WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

There is talk of a shooting match here Thanksgiving day. Earl Lewis and wife were home from New Castle over Sunday. John Lehman has purchased the Noah E. Noid farm of 40 acres for $8,000.

Miss Violet Summersville of near Garfield spent Sunday here with relatives. Frank Lewis and wife of Philadelphia visited his mother and sister here Sunday.

Prof. Frank Heaton spent the past week with the Bette piano company in Salem.

Mrs. Betta Howell Beck and son of Columbiana were here Friday visiting friends.

Sunday was a pleasant day for out door calling, whether on foot, in a carriage, automobile or by electric line.

Fred Longbottom of Sharon, Pa., John Candler of Youngstown and Fred Bennett of Alliance were home over Sunday.

It is rumored that a football game is being arranged between Lisbon and Salem teams to be played upon the Washingtonville gridiron.

E. M. Peters, formerly with the Cherry Valley Co. of Leontia, has been made general manager of the Hamilton Iron & Steel Co. at Cincinnati.

Ward F. Cobden, a former resident of this village, has invented a brazing iron which is thought to be an improvement over the old mode of brazing.

An order of sale has been issued by the court at Lisbon for the sale of the electric light plant in Leontia, in which L. H. Thullen was trustee and secured judgment for $7,310.35.

Mrs. James Bismire, Mrs. Will Gunn, Mrs. Edward Hardy, Mrs. Wm. Dunn and Mrs. A. J. Tice of Salem and Mrs. George Dunn of Millville were guests of Mrs. Herbert Smedley last Friday.

Salem News: While desiring not to appear rude, we cannot help smiling when we think of what our football boys will do to those Washingtonville and Lisbon aggregations here Thanksgiving day.

When word was telegraphed to Carey Longbottom that the Washingtonville football team had been reinforced by adding Davis, Guehmann and Mayor-elect Stouffer, the South Sharon team immediately cancelled their game for this place last Saturday.

The gas main has been extended the full length of Main street and part of Union street, and will be extended to the other streets whenever sufficient consumers shall have been secured.

Some of the business houses are being piped for that purpose and it is only a question of time until the town will use gas for street lighting.

Peter McEave was here from New Albany last week locating his proposed electric line which starts from the Youngstown courthouse, thence to Canfield, Greenford and Albany to Salem; thence along Main street in Washingtonville to Leontia. Gid Woods' blacksmith shop is to be the temporary car barn and Fisher's corner is to be the general office. This is certainly an age of mental activity.

A light is dawning in the east. Brighter days are in store for Washingtonville. The daily papers announce that gasoline motor cars will soon be installed on this branch of the Erie railroad between Niles and Lisbon, making four trips a day. The cars are built and equipped like electric cars, but doing away with bonded rails and trolley wires. The towns to be benefited are Mineral Ridge, Austintown, Canfield, Loveland, Calla, Greenford, Washingtonville and Leontia.

Luther day exercises were given before a fair-sized audience in the Lutheran church Sunday night. Specially prepared music was a feature of the evening. In the declaiming class were Freddie Paisley, Lena Barrow, Edward Bell and a well delivered poem on "Building a new Church" by Miss Mary Watson. Solos were sung by Will King and Freddie Paisley. Miss Etta Ritter read a History of the Lutheran church and Mrs. E. S. Freed read a paper on "Luther and the Reformation." The great reformer was born in Germany Nov. 10, 1483, and Luther day is an annual event in the church. A collection was taken for Home Missions.

It snowed Wednesday and Thursday for a change. J. C. Welkart & Son are having their stores plumed for gas.

John Barnes has sold his lunch wagon and it has been taken to Leontia. A vicious, worthless dog was shot on Main street about 11 o'clock Sunday night.

The village cooler was pretty well filled with East Liverpool swells Monday night. "Pipe dreams" are things of the past in this village. We now have the genuine article.

The Royal Welsh Choir will sing in Salem Dec. 20 for the benefit of the city hospital fund.
