up the crops and make the landscape dry and hot, and when the moolley cow goes dry and all night bemoans her lot until her tongue grows hot and hard and brittle till it breaks in two and she's so weak she has to go and lean against the fence to moo, and it gets hot and hotter yet until the onions he has tried to raise to use some money from roots to grow or come up fried, and the potatoes that he plants in nicely calculated rows come up like Saratoga chips, or else not a potato grows; and when everything is down and out and just